OF THE BOMBAY BRANCH OF THE ROYAL ASIATIC SOCIETY.

No. 763 of 1895.

From

Colonel G. E. HANCOCK,
Acting Political Agent, Káthiáwár.

To

The Honourable Mr. G. W. VIDAL, I.C.S.,
Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Bombay.

Political Department.

Káthiáwár Political Agency,

Rájkot, 10th August 1895.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the Annual Report on the Administration of Káthiáwár for the year 1894-95, to which are appended the reports of—

(1) The President, Rájasthánik Court,

(2) The Judicial Assistant,

(3) The Administrator, Porbandar,

(4) The Assistant Political Agent, Mália.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

G. E. HANCOCK, Colonel,

Acting Political Agent, Káthiáwár.

PART I.

SUMMARY.

Personnel.

The office of Political Agent was held by Colonel G. E. Hancock up to the 7th November 1894 when Sir Charles Ollivant returned from leave and resumed charge of the Agency. On his appointment as Acting Commissioner in Sind, Colonel Hancock was re-appointed to act as Political Agent and received charge on the 2nd March 1895.

The season.

2. The season was an average one. Heavy rain fell in the Province especially in the northern portion of it and caused much damage to animal life and property. A portion of the town walls of Vánkáner was washed away by the force of the flood of the Machhu river, and the towns of Morvi and Mália also suffered from the same cause Seeds were destroyed and fresh sowings did not produce full crops. In the other parts of Káthiáwár the rain was not so heavy and therefore the returns were better. The general health of the people was good throughout the year.

His Excellency the Governor's farewell visit to the Province.

3. The Province was honoured by a farewell visit from His Excellency the Governor Lord Harris in November. His Excellency stayed one day at Dhrángadhra, where His Highness the Ráj Saheb had made preparations for his reception and entertainment. The next place visited was Bhávnagar, where at the request of His Highness the Mahárája His Excelleney opened the Lord Harris Road and laid the foundation-stone of the Lord Harris Railway Terminus. After a stay of two days at Bhávnagar His Excellency proceeded to Junágad and here had the pleasure of opening the new road up the Dátár Hill. From Junágad His Excellency proceeded to Gondal and was the guest of His Highness the Thákor Sáheb of Gondal for a day and then arrived at Rájkot on the 17th November. Here he was received by all the European and Native Officers of the States and the Chiefs of Dhrol, Chuda, Vala, Jasdan, Láthi, Virpur, Kotdá-Sángáni, and other petty Tálukdárs. On the same evening His Excellency visited the Rájkumár College, distributed prizes to the students and bade the Kumárs farewell. On the 19th November His Excellency took train for Morvi and after a day's stay there, returned to Wadhwán en route for Bombay. The Chiefs were much gratified at the kind solicitude which His Excellency always displayed for the welfare of the Province and the unusual pains His Excellency took in visiting it during his tenure of office.

Extinction of dacoity.
Hindu-Mahomedan disputes.

4. The Province was not troubled by any serious disturbance or lawlessness during the year, and since the destruction, on the 10th April 1894, of the dacoit gang under Juma Gand by the Dhrángadhra Police under Mr. Souter as mentioned in the last year's report, organized dacoity has ceased to exist. The trial of the Pátan rioters was completed and judgment delivered at Junágad by the Special Commission presided over by the Hon'ble Mr. Phirozsháh Mehta on the 29th May 1894. Out of 77 accused persons 18 persons were convicted and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment. The accused Mahomedans appealed to Government but were informed that Government saw no reason to interfere. The feeling between Hindus and Mahomedans at Pátan has for the time being cooled down. But at the end of the year the long standing disputes between the Nágar Tálukdárs and Memons of Vasávad burst into a sort of riot or affray, in which several Mahomedans were wounded. The Tálukdárs and their followers were arrested with the aid of the Agency Police and put upon their trial in the Agency Sessions Court. Since the close of the year the trial has been completed, ending in the acquittal of all of the accused.

The States.

Junágad: Changes in the administration.

5. It was mentioned in last year's report that the administration of the Junágad State was marked by internal troubles and controversies with Government. As a consequence of this State of affairs Mr. Chunilál Sárábhái, the Acting Diván, was directed by Government to revert to British service, and Mr. Haridás Viháridás resumed charge in August as a temporary measure only until another suitable successor could be selected. In December the services of the Mahomedan Chief Judge, Mr. Gulam Mahomad Munshi, Barrister-at-Law, were suddenly dispensed with, and there was considerable excitement among the people. About this time the term for which Mr. Phiroz-shah M. Mehta was employed as Judicial Councillor was about to expire. Sir Charles Ollivant therfore held interviews with His Highness the Nawáb and his officials to consider the situation and eventually it was settled that Mr. Shyámji Krishnawarma Pandit, M.A., and Barrister-at-Law, late Diván of Ratlám and then Judicial Councillor at Udepur in Rajputána should be appointed Diván, that Mr. Gulábdás Láldás Nánávati, Sar Nyáyádhish, Porbandar, should be appointed Chief Judge and that the services of Mr. A. F. Maconochie, I. C. S should be obtained by His Highness from Government for employment as Alienation Settlement Officer. Mr. Shyámji Krishnawarma relieved Mr. Haridás in February and Mr. Gulábdás joined his duties in the State after the close of the year. Mr. Maconochie having obtained five months' leave was not able to enter upon his special duties during the year. It is to be hoped that these gentlemen will be allowed full freedom of action and scope for improving the administration, and that His Highness the Nawáb will endeavour to see things for himself and regularly attend to the business of the State in direct concert with these responsible advisers.

Land disputes with Inámdárs.

6. The troublesome disputes between the Darbár and the Khán of Khádia, the Sáyads of Sokhda, and the Desáis of Junágad will now be disposed of by Mr. Maconochie, and any further interference from the Agency will be obviated.

Feeling between Hindus and Mahomedans.

7. With the completion of the trial of the Pátan rioters, in which 18 Mahomedans were convicted and sentenced, the ill-feeling between the Hindus and Mahomedans has subsided in Junágad at least for the present.

8. The death of His Highness Sir Vibháji, K.C S.I., an event which occurred just after the close of the year but which is too important to be left unnoticed, has deprived the Jámnagar State of a well-meaning and benevolent Ruler. The administration of Navánagar during the year was carried on as usual without trouble of any kind, the only unsatisfactory feature that has come prominently to notice being the large increase of the State debt. Last year it was reported to be Rs. 6,31,107, and now it is found to be over eleven or twelve Lákhs. The Diván has furnished an explanation but Government have directed that the matter calls for further investigation and scrutiny at the hands of the Administrator recently appointed.

Jámnagar: Death of His Highness the Jám: Debts.

9. The heir-apparent Jaswatsingji has joined the Rájkumár College since the close of the year. The final sanction of Government to commence the construction of the Jámnagar Railway was also received after the official year expired.

The heir-apparent. Jámnágar Railway.

10. The enlightened administration of Bhávnagar leaves little to be desired. His Highness the Mahárája continues to govern his principality with his usual wisdom and steadiness. During the winter months His Highness visited the districts and was most loyally received by the people. The Kumár Bhávsingji has been appointed Commandant of the Bhávnagar Imperial Lancers and also nominated an Additional Member of the Military and State Councils and is endeavouring to get an insight into the working of the various State Departments. The Bhávnagar State Police detected a most daring crime of uttering forged Government Currency Notes and with the aid of a British Officer of the Bombay Police succeeded in getting the offenders tried and punished in the State Courts.

Bhávnagar: Administration. Currency Note forgery case.

11. The relations of His Highness the Ráj Sáheb with the heir-apparent Kumár Ajitsingji, though apparently harmonious, still continue to lack cordiality. His Highness and his Police Superintendent Mr. Souter are to be congratulated on the signal success with which the State Police destroyed the remnant of the dacoit gang under Juma Gand on the 10th April 1894 by which a deadly and final blow was struck at outlawry in the Province. The term for which the services of Mr. Souter were lent to the State having expired, a qualified Native Officer has been appointed to succeed him.

Dhrángadhra.

12. Morvi continues to be administered by His Highness the Thákor Sáheb with his usual strength of character and personal direction of affairs. The corruption cases have ended in certain convictions, but no details have been furnished and the Agency has not interfered. For the settlement of disputes with Cutch, Mr. R. M. Kennedy was appointed by Government as Special Commissioner and entered upon his work in July last.

Morvi.

13. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb of Gondal, actuated by a sense of the illiterate condition of the majority of the landed gentry of the Province, has determined to establish a school at his capital for the education of Girásia boys who are too poor to avail themselves of the benefits afforded by the Tálukdári Girásia School at Wadhwán. The scheme is an excellent and useful one and His Highness deserves credit for this wise application of the resources of his State for the good of the Province.

Gondal.

Second Class States.

14. The relations between the Thákor Sáheb of Pálitána and his brother Sámatsingji continue to be unfriendly. The dispute regarding the money claim has been decided by Government in Sámatsing's favour. The Wálukad-Khijadia case has been entrusted to the Special Commissioner Mr. R. M. Kennedy for disposal. Dhrol has now fully paid up the loan granted by Government some years ago and is now free from debt. There is nothing special to record regarding the other Second Class States.

Third Class States.

15. In the Third Class States the Chief of Vala has had his children restored to him by the Kotda-Sángáni Thákor through the intervention of Sir Charles Ollivant. Sáela has consolidated its debts and made satisfactory arrangements for their gradual liquidation. The Thákor of Chuda has been allowed to nominate his own Karbhári on his agreeing to certain conditions regarding judicial administration, expenditure, and liquidation of debts. The dispute between the old Chief of Jasdan and his eldest son has been partly settled and the latter is now residing at Jasdan. Another Káthi Tálukdár of Jetpur, Wála Lakhman Merám was promoted from the 4th to the 3rd Class during the year.

Fourth Class States.

16. The young Thákor of Láthi was installed and invested with the full powers of his State on the 21st January last, from which date the Agency management ceased. On the other hand the Chief of Muli having died leaving minor sons, this petty State came under the direct management of the Agency in June 1894. Unsatisfactory reports are received regarding the police of the small Jat State of Bajána on the north-east border of the Province and endeavours are being made to induce the old Chief to employ a good qualified person as Police Superintendent and to allow him to effect reforms. The other 4th Class States do not call for any special mention.

Porbandar.

17. In the States under Government management Porbandar heads the list. The last year's administration has not been marked by any events of special importance, but it is satisfactory to note that the constant friction and disputes which were observable in the time of the late Administrator Mr. Pandit, are entirely at an end and the State machinery goes on smoothly and steadily. Mr. Morison was principally occupied in maturing reforms already introduced and in efforts to maintain the efficiency of the different departments of the State. The commutation of the hearth and other taxes leviable from the Mhers into an assessment on their lands has been completed and approved by Government. The enquiry into land alienation cases was also practically completed during the year. In appreciation of the friendly attitude maintained by His Highness the Rána towards the administration Government have been pleased to re-admit him to the ceremonial privileges of a 1st Class Chief in Káthiáwár. The heir-apparent Kumár Bhávsingji shows considerable improvement under the guidance of his companion Mr. Bhavánidás Govindji.

Vánkáner and Rájkot.

18. The Second Class States of Vánkáner and Rájkot continue to be both well administered. In the former the Bái Sáheb has now ceased to give trouble. Enquiries are being made regarding the large amount of outstandings unrecovered in Vánkáner. The Lálpuri Irrigation Works in Rájkot were sanctioned by Government about the close of the year and are now well in hand under the personal supervision of the Agency Engineer, Mr. Booth, who is paid an allowance of Rupees 500 per mensem as special remuneration for service performed for the State.

Mália.

19. Mália continues to improve under the administration of Captain O'Donnell. The Miánás are realizing that quiet behaviour conduces more to their comfort than their former practices although they cannot yet be trusted to refrain from violating the sanctity of person, life and property. The debts of the State have been ascertained and a commencement has been made towards their liquidation. A Government Telegraph Office was opened at Mália during the year.

Other States under management.

20. There is nothing special to record regarding the smaller States. The sanction of Government was received during the year for the creation of an audit establishment for examination of the accounts of these managed States, and the arrangement was brought into force from September 1894.

New regulations and those under consideration.

21. During the year under report the rules regarding the grant of Sanads to practise as Baristers, Pleaders or Authorized Translators were revised, while those relating to the possession, manufacture, &c., of arms and ammunition were still under the consideration of the States. Some amendments in the procedure relating to interstatal extradition have also been proposed and are now before Government.

Results of the working of the State Police and Agency Police.

22. The results of the working of the State Police show some slight variations as compared with those of the previous year, which do not call for any special notice. The Agency Police exhibit better returns in the percentage of convictions to arrests but a decrease in the percentage of recovery of stolen property, as can be seen from the subjoined abstract.

	Agency.	Jurisdictional States.
No. of offences reported.....	561	6,949
,, accused arrested.....	732	8,279
,, ,, convicted....	389	4,556
Percentage of convictions to arrests	53·14	55·03
Value of property stolen Rs.	21,040	1,50,050
,, recovered ...	13,200	71,472
Percentage of recovery	62·73	47·63

As to the decrease in the percentage of recovery by the Agency police, the Superintendent explains that in the two years previous to the last the percentage was 64·68 and 50·01, that a true and more satisfactory test can be obtained by taking into consideration also the number of cases in which stolen property was recovered, and that according to this combined test the percentage shows an improvement.

23. The total number of dacoities and robberies committed during the year was 7 and 41 against 8 and 46 in the previous year.

Dacoities and robberies and other serious crimes.

In the area under the direct supervision of the Agency violent crime may be said to have been normal; there were 4 cases of murder, 1 of attempt to murder, 4 of culpable homicide against 1, 1 and 6 in the year previous, while dacoities and robberies show a decrease of 2 and 7, against 3 and 10 respectively.

24. Cognizable cases have also decreased from 611 to 561, while an increase is perceptible in non-cognizable cases, the number being 573 against 475 in the last year.

Cognizable and non-cognizable crime.

25. The Superintendent of Agency Police urges that while the force under his control is expected to perform the dual functions of a highly disciplined body as well as of a shrewd detective department, such as would serve as a model for the Native States to follow, the men receive less salaries than the ordinary police in the British Districts. Regarding this matter proposals will be separately submitted to Government.

Need for increases in the pay of the police.

26. The Agency Courts disposed of 1,047 original criminal cases and 62 appeals against 1,093 and 75 in the previous year. Of the 1,047 original criminal cases, 19 were Sessions cases as against 29 in the previous year. Thus it will be seen that there was a decrease in the criminal work.

Criminal cases disposed of by Agency Courts.

27. On the other hand civil work shows an increase, for the number of original civil and political cases decided by the Agency Courts was 3,469 and 695 against 3,370 and 174. The aggregate value of the civil and political cases was Rs. 25,39,061 against Rs. 28,81,254 in the previous year. The increase in the number of political cases may be attributed to the large number of claims against encumbered estates having been disposed of in the Jhálávád Pránt. The number of appeals was 156 and 75 respectively against 193 and 172, which shows a decrease.

Original civil and political cases disposed of by Agency Courts.

28. The Court of the Political Agent exercised its powers of revision in 22 criminal and 19 civil cases, out of which in 19 cases the orders of the Lower Courts were reversed or modified.

Revision of civil and criminal cases.

29. The records of 20 Courts were examined by the Judicial Assistant and results reported to the Political Agent, whereupon injunctions have been issued to the Thánadárs and other officials concerned.

Examination of records.

30. The number of applications for execution of decrees was 3,758 against 3,291, of which 3,419 were disposed of. The number remaining undisposed of at the end of the year was 1,429 against 1,061 in the previous year. The Judicial Assistant will be asked to take measures to get the arrears cleared off by the several Courts concerned.

Execution of decrees.

Registration.

31. The number of documents registered by the Agency Courts during the year was 382 of the total value of Rupees 6,06,912 against 379 of the value of Rupees 5,06,523 last year. The total fees realized amounted to Rupees 5,298 against Rupees 3,805 in the previous year.

Civil cases disposed of by Jurisdictional States.

32. The Jurisdictional States decided 30,410 civil cases of the aggregate value of Rupees 35,15,309 against 31,369 of the value of Rupees 33,25,827. The number of outstanding cases at the end of the year was 5,644 against 5,307 in the previous year. The increase of arrears may be traced to the States of Junágad, Navánagar, Bhávnagar and Morvi, whose attention will be drawn to the matter with a view to use greater despatch.

Crimnal cases disposed of by Jurisdictional States.

33. 12,355 criminal cases were disposed of in the Courts of the Jurisdictional States as against 12,089 in the previous year.

Residuary jurisdiction.

34. 141 cases came before the Agency Courts in the exercise of their residuary jurisdiction against 237 in the previous year.

Opium and salt smuggling cases.

35. Nineteen opium cases were dealt with by the Agency and Jurisdictional State Courts against 12 last year, while the quantity of opium smuggled was 4 Maunds and 18 lbs. as against 7 Maunds and 11 lbs. Of the 21 persons implicated 16 were convicted and five acquitted. There were only 2 salt smuggling cases, the same as last year; and the quantity of salt was 4 Maunds and 23 lbs. against 2 Maunds and 27 lbs. last year.

The Rájasthánik Court.

36. The Rájasthánik Court decided 310 regular cases and passed orders in 6 061 miscellaneous matters against 112 regular cases and 6,778 miscellaneous orders last year. The number of cases disposed of has been abnormally swelled by the Hak Patrak cases of the Muli State, of which 187 of precisely the same nature were disposed of by the determination of two first test cases. In spite of the protests of the six dissenting States the Home Government sanctioned the continuance of the Rájasthánik Court for a period of two years up to the end of December 1895 and directed that the Political Agent should hold a conference with the representatives of States to devise some machinery to perform the work of the Court and protect its decrees after its termination. The States agreed to the continuance of the Court on certain conditions but deferred the consideration of the future machinery until the end of December next.

Horse show.

37. No Horse Show was held during the year, but an Agricultural Show was held at Gondal during February which was reported to have proved a success, a large number of exhibits had been collected and the attendance was also numerous.

Sea-borne trade.

38. The total exports by sea were valued at Rupees 2,41,13,071 and imports Rupees 2,05,65,371 against Rupees 3,22,42,031 and Rupees 2,34,96,362 respectively in the previous year, showing a decrease in both.

Earnings of the B.-G.-J-P. & J.R. Railways.

39. The gross earnings of the B.-G.J.-P. & J.R. Railways amounted to Rupees 19,95,843 against Rupees 20,29,929 in the previous year and the expenditure was Rupees 11,43,356 against Rupees 11,41,221. The dividend to the proprietary States was allotted as under : Bhávnagar 7·65, Gondal Porbandar 2·99,

Junágad 1·41 and Jetalsar-Rájkot 4·07. The Dhoráji Agreement under which the Railway is at present worked being about to expire on the 31st December 1894, the Managing Committee passed a Resolution to extend the period to 31st December 1895, in order that a fresh scheme for the management of the Railway could be devised and approved by Government. A Sub-Committee was appointed to draw it up, but Gondal dissented and Junágad desired entire separation. The matter has therefore become complicated and it will be some time before any satisfactory solution can be arrived at.

Earnings of the Morvi Railway.

40. The Morvi Railway earned a net dividend of 6 42 against 6 76 in the previous year. The gross earnings were Rupees 3,20,348 and the expenditure amounted to Rupees 1,77,681. It has been proposed to convert this Railway into metre-gauge and to join it with the B.-G.-J.-P. and J.-R. Railways for the purpose of management, but His Highness the Thakor Sáheb, while agreeing to the conversion, is not willing to accede to joint management.

Jámnagar Railway.

41. The detailed plans and estimates of the Jámnagar Railway were completed by Mr. Davies during the year and submitted to Government for approval and sanction, which has been received since the close of the year. The length of this line will be 50¼ miles and the cost is estimated to be Rupees 23,61,138. The funds are to be raised by loan from Gondal with the sanction of Government.

Public Works.

42. The total expenditure on Public Works in the Native States is reported to be Rupees 22,34,966 against Rupees 24,32,968 in the previous year, of which a large portion was spent by the 1st and 2nd Class States as under :—

Junágad	1,97,080
Navánagar	1,88,220
Bhávnagar (including Railway) ...	7,71,096
Porbandar	1,25,970
Dhrángadhra	64,265
Morvi	2,90,975
Gondal	87,940
Vánkáner	55,568
Pálitána	68,116
Dhrol	12,100
Limbdi	33,326
Rájkot	72,932
Wadhwán	59,000
Jáfarábád	10,604

Works carried out by the Agency Engineer and opening of the Lálpuri Irrigation and water supply project in Rájkot.

43. The total amount spent by the Agency Engineer on Public Works was Rupees 1,55,042 against Rupees 1,85,285 in the previous year. The most important Public Work undertaken is the Lálpuri Irrigation and water supply project in the Rájkot State estimated to cost about 3¼ Lákhs of Rupees. This work is designed for the double purpose of supplying water to the Rájkot town and irrigating lands to the north-east of it. The dam will be nearly one mile in length. There will be two masonry weirs, one 600 feet in length and the other 1,500 feet.

Extension of telegraphic communications.

44. Telegraphic communication has been extended to Jáfarábád, Una, Kutiyána, Dhári, Dhrángadhra and Mália during the year.

Tribute of Káthiáwár.

45. The tribute demands of the year amounted to Rupees 11,36,046 as follows including outstandings of the previous year :—

British Tribute.....	Rs.	7,36,824
Gáekwár ,, ...	,,	2,99,774
Junágad Zortalbi	,,	99,447

Of these Rupees 10.74,289 were recovered, leaving at the end of the year a balance of Rupees 61,757 to be recovered. Besides the tribute, the revenue from opium Pass Fees came to about Rupees 1,75,119-2-8.

Local Funds.

46. The Consolidated Fund had an income of Rupees 1,15,623 and expenditure of Rupees 1,62,023 during the year. The excess of expenditure over receipts is due to capital outlay on buildings. The account of the Chiefs General Contribution Fund shows receipts amounting to Rupees 3,36,408 and charges aggregating Rupees 3,20,926.

Vaccination.

47. The control of Vaccination in the three principal States of Junágad, Navánagar, and Bhávnagar is now in the hands of their respective Darbárs, and the rest of the Province is under the supervision of the Agency Surgeon. The total number of vaccinators is 53, 25 in the three States, and 28 under the Agency Surgeon. 91,782 primary vaccinations and 1,324 re-vaccinations were performed during the year against 87,356 in the previous year. The total cost of vaccine operations was Rupees 26,952.

Hospitals and Dispensaries.

48. The Hospitals and Dispensaries number 99 against 97 in the previous year, showing an increase of 2. The total number of patients treated was 6,81,531 against 6,25,585, and the total cost was Rupees 2,41,208 against Rupees 2,25,478. Of these 26 Dispensaries are under the supervision of the Agency Surgeon.

Rájkumár College.

49. The Rájkumár College has maintained its high reputation during the year. The number of Kumárs in the College fell from 41 to 39. The young Thákor Sáheb of Rájkot and Kumár Fate-din-khánji of Mánávadar joined the College during the year, and Kumár Jasvatsingji of Navánagar joined after the close of the year. The College was examined by the Educational Inspector, N. D., who was satisfied with the progress and behaviour of the students. Prizes were distributed by His Excellency the Governor Lord Harris on his farewell visit to the Province in November last.

50. The Tálukdári-Girásia School is also flourishing under the care of Mr. Strip, the Head Master. The number of scholars on the roll was 56. In the Sámáldás College there were 49 students against 27 in the previous year and it is reported to be again gaining favour.

The Tálukdári-Girásia School and the Sámaldás College.

51. The general education of the people is making steady progress. The total number of educational institutions (including unrecognized schools) at the end of the year was 1,296 with 77,079 scholars against 1,259 with 74,577 scholars in the previous year. The total cost on education was Rupees 6,00,755 against Rupees 5,53,226 in the previous year. A new feature in the educational history of the Province was the holding of a conference of the vernacular School Masters in accordance with the recommendations of the Education Commission. Of the eight States to whom the control of their schools has been entrusted, complaints still come in regarding the management of some who endeavour to depart from the conditions laid down and Sir Charles Ollivant had to give strict injunctions to these to act up to their responsibilities. It is hoped that in course of time matters in this respect will improve and that other States will also accept control of their schools on the same terms. The status of the Officer, Mr. M. A. Turkhud, entrusted with the supervision and inspection of schools has now been raised to that of Educational Inspector under the direct orders of the Political Agent.

General Education.

PART II.

CHAPTER I—Political.

JHÁLÁVÁD PRÁNT.

Area 4,392·6 square miles; Population 4,69,199.

Personnel.

1. Captain J. S. Ashby was in charge of the District throughout the year. Ráo Bahádur Vithalrái Himatrám held the office of Deputy Assistant Political Agent.

DHRÁNGADHRA.—1ST CLASS.

Area 1,156·5 square miles; Population; 1,03,754; Revenue Rs. 6,50,000; Tribute Rs. 44,677.

Dhrángadhra: Want of cordiality in the relations between the Ráj Sáheb and the heir-apparent.

2. His Highness the Ráj Sáheb has enjoyed but indifferent health during the past year, though he has had no illness of a serious nature. The want of cordiality between His Highness and the heir-apparent still continues, although outwardly their relations are apparently harmonious. The Kumár continues to lead a quiet though active life and is as fond of outdoor sports as ever. The younger sons of the Ráj Sáheb still continue to study at the Rájkumár College and their progress is well reported on by the Principal.

Farewell visit of His Excellency the Governor.

3. His Highness the Ráj Sáheb was honoured by a farewell visit by His Excellency Lord Harris in November last, who was much pleased with his reception and at the smart appearance of the Police of the State under Mr. Souter.

Destruction of outlaws by the Dhrángadhra Police under the personal command of Mr. Souter.

4. The State Police had an encounter with the notorious band of outlaws headed by Juma Gand at a village called Dhrumat on the 10th April 1894. The dacoits after committing a loot took up a strong position in a pit but were gallantly charged by the Police under the personal command of Mr. Souter. The fight resulted in the destruction of the outlaws. The Police lost 4 men killed and 3 wounded, while all the dacoits who were 8 in number, with the exception of one Koli, were killed.

Termination of Mr. Souter's services and the appointment of a new Superintendent of Police.

5. The term for which Mr. Souter's services were lent to the State for the re-organization of the Police terminated in October 1894, but at the special request of His Highness the Ráj Sáheb this was extended to 31st December. The Darbár have now employed Risáldár-Major Rupsing Bahádur, a former Native Aid-de-Camp to His Excellency the Governor, as Superintendent of Police in succession to Mr. Souter. This officer is well spoken of and it is hoped that under his supervision the discipline and smartness attained under Mr. Souter will be maintained.

LIMBDI—2ND CLASS.

Area 343·96 square miles; Population 48,116; Revenue Rs. 2,80,280; Tribute Rs. 45,533.

Limbdi: Administration of the State. Advice from the Agency to replace the old Kárbhári by a more capable person.

6. The Thákor Sáheb Sir Jasvatsingji continues to administer the affairs of the State as in former years. Mr. Motilál Mádhavrái still remains as Kárbhári in spite of repeated advice from the Agency to replace this too old official by a more capable person, and although Government were compelled last year to animadvert in strong terms of the Limbdi administration in connection with an opium smuggling case of some importance. This year the arrears of judicial work though still large have considerably decreased. The attention of the Thákor Sáheb will however be again drawn to the question of clearing off arrears.

Nal-Bávli dispute.

7. The Superintendent of Agency Surveys is carrying into execution the award of Mr. Beaman, I.C.S., in the land dispute on the borders of the "Nal" between this State and certain villages of the Ahmedábád District. Pátdi submitted an appeal to Government against this decision which has been rejected. But it appears that Gángad, another of the opposite parties, has also preferred an appeal in respect of the portion in dispute with that Estate and this is still under the consideration of Government.

WADHWÁN—2ND CLASS.

Area 236·16 square miles; Population 42,280; Revenue Rs. 4,00,000; Tribute Rs. 28,691.

Wadhwán: Improvement in the Thákor Sáheb's health.

8. The improvement noted in last year's report in the Thákor Sáheb's health is more than maintained. He is now able to keep in the saddle for hours together and when travelling in his Districts almost invariably does so on horseback.

Attachment on Vastadi.

9. The attachment on Vastadi imposed in January 1894 was removed on the State reverting to the Rájasthánik Court.

Progress of the revenue survey.

10. The revenue survey of the State commenced last year is steadily progressing. The water-works scheme has not yet been put into effect owing to the comparative badness of the year and other works in hand.

LAKHTAR—3RD CLASS.

Area 247·43 square miles; Population 25,093; Revenue Rs. 75,000; Tribute Rs. 7,351.

Lakhtar: Good progress of Kumár Gagubha at the Rájkumár College and advice to the Thákor to send his two younger sons either to the Rájkumár College or to the Tálukdári Girásia School.

11. There is but little to note regarding this State, Kumár Gagubha, the heir-apparent, continues to make good progress at the Rájkumár College. The two younger sons of the Thákor have now arrived at an age to be sent to either the Rájkumár College or Tálukdári Girásia School. The Thákor has been advised to enter them at the latter institution.

12. The police of the Thán Mahál of this State was under the supervision of Mr. Souter until January last and is well reported on by that Officer.

Thán police well reported by Mr. Souter.

Sáila—3rd Class.

Area 222·1 square miles; Population 15,834; Revenue Rs. 65,000; Tribute Rs. 15,511.

13. The District Officer Captain Ashby reports that the Thákor Sáheb has during the past year at the advice of the Agency made satisfactory arrangements for consolidating and liquidating the heavy debt which has so long been a burden on the State. The arrangements have been made with the approval and guarantee of the heir-apparent and are such that the State should be clear of debt within 10 years. Another Kárbhári was appointed in succession to Mr. Lálbhái who lately reverted to his employment under the British Government.

Sáela: Satisfactory arrangements made for consolidating and liquidating the heavy debt on the State, and the change of Kárbhári.

14. The heir-apparent Madársingji and his brothers Devisingji and Kaliánsingji continue to hold office in the State. A third brother Meruji is private tutor and companion to the young Thákor Sáheb of Rájkot, while the two youngest sons after leaving the Girásia School are now pursuing their studies at the Rájkot High School with a view to Matriculation.

Sons of the Chief.

15. Mr. Souter's connection with the police ceased on his relinquishing the appointment at Dhrángadhra. The Thákor Sáheb has since employed a Native Official to superintend the police.

Mr. Souter's connection with the Police ceased and the appointment of a Native Official to superintend the Police.

Chuda—3rd Class.

Area 78·2 square miles; Population 12,995; Revenue Rs. 67,000; Tribute Rs. 7,143.

16. The affairs of this little State continued to be managed on the lines described in the last year's Administration Report, but the Thákor was not satisfied with the arrangement and asked that he should be allowed to appoint his own Kárbhári. Sir Charles Ollivant visited Chuda in January 1895 and after various conferences with the Chief and his nephew His Highness the Thákor Sáheb of Morvi who had come there to help him, acceded to the request on certain conditions as to investigation and settlement of debts, restrictions in expenditure and submission of an annual budget to the Pránt Officer. With the approval of Government the revised arrangement was brought into force in March last and Mr. Nágji Nathu, formerly Sar Nyáyádhish of Morvi, was appointed as Kárbhári.

Chuda: Administration of the State and the appointment of a new Kárbhári by the Thákor.

17. The direct supervision exercised by the Agency during the past year still continues. Proceedings were immediately taken with a view to ascertaining the liabilities of the State and consolidating the debt for gradual liquidation and were approaching completion at the end of the year.

Steps taken to ascertaining the liabilities of the State and consolidating the debt.

18. The relations between the Thákor and his heir-apparent have considerably improved and if not cordial as yet, are at any rate apparently harmonious. The Kumár continues to lead a quiet though active and healthy life and still exhibits an interest in field sports. Under existing circumstances it is difficult to entrust him with any part in the management of the State though endeavours will be made to associate him with the Kárbhári in revenue and other work.

Relations between the Chief and the heir-apparent.

BAJÁNA—4TH CLASS.

Area 183·12 square miles; Population 15,953; Revenue Rs. 1,00,000; Tribute Rs 8,037.

19. The ill-feeling reported as existing between the Chief and his eldest son still continues, while the relations between the two brothers are still as bitter as ever. The eldest son of the heir-apparent is now 9 years of age and endeavours are being made to induce the Chief to send him to the Rájkumár College.

Bajána: Ill-feeling still continues between the Chief and his eldest son.

20. On the question of succession Government passed a decision that they could not give final orders until the succession opened, and that in the meantime the proceedings would be recorded for future consideration.

Question of succession kept pending by Government for future consideration.

PÁTDI—4TH CLASS.

Area 39·4 square miles; Population 4,438; Revenue Rs. 13,000; Tribute nil.

21. There is nothing to record regarding this small State, which is owned by Desái Surajmalji, the capital town with 17 other villages being situated in the British District of Ahmedábád. The heir-apparent Dolatsingji is reported to be progressing well at the Rájkumár College.

Pátdi: The Chief and his son.

22. The erection of a causeway at Sávda is much needed as reported last year, and the orders of Government for its commencement are still anxiously awaited.

Erection of a causeway at Sávda needed.

SORATH PRÁNT.

Area 5,217·16 square miles; Population 7,85,032.

23. Captain G. E. Hyde-Cates was in charge of the Pránt from the 1st April to the 10th June 1894, when he was relieved by Captain S. M. C. Schneider, who remained in charge till Captain Cates' return from Pálanpur on the 1st October 1894, since when the latter has remained in charge.

Personnel.

Ráo Bahádur Náthábhái Dájibhái Patel was Deputy Assistant Political Agent during the whole year with the exception of six weeks, when he was absent on leave, and Mr. K. G. Pandolji acted for him.

JUNÁGAD.

Area 3,283·7 square miles; Population 4,84,190; Revenue Rs. 24,00,000; Tribute Rs. 65,604.

Junágad: Visit of His Excellency the Governor.

24. His Excellency the Governor Lord Harris visited Junágad in November to pay a farewell visit to His Highness the Naváb and the opportunity was taken to ask him to open the new road up the Dátár Hill, which is a Mahomedan place of pilgrimage. His Excellency accordingly declared the road open on the 15th November. The next day His Excellency left for Gondal and Rájkot.

Changes in the Divánship.

25. Mr. Chunilál Sárábhái, the late Diván, reverted to his British appointment as Deputy Assistant Political Agent in August last, and Mr. Haridás Viháridás returned to duty as a temporary measure. He continued as Diván till February last, when he retired from the Junágad State service and was succeeded by Mr. Shyámji Krishnáwarma Pandit, M. A., Barrister-at-Law, late Diván of Rutlám and Judicial Councillor at Udepur in Rajputána. It is to be hoped that this gentleman will be allowed freedom of action and scope for improving the administration; and that His Highness will endeavour to see things for himself and regularly attend to the business of the State in concert with his responsible advisers.

Appointment of Mr. A. F. Maconochie, I.C.S., as Alienation Settlement Officer.

26. An Alienation Settlement Officer has lately been appointed by the State and the services of Mr. A. F. Maconochie, I.C.S., lately employed in Survey Assessment Work in the Baroda State, have been obtained from Government for this purpose. This is a move in the right direction, and it is to be hoped that the troublesome disputes which have been going on for a long time between the Darbár and the Khán of Khadia, the Saiyads of Sokhda, the Desáis of Junágad and other similar landholders who have been bitterly complaining against the Darbár encroachments will now be properly disposed of. Mr. Maconochie has for the present taken five months' leave and is not expected to join his appointment before August or September next.

Result of the trial of the Pátan rioters.

27. The trial of the Pátan rioters was finished and judgment delivered by the Special Commission on the 29th May 1894. Of 79 accused persons, 18 were convicted and sentenced as follows:—Seven were sentenced to 5 years, two to 4 years, eight to 3 years and one to 1 year. The convicted persons have appealed to Government. Since the close of the year Government have passed orders declining to interfere on their behalf.

Progress of heir-apparent Sherjumákhánji at the Rájkumár College.

28. The heir-apparent Sherjumákhánji is studying at the Rájkumár College and continues to make good progress. He is developing sporting tastes and rides and drives exceedingly well. He is a strong sturdy looking boy of good capabilities and should some day become a good Ruler.

JÁFARÁBÁD—2ND CLASS.

Area 42·329 square miles; Population 12,389; Revenue Rs. 64,481; Tribute Nil.

Jáfarábád: Occasional visit of the Naváb or his officials to Jáfarábád.

29. This State belongs to the Naváb of Janjira who resides at Murad, the capital of Janjira, from whence he or his officials pay occasional visits to Jáfarábád.

Progress of the revenue survey.

30. The Táluka consists of twelve villages. The revenue survey is progressing under the supervision of Mr. Hatch, and up to the end of March last the measurements in 4 villages had been completed. The total area measured and demarcated up to the end of last season was 10,088 acres and the total expense 8,087-1-8.

JETPUR.

Area 733·8 square miles; Population 1,11,549; Revenue Rs. 8,78,900; Tribute Rs. 59,222.

Jetpur: Jurisdictional and non-jurisdictional Tálukdárs.

31. This Táluka is divided amongst 17 shareholders. Of these 15 are jurisdictional and 2 non-jurisdictional. The total number of villages is 146, of which 122 belong to jurisdictional Tálukdárs, 9 to non-jurisdictional and 15 are joint. The 15 Majmu or joint villages and 9 of the non-jurisdictional Tálukdárs making a total of 24 are under the jurisdiction of a Táluka Court or Council consisting of 3 shareholders elected by the whole body of shareholders for life.

Promotion of Ázam Lakhman Wála from 4th to 3rd Class.

32. Wála Lakhman Merám was promoted by Government from the 4th to the 3rd Class during the last year in recognition of his excellent administration.

Jurisdictional Tálukdárs.

33. The jurisdictional Tálukdárs are now as follows:—

2	Third Class.
1	Fourth ,,
4	Fifth ,,
8	Sixth ,,

Three of these, Wadia, Bilkha and Chital are now under Agency management. The District Officer reports that the working of the Táluka Court has lately become very unsatisfactory. All the Members rarely meet for business, and if no improvement takes place, it will be necessary to devise some other machinery for transacting business. During the last year there were changes in the offices of the Nyáyádhish and Daftardár.

Successful re-organization of Police by Mr. Longley.

34. The police is under the supervision of Mr. Longley, who has been successful in re-organizing the force and making them efficient. It consists of 31 mounted and 281 foot; of these 100 men have been left under the control of the higher jurisdictional Tálukdárs, on the condition that half of the number should always be detailed for drill under Mr. Longley. This arrangement is reported to be working smoothly and satisfactorily.

Bántwa.

Area 221·8 square miles; Population 42,105; Revenue Rs. 5,00,000; Tribute Rs. 29,642.

Bántva Constitution.

35. Similar to Jetpur, the Bántva Táluka is also divided into several jurisdictional units:—

1. Mánávadar, 3rd Class.
2. Gidad, 4th do. (personal).
3. Bántva, 5th do.
4. Bántva, Majmu (joint).

Mánávadar is owned by two brothers, who are both minors, and the estate is consequently under Agency management. Gidad is also owned by two brothers, but the elder Bábi Sámatkhánji exercises the jurisdiction over the entire estate. They are not on good terms, and the behaviour of the younger is anything but satisfactory. Independent arrangements have had to be made for the care and education of his son, who is studying in the Rájkumár College, and also for the maintenance of his wives who were ill-treated at home. The Bántva branch consists of numerous shareholders, the senior of whom is permitted by Government to exercise jurisdiction. There are constant disputes between these shareholders.

The joint property.

36. The portion of the State which is joint between all the Tálukdárs comprising the Mánávadar, Gidad and Bántva branches, is, as far as jurisdiction is concerned, under a Nyáyádhish appointed by the Tálukdárs with the approval of the Agency.

Petty States.

Petty States; Vasávad.

37. The other small Tálukás in the Pránt which are not under the Thánás are Dedán, Vasávad, Vichhávad and Kuba. Vasávad gives the most trouble and latterly considerable ill-feeling has arisen between the Nágar Tálukdárs and Mahomedans of the place. On the 12th March last their disputes culminated in a riot, in which several Mahomedans were wounded. The Nyáyádhish himself is said to have taken part in instigating the riot, and the trial has consequently been ordered to be made in the Agency Court. The Táluka has since then been put in charge of the Bagasra Thánadár as a temporary measure.

HÁLÁR PRÁNT.

Area 7,062 square miles.; Population 8,22,875.

Personnel.

38. The following Officers held charge of the Pránt during the year:—

Captain S. M. C. Schneider from the 1st April 1894 to 8th June 1894.

Captain G. B. O'Donnell from the 9th June 1894 to 1st October 1894.

Captain S. M. C. Schneider from the 2nd October 1894 to 13th October 1894.

Captain G. B. O'Donnell from the 14th October 1894 to 11th November 1894.

Major J. W. Wray from the 12th November 1894 to 17th December 1894.

Captain G. B. O'Donnell from 18th December till the close of the year.

The office of Deputy Assistant was held by :—

R. B. Keshowráo Bháskerji from 1st April to 26th June 1894.

K. B. Dádábhái Hormasji from 27th June 1894 to 21st September 1894.

R. B. Santokrám Nánábhái from 22nd September 1894 to 3rd November 1894.

K. B. Dádábhái Hormasji from 4th November 1894 to 5th March 1895.

R. B. Bhimji Morárji from 6th March 1895 till the close of the year.

NAVÁNAGAR—1ST CLASS.

Area 3,791·3 square miles; Population 3,79,611; Revenue Rs. 27,59,881; Tribute Rs. 1,20,093.

Navánagar: Liquidation of debt.

39. It was reported in the last year's report that the debt stood at Rupees 6,31,107, on the 15th June 1893. During the year which followed a sum of Rupees 49,047 is stated to have been paid in liquidation, leaving a balance of Rupees 5,82,060. But subsequent inquiries have elicited the fact that the actual debts of the State together with those of His Highness the Jám Sáheb amount to Rupees 11,21,901.

Education of Heir-apparent Kumár Jasvatsingji and his joining the Rájkumár College.

40. The Heir-apparent Kumár Shri Jasvatsingji is reported to have made excellent progress in his education under Miss Brooke. He was deputed by His Highness to pay a valedictory visit to His Excellency Lord Harris, the retiring Governor, and a congratulatory visit to His Excellency Lord Sandhurst, the new Governor, last February. During his sojourn in Bombay the Kumár visited most of the places of interest in that city. Since the close of the year the Kumár has joined the Rájkumár College.

Dispute with Bhimkata.

41. With regard to the disputes with Baroda in connection with Bhimkata, Mr. O'Connor, the Superintendent of Police, was deputed by His Highness the Jám Sáheb to go to the neighbourhood and make enquiries on the subject. Mr. O'Connor's report corroborated most of the complaints of the Navánagar people and His Highness has therefore made an earnest representation to Government to authoritatively insist upon an exchange between two States. Such an exchange is most desirable in the interests of both the States and as a preventive of the chronic friction existing between the officials which cannot but be a menace to the public peace.

Completion of the survey of the Jámnagar-Rájkot Railway.

42. The survey of the Jámnagar-Rájkot Railway was completed by Mr. Davies and the plans and estimates were submitted to Government in September, but the sanction of Government to begin the construction did not arrive till after the close of the year. The estimates amount to Rupees 23,61,138, for which it is proposed to borrow a sum of twenty Lákhs from the Gondal State at 5 per-cent. interest repayable in instalments, and the terms have been sanctioned by the Government of India. The length of the line will be 50¼ miles and there are to be four stations on it between Rájkot and Jámnagar, all in Jámnagar limits. Work will be commenced after the close of the present rainy season.

Imperial Service Corps.

43. The Imperial Service Corps is making satisfactory progress under the command of Jhála Dádbha. His Highness the Jám Sáheb was pleased to sanction an augmentation of 12 dismounted men to the Corps in order to bring its strength up to a full squadron of 3 Troops. The Commandant and a Daffedár attended and passed through the School of Musketry at Meerat last October.

Morvi—1st Class.

Morvi: Administration of the State.

44. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb Sir Wághji, K.C.I.E., is a ruler who exercises much personal supervision over every branch of the administration, which is reported to be judiciously organized. A storm which occurred in July rendered a very large number of people temporarily homeless and destitute. The Thákor Sáheb himself immediately instituted a system of relief for all the needy and worked most commendably to mitigate their sufferings.

Farewell Visit of His Excellency the Governor.

45. His Excellency Lord Harris, the retiring Governor of Bombay, paid a farewell visit to His Highness during November last. He arrived at Morvi on the 19th and left for Wadhwán on the 21st.

Cutch-Morvi disputes.

46. Mr. R. M. Kennedy, I.C.S., was appointed Commissioner for the settlement of disputes with Cutch and entered upon the work in July last. Meanwhile the Government management over the Waváníà Bandar and Ádhoi continues. The enquiry has taken a longer time than was anticipated and is still progressing slowly.

Gondal—1st Class.

Area 1,024·65 square miles; Population 1,61,036; Revenue Rs. 11,00,000; Tribute Rs. 1,10,721.

Gondal: Farewell visit of His Excellency the Governor.

47. His Excellency Lord Harris paid His Highness the Thákor Sáheb a farewell visit in November last. He arrived at Gondal on the 16th and left for Rájkot on the 17th of that month.

48. Satisfactory accounts continue to be received from Edinburgh regarding the progress and welfare of His Highness' son and daughter who are being educated there.

Education of His Highness' son and daughter.

49. His Highness being anxious to improve the condition of the Girásiás generally who are too poor to send their sons to the Talukdári-Girásia School, Wadhwán, has arranged for the building of a Girásia School at Gondal at a cost of 1½ Lákhs at which Girásia boys will be educated at little more than a nominal cost. The scheme is an excellent one and deserves success, the preliminaries were arranged before the close of the year and the foundation stone of the building was laid by the Political Agent at the special request of His Highness on the 6th April 1895.

Construction of a Girásia School in Gondal.

50. His Highness is reported to exercise careful supervision in each Department of the State and his solicitude for the welfare of his people is well marked by the advantages and facilities afforded to the public and the flourishing charitable institutions lately established.

His Highness the Thákor Sáheb's administration.

Dhrol—2nd Class.

Area 282·7 square miles; Population 27,002; Revenue Rs. 1,66,803; Tribute Rs. 10,231.

51. There was some cause for anxiety that friction might arise between the Chief and his elder son regarding assignments of Girás, but through the kind interference of His Highness the Jám Sáheb and tactful handling of the difficulty by Mr. Mánekchand Tulsi, the State Kárbhári, matters were soon restored to their former condition of harmony. Kumár Sámatsingji, the younger son of the Thákor Saheb, has been granted the village of Khijadia in Girás and the heir-apparent has eventually concurred in the arrangement, which is satisfactory to all parties.

Dhrol: The Chief and his sons.

52. About two-thirds of this State is alienated to Bháyáts and these are in a position of almost chronic opposition to the State under the ill advice of interested persons. State pressure on the Bháyáts to send their sons to the Tálukdári-Girásia School is a constant grievance but is not deserving of serious attention.

Dispute with Bháyáts.

Virpur—4th Class.

Area 66·9 square miles; Population 7,306; Revenue Rs. 41,469; Tribute Rs. 4,114.

53. Virpur is another State where we find the sons of the Chief being trained in the art of government during the life-time of the Chief. Kumár Hamirsingji has been entrusted with the charge of the original side of the Civil Court at Virpur, while Kumár Jethisingji has been placed in charge of the Magistrate's Office in addition to the supervision of the Police. Each of them has a man of experience working with him. The Chief is anxious that they should become thoroughly conversant with and capable of managing the affairs of his State and so far his endeavours appear to be successful.

Virpur: Sons of the Chief.

GOHILVÁD PRÁNT.

Area 4,208·4 square miles; Population 6,75,375.

Personnel.

54. Major M. T. Lyde was in charge of the Pránt till May 12th, 1894; from that date till the 13th June the Deputy Assistant held charge pending the arrival of Lieutenant Carnegy, who assumed charge on the 14th June and retained it till 7th January 1895 when he proceeded on furlough to England. Captain H. D. Merewether has since been in charge of the Pránt. There were changes in the office of Deputy Assistant Political Agent.

BHÁVNAGAR—1ST CLASS.

Bhávnagar; Administration of the State.

55. Owing to the constant personal supervision exercised by His Highness the Mahárája the State has continued in prosperity. The personnel of the council during the year has almost remained the same as at the close of the previous year. In March last Mr. Jamsetji Jivanji Gazdar, Barrister-at-Law, was appointed acting Judicial Councillor, in succession to Mr. Dosábhái Frámji who was stricken down with severe illness.

Appointment of additional Members of the State Council.

56. In November last His Highness was pleased to nominate the heir-apparent Kumár Shri Bhávsingji as an extra Member of the State Council. Dr. Barjorji Behrámji, L. M., Chief Medical Officer of the State, was also nominated an additional member of the Council for making laws and regulations.

Visit of His Excellency the Governor at Bhávnagar.

57. At the invitation of His Highness the Mahárája, His Excellency the Governor visited Bhávnagar in November last. In the course of a two days' stay His Excellency opened the Lord Harris Road and laid the foundation-stone of the Lord Harris Railway Terminus. His Excellency further inspected the Imperial Service Troops, with which he expressed himself well pleased. A banquet was given in the evening in honour of the occasion by His Highness in the new Hall which has been built in the compound of the guest-house.

Visit of His Highness the Mahárája in the principal towns of his districts.

58. During the months of December and January last His Highness the Mahárája visited the principal towns in the districts and was most loyally received by the people. A statue of His Highness will be placed with befitting ceremony in the Peile Gardens at Bhávnagar. On the 38th anniversary of His Highness' birthday various scholarships were granted to students in several educational institutions at Bombay, Baroda, Ahmedábád and Bhávnagar.

Appointment of heir-apparent Bhávsingji as Commandant of the Bhávnagar Imperial Lancers.

59. On the 26th May 1894, the heir-apparent Kumár Bhávsingji was appointed Commandant of the Bhávnagar Imperial Lancers and with a view to fitting him for this post he was sent in June last to Poona to undergo a course of instruction with the 2nd Bombay Lancers. The Kumár has since been made an additional Member of the Military and State

Councils and is attending the various State Offices and Courts to get an insight into the working of the various Departments.

Progress of the young Kumár Mangalsingji at the Rájkumár College.

60. The younger Kumár Mangalsingji is still attending the Rájkumár College, and his progress and general conduct are reported to be satisfactory.

Detection of a most important crime regarding forgery of Currency Notes.

61. The most important crime detected during the year in Bhávnagar territory was the Currency Note forgery case, in connection with which six persons were arraigned. Against three the charge was withdrawn, and the remaining three were committed for trial before the Chief Judge who acquitted one altogether and convicted two. On appeal one of these two was acquitted by the Huzur Court.

Imperial Service Corps.

62. The present strength of the Imperial Lancers is 277 of all ranks, there being 65 vacancies. The regiment was inspected by Colonel Melliss, C. S. I., and Captain Cox, who expressed approval. The prevailing caste is Rajputs of whom there are 189. His Excellency the Governor and Sir Charles Ollivant, also held an inspection on their visits to Bhávnagar. The Bhávnagar Infantry numbers 225 men. At the special request of His Highness Government have lent the services of Colonel T. Harris to the State. He has been appointed a Member of the Military Council and has been entrusted with the supervision of the Infantry, Paddock, &c.

Pálitána—2nd Class.

Area 289·88 square miles; Population 60,848; Revenue Rs. 4,75,000; Tribute Rs. 10,364.

Pálitána: Dispute with Kumár Sámatsingji.

63. The relations between the Thákor Sáheb and his brother Sámatsingji continue to be unfriendly. The dispute regarding the money claim against the latter has been decided by Government in his favour.

Disputes with Bháyáts of Motisri and Sándkhákhra.

64. The dispute between the Darbár and the Bháyáts of Motisri and Sándhkhákhra regarding the villages of Wálukad and Khijadia referred to in the last year's administration report is now being re-heard by Mr. R. M. Kennedy, Special Commissioner.

Vala—3rd Class.

Area 109·3 square miles; Population 17,842; Revenue Rs. 1,50,000 Tribute Rs. 9,202.

Vala: The Thákor's children were handed back to him by the Thákor of Kotdá-Sángáni at the advice of Sir Charles Ollivant.

65. In response to the repeated requests of the Thákor of Vala, Sir Charles Ollivant advised the Thákor of Kotdá-Sángáni to hand back the son and daughter of the Vala Chief, who had been living at Kotdá-Sángáni ever since the death of their mother, and it is satisfactory to record that the young Thákor of Kotdá-Sangáni, in spite of much reluctance on the part of his mother, readily acquiesced and thus put a stop to mutual heart-burnings between the two families.

66. Complaints from the cultivators regarding over-taxation have now ceased. The Agricultural Bank is not used by cultivators, as they can obtain assistance in the way of grain and cash from the Darbár or from merchants under Darbár security.

Agricultural Bank in Vala.

JASDAN—3RD CLASS.

Area 383 square miles; Population 35,057; Revenue Rs. 1,20,000; Tribute Rs. 10,993.

67. It is much to be regretted that the relations of the Chief of this Káthi State with his eldest son have in no way improved. The latter has however gone to Jasdan and has been granted the usual maintenance together with arrears for the past five years, but there are still some items in dispute. The District Officer reports that in the course of an interview with him, he endeavoured to impress upon him to act in future more in obedience to his father's wishes.

Jasdan: Disagreement between the Chief and his eldest son.

LÁTHI—4TH CLASS.

Area 41·8 square miles; Population 8,320; Revenue Rs. 1,17,730; Tribute Rs. 2,007.

68. The Thákor Sursingji was installed on the Gádi of his State on the 21st January with the sanction of Government. The balance handed over to the Chief on his assuming the sole charge of the State amounted to Rupees 2,69,883. The services of Mr. Edalji Dosábhái, the Manager, have been lent to the Thákor for employment as his Kárbhári for a period of two years. The Pránt Officer reports that on his visit to Láthi he found everything working satisfactorily.

Láthi: Installation of the Chief and the administration of his State.

CHAPTER II.

Wards and Managed Estates.

JHÁLÁVÁD PRÁNT.

RÁJPAR—6TH CLASS.

Area 22·8 square miles; Population 2,208; Revenue Rs. 21,082; Tribute Rs. 2,598.

69. This estate was throughout the year under Agency management. The minor Tálukdár Mánsingji and his younger brother have continued their studies at the Tálukdári-Girásia School and are favourably reported on by the Head Master.

Rájpur: Education of the minor Chief and his younger brother.

70. The opening balance at the commencement of the year was Rupees 85,599, of which Rupees 46,500 were invested in Government paper. The total revenue from all sources during the year was Rupees 21,704 and the total expenditure was Rupees 27,401. The increase in the expenditure is due to the fact that Rupees 11,000 were specially sanctioned and expended towards the marriage of the sister of the minor Tálukdárs.

Revenue and Finance.

JHINJHUVÁDA.

Area 164·6 square miles ; Population 15,662; Revenue Rs. 70,090 ; Tribute Rs. 11,873.

71. It was found on enquiry that most of the solvent Meláni Tálukdárs whose estates have been freed from attachment have contracted fresh debts to the extent of Rupees 1,93,230 during the time the Morvi debt was being paid off and since. The revenue of their Girás has therefore been ordered to be kept in deposit and not distributed rateably among the judgment creditors and thereby the execution of civil decrees against their estates have been stopped pending final orders from Government on the subject of their indebtedness. Some of the Rásáni shareholders are now nearly solvent, but there are a number of them against whom decrees have been passed and warrants issued, and it does not appear at present feasible to remove the attachment.

Jhinjhuváda : General.

DASÁDA.

72. The criminal case of theft against the Kámdár and other State officials of the estate of Malek Umarkhánji reported last year was decided by the Court in September last. The accused were acquitted and the decision was upheld by the Judicial Assistant on appeal by the Public Prosecutor.

Complaints against the late Kámdár.

73. The management of the estate of Malek Jenkhán, a 6th Class Tálukdár of Dasáda and now a minor, is reported to be satisfactory.

Management of the estate of Malek Jenkhán.

OTHER PETTY ESTATES.

74. In consequence of the promulgation of the Rules for the attachment and management of Encumbered Estates in this Agency, numerous Tálukdárs have applied for the benefit of the Rules, and as a result the attachments have increased to such an extent that it is simply impossible for the Pránt Officer to effectually supervise them and additional help has become absolutely necessary. Proposals to this end have been submitted to Government for an official of some standing and revenue experience being employed for the duty, who will work under the orders of the Pránt Officer.

General remarks.

SORATH PRÁNT.

PORBANDAR—1ST CLASS.

Area 636·5 square miles; Population 85,785; Revenue Rs. 5,50,000; Tribute Rs. 48,504.

Personnel: Settlement of the Mehrs' disputes.

75. The Office of Administrator was held by Mr. W. T. Morison throughout the year. It has not been marked by any events of special importance, and the Administrator's time was principally occupied in maturing reforms already introduced and in efforts to maintain the efficiency of the different departments of the State. The work in connection with the commutation of the Mehrs Chula Vero into an assessment on their lands, for which a Special Officer was appointed under the orders of Government, has been brought to a close, and the final orders of Government as to the rate of assessment to be fixed have also been received. Another important work, i. e., the enquiry into land alienation case s was also practically completed in the course of the year.

Revenue survey completed.

76. The work of the revenue survey is now practically complete. Three surveyors have now been added to the Administrator's office, whose duty is to keep the records and maps up to date and generally to perform the work allotted to Revenue Survey Inspectors in British Districts.

Introduction of the system of taking rental in cash instead of payment-in-kind.

77. The question whether the system of taking rental in cash should be substituted for the present payment-in-kind system has been carefully considered with the result that the Administrator is not prepared to recommend any alteration. "The present system, if strictly supervised," writes the Administrator, "seems in many ways the best for a poor stony tract of land, with a scanty rainfall, such as Porbandar is, and any alteration would be distasteful alike to the Darbar and to the cultivators. In such circumstances it seems doubtful whether such a radical change, as the introduction of a cash rental system would be desirable at present. Much improvement is being gradually effected in the present revenue administration; several unnecessary restrictions on the disposal of their crops by the cultivators having been removed, and a stricter supervision of revenue subordinates in charge of village grain-yards having been introduced. In its improved form the old method of collecting revenue in kind seems in every way suited to a small and comparatively sterile State such as Porbandar is. The interests of the Darbár and the people are closely bound together and the cultivators are never reduced to such absolute poverty as is frequently found in districts where revenue is paid in cash. One of the greatest advantages of the present system is the protection it affords to cultivators against the extortions of the money lending classes. The land and houses of cultivators being solely the property of the State and inalienable, the decrees of creditors can be executed only on the crops of the cultivators. Consequently executions are never carried out except when the crops are in the village grain-yards. But before attaching any of the grain of a debtor, first, sufficient grain for the maintenance of the cultivator and his family for a year and secondly, the State share is set apart and is not liable to attachment. The result is that the cultivating classes are unusually free from debt."

78. A design for handsome public offices was submitted with detailed estimates and drawings to Government in December 1894 and the sanction of Government was received on the last day of the year. Proposals for the larger harbour improvement scheme are still before Government. Meanwhile Mr. Morris, the Port Engineer of Karáchi, was invited to give an opinion on the scheme. His report has not yet been received, though he has fully gone into the projects. An important irrigation scheme to utilize the perennial flow of the Bhádar has been worked out. Mr. Whiting, late Chief Engineer for irrigation to the Government of Bombay, was invited to give his opinion on the project. A favourable opinion was received from him on the 6th March and the scheme will now be placed before Government at an early date.

Public Works.

79. His Highness the Ráná has continued in good health except that his sight has become impaired by cataract for the removal of which he has lately undergone an operation in Bombay. In appreciation of the friendly attitude he has always maintained to successive Administrators and of his estimable private life, the Government of India have recently directed that he should be re-admitted to the ceremonial privileges of a 1st Class Chief in Káthiáwár.

His Highness the Ráná's health, and his friendly attitude.

80. There has been a marked improvement in the conduct of Kumár Bhávsingji during the year. He has taken much interest in the State paddock of which he holds independent charge. In the beginning of March he started on a short tour in Cutch and Sind with his companion Mr. Bhaváníds Govindji, from which he has since returned all the better for it. All this reflects much credit on Mr. Bhaváníds who has spared no pains to improve the Prince with a considerable amount of success.

Conduct of Kumár Bhávsingji. His short tour in Cutch and Sind.

81. Kunvar Vajesingji, now in his 21st year, left the Rájkumár College in June and has remained at Porbandar since, being employed in doing magisterial work. He was married in the month of May 1894 to a daughter of a Bháyát of the Thákor of Chuda.

Kunvar Vajesingji.

MÁNÁVADAR—3RD CLASS.

Area 90 square miles; Population 16,006; Revenue Rs. 2,47,928; Tribute Rs. 14,821.

82. The old Manager Mr. Prabháshankar Dalpatrám died in July last, and Ráo Bahádur Pránjivan Vishvanáth, who was on Special duty at Porbandar, was appointed to succeed him and assumed charge on the 6th February last.

Mánávadar: Personnel.

83. Captain G. E. Hyde-Cates, the Pránt Officer, visited Mánávadar last January and was pleased with its condition. There is a sum of Rupees 4,98,300 invested in Government securities and a further sum of one Lákh of Rupees has been invested since the close of the year, there being generally a surplus of more than one Lákh over the expenditure.

Financial condition of the Táluka.

VADIA—5TH CLASS.

Area 72 square miles; Population 10,353; Revenue Rs. 1,29,853; Tribute Rs. 3,898.

Vadia: Return of the young Chief from the Indian tour; association with the Manager in the management of the estate; his visit to England under the care of Mr. Waddington.

84. The young Chief, Kumár Báwa Wála, returned from his Indian tour on the 22nd May and since then has been associated with the Manager in administering the affairs of the State. The Kumár and his mother do not get on well together, though for the present through the good offices of the Pránt Officer matters are smoothed down.

Báwa Wála has proceeded to England under the care of Mr. Waddington, Vice-Principal of the Rájkumár College, and is expected to remain there about six months. On his return he will be put on the Gádi and invested with full powers.

Revenue and finance.

85. The year was not on the whole a satisfactory one owing to the insufficiency of rain in the preceding year, and partly to the decline in the price of cotton. The revenue was only Rupees 1,29,853 or short of the average of the last three years by Rupees 12,390. The expenditure amounted to Rupees 1,90,733, which included a sum of Rupees 47,698 paid in liquidation of debts, deposits and advances and a further extraordinary expenditure of Rupees 52,485. The closing balance is Rupees 1,21,688.

BILKHA—ESTATE OF DESA WÁLA—5TH CLASS.

Area 44·5 square miles; Population 4,886; Revenue Rs. 98,329; Tribute Rs. 2,976-12-4.

Bilkha: Minor Chiefs.

86. This estate is owned by two shareholders, both minors. The elder is studying in the Rájkumár College.

Insanitary condition of the town of Bilkha.

87. There are two other shareholders in Bilkha, Nája Wála and Ála Wála. The town being joint is under the jurisdiction of the Táluka Court exercised through a Thánadár. It is reported by the District Officer to be not clean or in a sanitary condition. The Manager does what he can for his part of the town, but it is surrounded by the houses and land of the other shareholders who do not readily co-operate.

Revenue and expenditure.

88. The total revenue for the year was Rupees 98,329 and the expenditure Rupees 88,931. Rupees 50,000 have been invested in Government Promissory Notes.

HÁLÁR PRÁNT.

VÁNKÁNER—2ND CLASS.

Area 414·5 square miles; Population 39,329; Revenue Rs. 2,59,408; Tribute Rs. 18,879.

Vánkáner: The Manager.

89. Ráo Bahádur Ganpatráo Náráyan Laud was in charge of the State throughout the year except for two months when he went on privilege leave and Khán Bahádur Dádábhái Hormasji, Deputy Assistant Political Agent, Hálár, acted for him.

90. The young Ráj Sáheb is now 16 years of age He is still studying at the Rájkumár College and his progress is reported to be good. He is betrothed to a daughter of the Chief of Sháhpura in Meywár and the "Samurta" ceremonies took place on the 21st January last. It is in contemplation to celebrate the marriage during next cold season, for which Government have been pleased to sanction an expenditure of one Lákh of Rupees.

The young Ráj Sáheb, his studies and his marriage in the next cold season.

91. The relations of the Bái Sáheb with the administration are gradually improving, as she has been induced to dismiss two of her worst adherents. There are still some bad advisers left to be got rid of, but it is hoped that before long this also may be achieved for her own good and that of the minor Ráj Sáheb.

Gradual improvement of the Bái Sáheb's relations with the administration.

92. The revenue last year was Rupees 2,59,408 and was not larger because of the unfavourable season and low price of cotton. The expenditure was Rupees 2,77,562. The excess of expenditure over revenue was due to a large outlay on public works and the revision of the revenue survey.

Revenue and expenditure.

93. The State has now an invested balance of Rupees 2,95,700 and cash amounting to Rupees 4,995, total Rupees 3,00,695.

Financial condition of the State.

94. Rupees 23,279 of the old outstandings were recovered during the year. An official of the Audit Department of the Agency was specially deputed last September to make a local investigation with regard to these outstandings and submit a report. It appears from his report recently received that the total outstandings amount to Rupees 1,75,535-7-2 of which Rupees 1,19,197-15-7 are considered to be unrecoverable but still further investigation is proceeding.

Old outstandings.

95. The revenue survey is being carried out under the supervision of Mr. Hatch, Assistant Superintendent of Agency surveys, and has made good progress.

Revenue survey.

96. The flourishing condition of the Vánkáner State and the excellent working of all its departments and institutions are the results of careful administration by Mr. Laud.

Flourishing condition of the State.

RÁJKOT—2ND CLASS.

Area 282·14 square miles; Population 49,938; Revenue Rs. 3,35,975; Tribute Rs. 21,321.

97. This is the 5th year of the Agency management, and Mr. Motichand Tulsi, who has continued to be in charge of the State, may be congratulated on the results of his efforts to improve the resources and condition of the State and its subjects.

Rájkot: Satisfactory administration of the Manager.

98. Besides contributing 2 Lákhs of Rupees to the Jetalsar-Rájkot Railway, the State has been able to embark on a large scheme combining the two-fold objects of water supply to the capital and irrigation of the neighbouring lands under cultivation.

Public Works.

The sanction of Government for the construction of the Lálpuri water-works was received in February last, and the foundation stone of the dam was laid by Sir Charles Ollivant, K.C.I.E., Political Agent, with befitting ceremonies on the 2nd March 1895. The project is estimated to cost 3¼ Lákhs to be spread over 3 or 4 years. The works were designed by Mr. Booth and are being carried out also under his personal supervision.

Revenue and expenditure.

99. The income of the State during the year amounted to Rs. 3,35,975 as against Rupees 3,10,017. The expenditure was Rupees 2,27,898. The balance in the hands of the State is Rupees 2,00,000 invested and Rupees 1,71,784 cash, total Rupees 3,71,784.

Kumár Ladhubha: Settlement of his Girás, and the liquidation of his debt.

100. Kumár Shri Ladhubha, brother of the late Chief and uncle of the present minor Thákor Sáheb, has accepted his Girás on the special conditions which were approved by Government and all arrears which were held in deposit for him have been consequently paid to him. With the money thus obtained he has been trying to clear off his debts, but owing to the large amount of them he has not been altogether successful and has subsequently applied to be allowed the benefit of the Encumbered Estates rules.

Mália—4th Class.

Area 102·8 square miles; Population 13,589; Revenue Rs. 1,12,234; Tribute Rs. 1,367.

Personnel.

101. Captain G. B. O'Donnell was in charge of this State throughout the year and maintained strict control over the Miánás. Under his careful management the resources of the state are being gradually developed and a commencement has been made towards liquidating the debts.

Opening of a Telegraph Office at Mália.

102. One of the most noteworthy events of the year was the opening of a telegraph office at Mália early in June, and the effect of having this rapid means of communication has been very marked. The mercantile classes also make good deal of use of the wire, and the earnings of the office have amounted to more than 4 per cent. on the initial cost of the line. But its value became most apparent when we were momentarily threatened with a recrudescence of the troubles which had marred the peace of the Province of late years by the escape of prisoners from Dhrángadhra of which immediate intelligence was received which would otherwise have taken some days and have enabled the escaped Miánás to visit Malia and seek assistance from their friends there.

Destruction of Miána Ragha Kheta Báidáni who had escaped from the Dhrángadhra Jail by the Fouzdár of Mália.

103. A Miána named Ragha Kheta Báidáni, one of the dacoits, who had escaped from the Dhrángadhra Jail on the 24th July 1894, was tracked by the Mália Fouzdár near Karádia on the 18th November. He fired on the Fouzdár, but without success. The Fouzdár called on Ragha to surrender but finding that he would not yield, made a rush upon him and succeeded in destroying him. The Fouzdár's conduct in this affair deserves special mention, for he acted with great courage and tact and without precipitation.

General behaviour of the Miánás.

104. Captain O'Donnell remarks as follows on the general behaviour of the Miánás during the year.

"Though there have been cases of cutting off of noses and beatings with bludgeons and similar crimes of violence among them, they have generally been better behaved than during the previous year. I am hopeful about their ultimate reformation but we cannot expect exemplary conduct from them yet. Their traditions for generations past have been those of lawlessness and rapine, the people of the countryside encourage them in their misdoings by showing only too plainly that they are in terror of the Miána name, and circumstances have so long afforded them immunity that they are even yet surprized when retribution overtakes them. But it is very satisfactory to observe that they are cultivating their lands better than I have noticed them doing hitherto.. I trust this is a sign that they will become more settled in their habits as time advances and less prone to listen to the persuasions of ill advisers who still sometimes recall to them the deeds of Isa Mánek, Wála Námori and other notorious rascals with the hope of stirring up some effervescing spirits among the young to emulate them. This was done so secretly that it was only by chance that we have come to know of it. As it has not, however, resulted in trouble, I think we may hope that some tangible improvement is being wrought among the Miánás and that they are perhaps beginning to realize in what their true interest lies.

The experiment of inducing some young Miánás to enlist in the 23rd Bombay Rifles at Rájkot, though at present a failure from a Military point of view, for nearly the whole of them were dismissed by sentence of Court Martial for insubordination, has not, I think, had a bad effect altogether and I yet hope to induce some of the better sort to enlist with happier results. For the whole of those who were dismissed have besieged me with prayers for re-employment and promised amendment, and the few whom I have thought it well to employ have behaved well.

Thus on the whole I think we may fairly say that the Miánás are realizing that quiet behaviour conduces more to their comfort than their former practices although I think that the time when they can be trusted to refrain from violating the sanctity of person, life and property without the guidance of a European hand is not in the immediate future".

Revenue and expenditure.

105. The revenue for the year amounted to Rupees 93,221; the ordinary expenditure was Rupees 83,093: a sum of Rupees 4,940 was paid in liquidation of debt and Rupees 4,959 were paid as contribution to the Mália Tramway. It is proposed to pay a further sum of Rupees 8,000 in liquidation of debts during the current year besides the balance of Rupees 4,041 on account of the Mália Tramway.

Kotdá-Sángáni—4th Class.

Area 74·4 square miles; Population 10,221; Revenue Rs. 1,19,384; Tribute Rs. 11,616.

Kotdá-Sángáni: Return of the young Chief from the Indian tour; association with the Manager in the administration of the State; his installation.

106. The young Chief Mulváji was on tour in India during the cold weather with Kumár Báva Wála of Wadia under the charge of Ráo Bahádur Chamanrái Harrái. Soon after his return he was, on the 8th June 1894, associated with the Government Manager Mr. Umiáshankar Jivanrám, in the conduct of affairs as Joint Manager. He showed aptitude and ability in gaining an insight into and conducting public business and was soon afterwards recommended to be placed in sole charge of the State. Orders to instal him were received just before the end of the year, and the formal ceremony took place on the 7th April 1895.

Revenue and expenditure.

107. The revenue for the year amounted to Rupees 1,19,384, including Rupees 12,384 specially received on account of refunds of advances and Vadháva (marriage-tax) on the Thákor's marriage The expenditure was Rupees 1,25,117. This included a sum of Rupees 22,125 paid in liquidation of debt

Condition of the Táluka.

108. The State is now entirely free from debt.

Mengni—5th Class.

Area 34·5 square miles; Population 4,415; Revenue Rs. 33,000; Tribute Rs. 3,412.

Mengni: Relations between the Chief and his sons.

109. This Táluka has been under management since 1884 on account of debt and maladministration. The relations between the Tálukdár and his sons appear to be less strained, though they are by no means cordial as yet.

Revenue and expenditure; also liquidation of the debt.

110. The realizations this year amounted to Rupees 31,095. This with the opening balance of Rupees 6,729 make a total of Rupees 37,824. The expenditure amounted to Rupees 23,398, and Rupees 10,000 were paid in liquidation of debt which now stands at Rupees 23,085. It is proposed to apply Rupees 8,000 during the current year towards its further reduction.

CHAPTER III—Protection.

Course of Legislation.

New regulations sanctioned and brought into force.

111. The following regulations were sanctioned by Government and brought into force during the year:-

(1) Revised rules regarding interstatal loans.

(2) Revised rules for permission to practise as Barristers or Pleaders in the Agency Courts and for qualification to practise as authorized translators.

(3) Revised rules for the custody, sale and account of stamp labels.

(4) Extradition rules between Baroda and the Native States of Káthiáwár.

112. Revision of rules relating to extradition between the Native States of Káthiáwár, New Police Regulations and rules for the possession, manufacture, sale, &c., of arms and ammunition are still under the consideration of Government.

Rules under the consideration of Government.

Police.

113. The strength and distribution of Police of the various States and the Agency (including the reserve head-quarters but exclusive of the Railway and Village police) is given below :—

Strength and distribution of Police.

Divisions.	Total strength of Police.	Area in square miles.	Population.	Proportion of force to
				Area	Population
				1 to	1 to
Jhálávád	1,122	4,392·606	4,68,235	3·915	417
Sorath	1,712	5,217·16	7,85,032	3·05	459
Hálár	2,501	7,061·74	8,22,697	2·82	329
Gohilvád	2,642	4,208·4	6,76,440	1·60	256
Reserve at Rájkot	250	...	.....	.....	.....
Total.....	8,227	20,879 906	27,52,404	2·538	335

114. These figures, when compared with those of the previous year show a slight decrease in Jhálávád and slight increases in Sorath and Hálár. The decrease in Jhálávád is due to reduction in the number of Police in Muli and Bajána.

Comparison with previous year.

In Sorath though Porbandar shows a slight decrease, Junágad and Jetpur have had their police increased. The increase in Hálár is due to additions by Navánagar, Gondal and Kotdá-Sángáni to the strength of their Police.

The Administrator, Porbandar, explains that the force was reduced as the Province was cleared of outlaws and the more troublesome portion of the population of the State had been got under control. The recent Mohoram disturbances however have suggested the necessity of re-organizing and enlarging the Police strength of that State.

Working of the State Police.

115. The following table shows the working of the State Police during the year 1894-95 :—

States and Tálukás.	No. of accused arrested.	No. of accused convicted.	Percentage of convicted to accused arrested.	Amount of property stolen.	Amount of property recovered.	Percentage recovered.
Jhálávád	1,024	581	56·74	24,191 3 1	11,742 8 7	48·54
Sorath	2,448	1,330	54·33	47,400 1 2	21,832 8 9	46·05
Hálár.....	3,477	1,835	52·78	66,918 5 10	30,909 13 6	46·19
Gohilvád	1,330	810	60·90	11,540 13 11	6,987 8 8	60·54
Total.....	8,279	4,556	55·03	1,50,050 8 0	71,472 7 6	47·63

Comparison with previous year.

116. As compared with the previous year, there is a slight increase in the percentage of convictions and a slight decrease in the percentage of recovery of stolen property in Jhálávád. In Sorath there is a decrease in the percentage of convictions and an increase in the percentage of recovery of stolen property. On the other hand there is an increase in both the percentages in Hálár and Gohilvád. These slight changes require no comments.

Working of the Agency Police.

117. Turning to the Agency Police the results are as follows :—

Number of accused arrested.....	732
„ convicted	389
Percentage of convicted to accused arrested	53·14
Value of property stolen	21,040
„ „ recovered	13,200
Percentage of recovery	62·73

Last year the percentage of persons convicted to those arrested was 45·88 and that of recovery of stolen property was 70·74. The former does not call for any remarks, but as regards the latter Mr. Souter, the Superintendent of Agency Police, explains :—

" Last year the high percentage of recovery was simply due to the large case in Dasáda where Rupees 24,000 out of a loss of Rupees 30,000 was recovered. The figures in this connection for the years 1891-92 and 1892-93 stood at 64·68 and 50·01 respectively. A wrong test has, in my opinion, been applied in the past in gauging the work of Police in recovering stolen property as it is clear that by a lucky accident in one large case the failure in numerous other cases may be glossed over. Similarly a large case of theft at the end of the year may destroy the percentage in spite of excellent work performed in numerous other cases. The true test or rather a more satisfactory test is the percentage of property recovered to property stolen plus the percentage of cases in which property has been recovered to cases in which property has been stolen. Applying therefore the latter test we find that the percentage has risen from 75·71 to 77·89."

Cognizable crime.

118. 561 cases were reported to the police as compared with 606 of the previous year. This decrease does not appear to call for special explanation as in the year 1892-93 the number of cases amounted to 523 only.

Non-cognizable crime.

119. Non-cognizable cases have increased from 475 in the previous year to 573 in the year under report. The Superintendent of Police remarks "as regards the increase of cases a possible explanation is that in former years the figures for the Railways may not have been included" and this is the case.

Statistics of both classes of crime.

120. The following statement shows details of both classes of crime in each of the Prânts :—

Prânts.	Area in square miles. (Thánás).	Population. (Thánás).	Years.	No. of cases reported.
				Cognizable.	Non-cognizable.	Total.
Jhálávád	1,116	1,05,569	1893-94	189	170	359

* Included in the figures of the Prânts.

More serious offences.

121. The more serious offences were 450 as against 370 in the previous year.

	1893-94.	1894-95.
Murder	1	4
Attempts at murder	1	1
Culpable homicide	6	4
Grievous hurt	23	30
Kidnapping	...	5
Dacoities	3	2
Robberies	10	7
House-breaking	91	127
Thefts	217	265
Receiving stolen property	18	15
	370	450

Of these 450 cases, 42 were declared to be false, leaving 408 as real cases reported to the Police as having occurred.

The increase is due to the fact that the offences committed on the B.-G.-J.-P. and Morvi Railways are included in the statement this year.

Of the four cases of murder, one is reported to have been committed by a Cháran on the 14th April 1894, who attempted a revival of the old custom of Trága (self immolation) but in a form more convenient to himself. It would appear that a Girásia for whom he had stood security had refused to meet his obligations, whereupon the Cháran committed the tragic act of decapitating his own mother in preference to shedding his own blood.

Dacoity.

122. After the destruction of the dacoit gang under the leadership of Juma Gand by the Dhrángadhra Police under the personal command of Mr. Souter on the 10th April 1894, there has been complete absence of organized outlawry and the Province has enjoyed quiet.

A police party of 40 foot and 20 mounted was sent to the assistance of the Gondal State when a disturbance was feared in that State during the Mohoram festival in July last. A riot took place on the 12th March at Vasávad between the Hindus and Mahomedans in consequence of certain disputes between the Nágar Tálukdárs and the Memon community of that place. The Agency Police had to render assistance on the occasion to restore order and effect arrests. The trial of the rioters was proceeding at the close of the year.

Railway Police.

Police on the B.-G.-J-P.,J.-R. and Morvi Railways.

123. The strength and cost of the police on the B.-G.-J.-P., J.-R. and Morvi Railways were as follows:—

Railways.	Strength.	Cost.	Number of miles.	Cost per mile.
B.-G.-J.-P. & J.-R. Railway	87	18,150	380	48
Morvi Railway	18	2,261	94	23

The Railway police is not now a distinct body as hitherto, but is merged in the general police force under the control of the Agency.

Working of the Railway Police.

124. The following abstract shows the result of the working of the Railway Police :—

Railways.	Number of persons arrested.	Number of persons convicted.	Percentage.	Value of property stolen.	Value of property recovered.	Percentage.
B.-G.-J.-P. & J.-R. Railway	60	41	68·33	6,766	5,421	80·12
Morvi Railway	18	13	72·22	325	293	90·15

125. As compared with last year the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway Police show an increase in the percentage of convictions to arrests, while the Morvi Railway shows a decrease in this percentage. But it is satisfactory to notice that there is a marked increase in the percentage of recovery of stolen property on both the Railways.

Comparison with the previous year.

On the general condition of the Agency Police, Mr. Souter has recorded the following remarks :—

"In the first place the force is supposed to be so constituted as to be able to satisfactorily discharge the dual functions of a highly disciplined armed body as well as that of a shrewd detective department. It is also expected that the force should serve as a model for the Police of the Native States of the Province whose outlaws the force may be called upon to account for and further to tender general assistance to States under special circumstances. With these and other extraordinary demands made on the force, it would only be rational to expect that the force enjoyed special rates of pay or other advantages conceded to a frontier force. Not only is such not the case but the greater portion of the force is paid on a lower scale than the Police of the Bombay Presidency. Considering first the conditions of the force as an armed corps I find that the smooth bore sniders which have been issued to the force are practically useless; that owing to the numerous calls made on account of guards for Jails, lock-ups, escorts of Political Officers and prisoners, which swallow up nearly ¼ of the total force, the reserve at headquarters is quite inadequate for ordinary emergencies and that consequently the drill, discipline and general efficiency cannot be properly maintained."

All this is more or less true and will receive remedial attention as soon as possible.

Agency Courts.

Regular, special and temporary Courts of the Agency.

126. The Courts under the Agency may be classed under three groups, viz., regular, special and temporary.

Regular.

1. Political Agent's Court (including that of the Judicial Assistant).
4. Assistant Political Agents' Courts.
4. Deputy Assistants' do.
15. Thánadárs.
1. Deputy Thánadár.

ROYAL ASIATIC SOCIETY LIBRARY OF THE BOMBAY BRANCH

Special.

1. Bántwa Nyáyádhish.
1. Jhinjhuwáda Kámdár.
1. Dedán Thánadár.

Temporary.

Courts of States under management.

These last vary according as States come under or are released from management either on account of indebtedness, minority or any other political reasons.

The Court of the Magistrate B.-G.-J.-P. Railway was abolished in May 1894 with the sanction of Government and the work performed by that Court distributed between the Deputy Assistant Political Agents of the Prânts.

The Vasâvad Tâluka Court was placed in judicial subordination to the Court of the Political Agent in January last with the approval of Government.

127. The following abridged return will show at a glance the work, both original and appellate, performed by the regular Agency Courts :—

128. It will be seen from the above that the total number of original regular civil and political cases disposed of was 4,144 as against 3,544, and of appeals 231 against 365 last year. The increase in the number of original cases is due to the unusually large number of claims against Encumbered Estates having been disposed of in the Jhálávád Pránt. The decrease in the number of appeals disposed of may be attributed to the fact that in the previous year most of the arrears had been cleared off and it is satisfactory to note that at the end of the year under report only 23 civil appeals and 43 political appeals were left over for disposal; of the latter 27 have been disposed of since the close of the year.

Increase in the number of cases disposed of.

129. Subjoined is a return required by Government of civil, political and criminal cases disposed of by the Agency Courts during the past 10 years:—

135. The Judicial Assistant this year inspected the records of 20 Courts and reported the results to the Political Agent who has issued a warning to erring Magistrates that any future repetition of the irregularities pointed out would be severely dealt with.

Inspection of records of Subordinate Courts.

136. The number of applications filed for execution of decrees was 3,758 against 3,291, of which 3,419 were disposed of. The number remaining undisposed of at the end of the year was 1,429 against 1,061 in the previous year. The attention of the Judicial Assistant will be called to this matter, with a view to accelerate business.

Applications for the execution of decrees.

137. The following statement shows that 382 documents aggregating in value Rupees 6,06,912 were registered during the year as against 379 aggregating Rupees 5,06,523 last year. The total fees realized were Rupees 5,298 against Rupees 3,805 in the previous year.

The number of outstanding cases at the end of the year rose from 5,307 to 5,644. The increase of arrears is found to be in the States of Junágad, Navánagar, Bhávnagar and Morvi. The attention of these States will be drawn to the matter.

139. The following is a return showing the statistics of criminal trials held by the State Courts of Class I to VII including those under management :—

Rájasthánik Court.

Personnel.

141. Colonel Hunter held the Presidentship from the opening of the year until the 7th November 1894 when he was relieved by Colonel Hancock on reversion but again resumed charge on the 5th March last.

142. 310 regular cases were disposed of and 6,061 miscellaneous orders were passed against 112 cases and 6,778 orders last year. With regard to the increase in the number of cases Colonel Hunter remarks.—"The number of cases disposed of has been abnormally swelled by the Muli Hak Patrak cases, of which 187 of precisely the same nature were disposed of by the determination of the two first test cases." The decrease in the miscellaneous orders is said to be due to the jurisdiction of the Court over 6 of the States having been in abeyance during part of the year.

Work done by the Court.

The work of the Court during the year is thus summarized :—

Suits entertained.....	93
Cases heard and disposed of ...	310
Balance on file.....	344

143. 50 applications to Government for the exercise of its extraordinary jurisdiction against the decisions of the Court were preferred to Government during the year Of these 18 were from the Darbárs and 22 from the Girásiás. Of these one was withdrawn, 20 were disposed of by Government declining to interfere with the awards of the Court and 29 were pending at the end of the year.

Appeals to Government.

144. With the sanction of the Government of India Government directed in their Resolution No. 4993, dated 13th August 1894, that the Court should continue for two years up to the end of December next and that its jurisdiction over the 6 States which had seceded from the union should be restored. It was also ordered that a conference should be held by the Political Agent in April with the States to devise some machinery to perform the work of the Court and protect its decrees after its termination. This action was approved by Her Majesty's Secretary of State and a conference was accordingly held in April last and the result reported to Government. The States agreed that the Court should continue on its present footing subject to the following conditions:—

Extension of the term of the Court.

(a) That the Court should hear and decide exclusively cases of the contributing States, viz., from the 1st to the 4th Class.

(b) That the cases of Tálukás below the 4th Class should not be hereafter entertained by the Court, and the cases of those Tálukás now pending in the Court should be transferred to the Courts which tried cases of a similar nature prior to the establishment of the Rájasthánik Court.

(c) That no fresh cases regarding status should be entertained hereafter.

(d) That the funds available should be utilized for the maintenance of the Court.

The whole subject is now under the further consideration of Government.

Prisons.

145. The total number of prisons in the Province is 149, the same as in last year.

CHAPTER IV.—Production and Distribution.

147. The rainfall was unusually heavy at the commencement of the monsoon and was accompanied at most places by storms and floods which resulted in great destruction of property. Sowing operations were impeded. The Machhu river overflooded during the months of June and July by which the city walls at Vánkáner were breached in half a dozen places and the river wall at Morvi also suffered considerable damage. The whole town and surroundings of Mália were flooded and considerable distress prevailed in consequence, to alleviate which the balance of the Famine Fund of 1877-78 was applied with good results. The early or Ágtar crops were also much damaged, the average out-turn being only about 8 annas and the Pástar or Rabi crops about 12 to 14 annas to the rupee.

Rainfall.

Staple crops.

148. The staple crops are Juvári, Bájri, wheat, gram, pulse, cotton, oil-seeds and sugar-cane. Junágad and Gondal continue to take interest in agricultural experiments.

Exotic cotton.

149. In Junágad the experiments with the Egyptian and Fyrozábád cotton proved a success and the yield was fair. "Vadhiáro" cotton was also sown and yielded 50 per cent. more than the country seed. Experiments were made with yellow gram and white sugar-cane seed from Bulsar and proved satisfactory.

Other Agricultural experiments.

150. In the Morvi State experiments were made in sowing potatoes and growing cocoanut, almond and betelnut trees; also in raising irrigated Juvári in the dry season and these are reported to have proved successful.

Garden.

151. The botanical and other gardens at Gondal continue in a flourishing condition. The other States which maintain gardens of any importance are Junágad, Bhávnagar, Porbandar, Dhrángadhra and Morvi. Junágad, Bhávnagar and Porbandar possess and maintain cocoanut plantations on an extensive scale which appear to answer very well.

Forests.

152. As reported last year, there is nothing new to record of the forests in the Province. Some attention is paid to the Gir forest belonging to Junágad but not on any enlightened principles. Villages have been established at scattered places and land is being cultivated after the trees are burnt. The whole Gir is let out for grazing purposes and the constant passage of men and animals through the forest is detrimental to the healthy growth of trees. If the present system is continued for any length of time, the Gir forest will gradually disappear and the fame of the Gir Lions remain only in name. The forest departments of the Navánagar and Porbandar States are managed by trained officers and good results have been reported. Gondal has also employed a trained man as forest ranger to maintain the small plantations they possess.

153. Káthiáwár cannot boast of any great factories. There are two spinning and weaving mills, one at Bhávnagar and the other at Morvi, worked by steam power. The ginning factory at Dhoráji is doing very well. A new ginning factory was opened at Morvi during last year and a cotton Press is nearly finished. A steam flour mill was opened in the town of Jámnagar. The engine of this mill also supplies power to work a lathe, a drilling, a corn thrashing and a corn or pulse crushing machine. Besides this the following machines were brought into the Jámnagar State—a machine to husk rice, five leather sewing machines, and a rope twisting machine.

Manufacture.

154. No Horse Show was held during the year. The States of Junágad, Bhávnagar, Dhrangadhra, Gondal, Váṅkáner, Pálitána, Limbdi, and Jasdan continue to maintain horse-breeding establishments but not on any very large scale nor on commercial principles. Three young horses suitable for army remounts were purchased from the Váṅkáner paddock during the last year.

Horse-breeding.

An Agricultural Show was held at Gondal during February which was reported to be a great success. The exhibits were excellent and the attendance a large and appreciative one.

In addition to these a further extension to Jámnagar, a length of 50 miles, has been practically decided upon. The detailed plans and estimates of the Jámnagar-Rájkot Railway were submitted to Government in September 1894 for approval and sanction. The sanction of Government was received only in May last so that no work could be executed during the year under report. The late Jám Sáheb proposed that funds for constructing the Railway should be raised by loan from Gondal and the terms of the loan have also been approved by Government. The question of a branch line to Jodiya or Saláya is deferred for the present.

157. The gross earnings of the B-G J.-P.-Railway amounted to Rupees 19,95,843 against Rupees 20,29,929 in the previous year and the expenditure was Rupees 11,43,356 against Rupees 11,41,221. The mileage result of earnings comes to Rupees 100·95 gross or Rupees 45·11 net per mile against 117 and 51·17 respectively in the previous year. The dividend to the proprietary States was as follows:—

B.-G.-J.-P. Railway.

The Dhoráji Agreement under which the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway is worked terminated on the 31st December 1894, but as the Committee was not prepared with a new scheme for future management, the period was first extended to 30th June 1895 and then to the 31st December 1895. Sir Charles Ollivant recommended that the Railway should be managed as a Joint Stock concern, but the proprietary States have not yet been persuaded to adopt that view. At a Meeting of the Committee of Management held on the 2nd March 1895, it was resolved that—

(1) There should be complete sectional proprietary independence and that accounts of combined and joint assets should be adjusted to fulfil this condition.

(2) There should be administrative coalition under one Manager, the details to be settled by a Sub-Committee consisting of Mr. Sims, Mr. Bezanji and Mr. White. The Sub-Committee to report within one month.

(3) The Committee of Management should consist of the representatives of the several sections (present and future) with the Political Agent as President; the voting power to be arranged as may be determined and the President to have a casting vote only.

The Sub-Committee after a great deal of consideration devised a fresh working agreement embodying the above principles to a more or less extent, but Gondal being anxious to sever its connection from Porbandar, withdrew from further action in the matter.

The matter was still under the consideration of the proprietary States and Government at the close of the year.

Jetalsar-Rájkot Railway.

158. The working of the Jetalsar-Rájkot branch has been entrusted to the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway under a contract the terms of which are that the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway proprietors should receive 45 per cent. of the gross earnings of the Jetalsar-Rájkot Railway for working expenses (including Telegraph charges and hire of Rolling Stock) and further a monthly payment of Rupees 200 for expenses incurred in maintaining the Railway (repairs, renewals, &c.). All jurisdictional charges are payable direct to Government by the J.-R. Railway. This line continues to develop traffic and is now earning about 5 per cent. on its capital and is expected to yield a still higher return when the Morvi line is converted into metre gauge.

Morvi Railway.

159. The gross earnings of the Morvi Railway amounted to Rupees 3,20,348 against Rupees 3,22,818 and the expenditure to Rupees 1,77,681 against Rupees 1,77,085 in the previous year giving 65·54 gross or 29·19 net earnings per mile per week. The dividend comes to Rupees 6·42 per cent. on capital cost against 6·76 in the previous year.

It has been proposed to convert this Railway into metre gauge and to join it with the B. G.-J.-P. and J.-R. Railways for the purposes of management. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb of Morvi has agreed to the conversion under certain conditions but is not at present willing to accede to the other proposal of joint management.

Railway Volunteers.

160. The enrolled strength of the Railway Volunteers company was 72 against 66 in the previous year, of whom 70 have qualified as efficients, only 2 being non-efficient. The average attendance at drill was fair and the capitation grant earned averaged Rupees 24·72 per man against 19·77 or an improvement of nearly Rupees 5 per man as compared with the previous year.

Accidents.

161. There were no serious accidents on the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway. There were only 2 cases of fatal accidents, 2 cases of trains running through level-crossing gates, 21 cases of derailment and 6 of Engine-failure. There were 3 cases of fire causing slight damages. As in last year the rainfall during the year was abnormal but did little or no damage to the line.

BHÁVNAGAR-WADHWÁN SECTION.—Heavy rain fell in and near Ránpur and Chuda and the Bhádar river over-flooded its banks and threatened the bank at mile 78·80, but without doing any serio us damage beyond cutting into the side slope for a mile or two. Whatever slight damage occurred was put right and caused no detention to trains.

JETALSAR-PORBANDAR SECTION—During the heavy rains there was no actual break but owing to the sinking of banks at the new Bhádar approach bridge and also at Supedi Station, the trains were somewhat delayed for a few days.

JETALSAR-VERÁVAL SECTION.—The rainfall on this section between the 8th and 19th June was 24·77 inches, but it caused no damage except to the diversions of the Kálwa and Ojat bridges. The line over the former bridge was linked in and trains were passed over it safely with but little detention.

The Ojat was in high flood and all description of traffic over it had to be stopped from 13th to 20th June.

The Morvi line was altogether free from serious accidents.

Amreli Railway.

162. As reported last year a branch Railway from Khijadia, a place on the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway line, to Chalála, a distance of some 35 miles, via Amreli and on to Dhári was also contemplated by the Baroda Darbár with the object of opening up His Highness the Gáekwár's Káthiáwár Maháls, but nothing has as yet been decided regarding it.

PUBLIC WORKS.

Public Works undertaken by States.

163. The total amount spent by the Native States upon Public Works during the year amounted to Rupees 22,34,966 against Rupees 24,32,968 in the previous year.

The figures of the First and Second Class States are given below :—

Junágad	1,97,080
Navánagar	1,88,220
Bhávnagar	7,71,096
Porbandar	1,25,970
Dhrángadhra	64,265
Morvi	2,90,975
Gondal	87,940
Vánkáner	55,568
Pálitána	68,116
Dhrol	12,100
Limbdi.....	33,326
Rájkot	72,932
Wadhwán.....	59,000
Jáfarábád	10,604
Total Rs.....	20,37,192

164. The total amount spent during the year through the Agency Engineer on Public Works was Rupees 1,55,042 against Rupees 1,85,285 in the previous year. One of the most important Public Works commenced at the end of the year is the Lálpuri irrigation and water supply project in the Rájkot State which is estimated to cost about 3¼ lacs of Rupees. The work is designed by Mr. Booth, the Agency Engineer, and approved by the Public Works Officers of Government.

Works executed through the Agency.

The Lálpuri lake will be 3 miles in length and 1 mile wide at its greatest. The greatest depth will be 50 feet. Its capacity above 26 feet (being the minimum height at which water will be drawn off) will be 335,000,000 cubic feet, which with an inflow during the fair season calculated at 2 cubic feet per second—35,592,000 cubic feet, gives a total capacity of 370,000,000 cubic feet from which deducting ordinary evaporation it will have 281,000,000 cubic feet available for use. The city consumption will be about 29,200,000 cubic feet, leaving a balance of 252,000,000 cubic feet for irrigational purposes and estimating a duty of 40,000 cubic feet per acre will be sufficient to irrigate from 4,000 to 6,000 acres of land.

The dam will be nearly one mile in length. There will be two masonry weirs, one 600 feet in length over the river-bed and another 1,500 feet on the higher ground. The remaining portion of the dam will be of earth and clay.

165. Telegraphic communication has now been established at the following places on the sea-coast of Káthiáwár, as well as in the interior, viz:—

Telegraph Offices.

(1) Mahuva to Una.

(2) Junágad to Kutiyána

(3) Wadhwán to Dhrángadhra.

(4) Morvi to Mália.

(5) Chital to Dhári.

166. There has been an increase of 8 Post Offices, 4 village postmen and 65 letter-boxes, while 2 village postmen and 19 letter-boxes were reduced. No mail robberies were reported.

Post Offices.

CHAPTER V.

167. The following statement shows the demands, collections and outstanding balances of the Tribute due to the British and Gáekwár Governments and Junágad State for the year under report:—

Tribute collections.

From the above it will be seen that the total demand was Rupees 11,36,046-6-2 being Rupees 10,78,684-0-0 for the year of report, and Rupees 57,362-6-2 on account of former years. The realization amounted to Rupees 10,74,289-4-9, leaving Rupees 61,757-1-5 as outstanding balance at the close of the year. Of this Rupees 59,382-13-0 have since been recovered leaving a balance of Rupees 2,374-4-5 to be collected.

168. Subjoined is a statement showing the receipts and disbursements, on account of General and Court-fee stamps in Káthiáwár during 1894-95.

Local Funds.

Káthiáwár Consolidated Fund.

169. The accounts of the Consolidated Fund which form an appendix to this report show receipts of Rupees 1,15,623 and expenditure of Rupees 1,62,023 during the year as compared with Rupees 1,02,464 and Rupees 1,36,500 respectively for the previous year. The increase in the receipts is due to the increased income under the following heads :—

Sale of stamp labels	Rs	6,000
Recovery of Mohosali dues	,,	2,200
Comparing fees	,,	1,000
Premium on the sale of Government securities of the nominal value of Rs. 39,700	,,	1,400
Anticipation interest on the invested capital...	,,	2,000

The increase in the expenditure is due to the extraordinary outlay as detailed below :—

Paid to Government as Contribution towards the cost of the Provincial Establishment, arrears for 1892-93	,,	4,000
Cost of Establishment paid to the Provincial Revenues	,,	4,676
Value of a Printing Machine purchased for the Gazette Press.....	,,	3,678
Advanced to the Rájkot Station Fund for the construction of a new Travellers' Bungalow and for improvements in the Rájkot Station..	,,	7,642
Increased expenditure on Public Works	,,	3,000
Increased payment under the head remission and refunds.....	,,	2,000

Stamp Labels.

170. The receipt from the Court-fee stamp labels has amounted to Rupees 37,233 as compared with Rupees 31,575 in the previous year.

States General Contribution and Endowment Fund.

171. The annual meeting of the Kárbháris was held on 15th and 18th September 1893 when the budget of the General Fund for 1894-95 was discussed and passed. A copy of this budget was submitted to Government for information, and the accounts for the official year 1894-95 are appended.

Among other grants the Committee made the following from that Fund :—

Establishments	Rs.	14,100
Repairs to roads	,,	29,752
Vaccination.....	,,	12,240

Dispensaries	Rs.	1,000
Memorial Institute gardens	,,	4,000
Rájkumár College	,,	14,607
Other Central Educational Institutions	,,	48,807
Grant to Pránt Funds	,,	10,260
Rájkot Exhibition	,,	4,000

thus evincing the usual liberality of the Chiefs towards the general improvement of the Province.

CHAPTER VI.

Vital statistics and Medical Service.

Hospitals and Dispensaries.

172. The total number of Hospitals and Dispensaries in the Province is 99 against 97 in the previous year showing an increase of 2.

Of the total number 26 have been placed under the supervision of the Agency Surgeon. They are as follows :—

2 Civil Station Dispensaries.

8 Thánás.

16 Dispensaries in States under management.

Patients treated.

173. Excluding the West Hospital at Rájkot to which special reference will be made hereafter, the total number of patients treated was 6,76,017 against 6,21,743. The total cost was Rupees 2,41,208 against Rupees 2,25,478.

General health.

174. There was no cholera or other epidemic and the public health on the whole was good.

West Hospital.

175. Surgeon Lieut.-Colonel F. C. Barker, M.D., was in charge of the West Hospital from 1st April to 5th May 1894 and 21st December 1894 to 31st March 1895.

Surgeon Lieutenant W. Carr Sprague acted from 6th May to 27th June 1894 and 19th and 20th December 1894, Surgeon Captain H. Herbert from 28th June to 18th December 1894.

4,697 out-patients and 817 in-patients were treated during the year against 3,693 out-patients and 999 in-patients in the previous year. Assistant Surgeon Shápurji Dosábhái Bharucha, L.M. and S., was transferred to Bombay in July being relieved by Assistant Surgeon Erachsháh Sheriarji

Bharucha, L.M. and S. The permanent incumbent Assistant Surgeon Framroz Shavakshah Dávar, M.D., died at Davos Platz, Switzerland, on 29th January 1895. Regarding this Officer Dr. Barker records as follows "were this the place for it, much could be said regarding his exceptional attainments and attractive qualities; it need only here be said that his work in this Hospital was of the highest and most conscientious kind."

Vaccination.

Vaccination.

176. As mentioned in the last year's report the States of Junígad, Navánagar and Bhávnagar have now separate organizations of their own in regard to Vaccination and the rest of the province is under the supervision of the Agency Surgeon in this matter. The total number of Vaccinators in Káthiáwár is now 53—the same as last year.

Out of these 25 are in the three States above mentioned and 28 are under the Agency Surgeon.

Statistics.

177. The general result of vaccine operations shows that 91,782 primary and 1,324 re-vaccinations were performed during the year making a total of 93,106 against 87,356 in the previous year, giving an increase of 5,750. The total cost was Rupees 26,952 against Rupees 27,760 in the previous year, showing a decrease of Rupees 808.

Small-pox.

178. Small-pox was reported in 22 villages against 34 in the previous year and immediate arrangements were made for its suppression by special vaccination.

CHAPTER VII.—Education.

Educational Institutions.

179. The Educational Institutions in the Agency number 1,296 with 77,079 scholars against 1,259 schools and 74,577 scholars last year. They are as follows:—

1	Rájkumár College at Rájkot.
1	Tálukdári-Girásia School at Wadhwán.
1	Sámaldás College.
6	High Schools.
2	Training Colleges.
35	Middle Schools for boys.
2	Do. do. for girls.
875	Primary Schools for boys.
85	Do. for girls.
13	Aided Schools.
275	Unrecognized Schools.
1,296

The total expenditure on public instruction was Rupees 6,00,755 against Rupees 5,53,226 in the previous year. This compares very favourably with the Native States in other parts of the Presidency.

Káthiáwár which in former years was a sub-division of the Northern Division is now an independent charge, and the status of the Officer entrusted with the supervision and inspection of the Educational Institutions has been raised to that of Educational Inspector under the direct orders of the Political Agent.

Regarding educational progress Mr. Turkhud remarks that the middle and trading classes send their children to schools, but there remain many classes who do not see any necessity to do so. The most important amongst these are Girásiás and cultivators.

As to physical education he says "it is easier to get the children to learn than to play. This appears to me to be more the parents than the children's fault. Teachers again think it is beneath their dignity to be seen playing and instead of joining the children in their games stand aloof and look on. Organized play is unknown except in the Barton Female Training College. Some of the middle schools play cricket and that game appears to be making some progress." Female education does not appear to make such good progress as is to be desired.

A new feature in the educational history of the Province was the holding of a conference of the Head Masters of various Vernacular Schools in accordance with the recommendations of the Education Commission and Mr. Turkhud is glad to note that "our Masters are beginning to wake up to the consciousness of what their duties and responsibilities are and this is a very healthy sign."

Educational Control.

1 Junágad.
2 Bhávnagar.
3 Porbandar.
4 Morvi.
5 Vánkáner.
6 Pálitána.
7 Rájkot.
8 Wadhwán.

180. Of the 8 States to which control of their schools has been entrusted favourable accounts are received as regards Junágad, Bhávnagar, Porbandar, Vánkáner, and Rájkot, but Morvi, Pálitána and Wadhwán still continue to show a disposition to shirk their responsibilities for proper and efficient management.

Rájkumár College.

Personnel.

181. Mr. C. W. Waddington was in charge of the College up to 6th November when Mr. Chester Macnaghten returned from furlough and resumed charge. There were slight changes in the subordinate staff of the College. This Institution has maintained its high reputation. The last year was not marked by any great changes; it has done its work steadily and quietly after the manner of former years and little has occurred worthy of special notice.

Students.

182. The number of Kumárs on the rolls shows a slight decrease, 4 having been withdrawn during the year while two have joined the College. The number at the end of the year was 39 as against 41 at the end of the previous year.

183. Kumár Lákhájiráj of Rájkot aged 9 and Kumár Fateh-din-khánji of Mánávadar aged 9 have joined the College during the year. It was also arranged that Kumár Jasvatsingji of Navánagar should join in June, which he has done.

New admissions.

184. The annual examination was held in September last by the Educational Inspector, N. D., who in his report to the Director of Public Instruction says—

Annual Examination.

"The general results of the examination * * * may, I think, be considered fairly satisfactory, but more attention should perhaps be paid to English dictation and mathematics in the lower classes. The general arrangements for the maintenance of discipline and order, in this College, appear to be satisfactory. The residential quarters of the Kumárs are carefully looked after, and these rooms seem to be very comfortable. I may mention in conclusion that at the time of the examination, the general appearance of all the Kumárs was neat and their manners were gentlemanly and courteous".

185. The annual distribution of prizes was held in November last when His Excellency Lord Harris kindly presided and bade the Kumárs farewell in appropriate terms.

Prize distribution.

186. Riding and other sports have been carried on as usual and under Mr. Waddington's superintendence have been vigorously practised.

Exercise.

187. Cricket Matches were played between the Rájkumár College and the Mayo College at Ajmere in September and February last. The first game was played on the Ajmere ground and the second in Rájkot, and it is hoped that these are only the first of a series of annual Matches.

Cricket Matches.

188. The general health of the Kumárs was excellent as usual and this speaks well for the care and thought taken for the sanitary arrangements of the College.

General health.

Tálukdári Girásia School.

189. This school continues to maintain its reputation under the supervision of Mr. Strip. The number of scholars was 56 compared with 57 in the previous year:—

The physical, moral and educational training of the boys are all equally looked after and are equally creditable to all concerned.

Examination.

190. The school was examined by Mr. M. A. Turkhud, Educational Inspector, Káthiáwár, who expressed himself well satisfied with the result.

Sámaldás College.

Sámaldás College at Bhávnagar.

191. The Bhávnagar Darbár reports that at the end of March 1895, the number of students on the roll was 49 as against 27 in the previous year. The number of students sent up for the different University examinations and the results thereof are as follows :—

CHAPTER VIII—Archæological.

Archæological.

192. There is nothing new to report under this head.

CHAPTER IX.—Miscellaneous.

Printing Presses.

193. The number of printing presses shows an increase of 3, 1 in Rájkot Town, 1 in Rájkot Civil Station and 1 in Wadhwán.

Newspapers and periodicals.

194. The two newspapers published at Rájkot, viz, the Káthiáwár Times and the Káthiáwár News, appear to be doing fairly well, especially the latter. The monthly periodical "Káthiáwár Law Reports" also progresses pretty satisfactorily.

Conclusion.

Acknowledgments to Officers.

195. The Political Agent is fully satisfied with the zeal and efficiency displayed by all his Assistants and by his Native subordinates. They have all heartily worked together for the good of the Province and the general progress made testifies to their efficiency.

G. E. HANCOCK, Colonel,
Acting Political Agent.

APPENDIX I.

No. 44 of 1895-96.

From Lieut.-Colonel J. M. Hunter,
President, Rájasthánik Court, Káthiáwar.

To Colonel G. E. Hancock,
Political Agent, Káthiáwár.

Camp Háti-Mália, 30th May 1895.

Sir,—I have the honour to submit the 22nd Annual Report on the working of the Rájasthánik Court.

Changes in the Personnel of the Court.

2. I held the Presidentship from the opening of the year until the 7th November 1894 when I was relieved by Colonel Hancock but again resumed charge on the 5th March last.

President, Rájasthánik Court.

Superintendent of Girás Surveys.

Major Fenton was in charge of the survey operations throughout the year.

In consequence of the resignation of Ázam Durgáprasád Hariprasád, the Member of the Court nominated by the Junágad State, the names of two substitutes were submitted; of whom that of Ázam Dulerái Umiáshankar was selected and his appointment, as a Member of the Court, approved by Government Resolution No. 1652 of the 8th March 1895.

Members.

Nature and Progress of the Work.

3. The usual tables illustrating the working of the Court are herewith appended.

There were 561 cases pending at the end of last year, 93 new cases were filed and 310 disposed of leaving a balance outstanding at the end of the year of 344 cases.

The number of cases disposed of has been abnormally swelled by the Muli Hak Patrak cases, of which 187 of precisely the same nature were disposed of by the determination of the two first test cases.

The following new cases were filed during the year —

Hak Patraks.....	20
Boundary disputes ...	51
Suits.....	8
Status cases	14
	93

The 310 cases disposed of comprised :—

252 Hak Patraks.
24 Boundary disputes.
4 Suits.
28 Status cases.
2 Miscellaneous complaints.

The 344 cases now pending consist of —

179 Hak Patraks.
103 Boundary disputes.
18 Suits.
30 Status cases.
14 Miscellaneous complaints.

Of the above, 207 are in States of the first 4 Classes and 137 in Tálukás below Class IV and in the Thána Circles.

4. The above however does not exhaust the list of work still before the Court.

89 cases are pending in the Courts of the States of the first 4 Classes and 6 in the Courts below that Class, which, when decided, will come up to this Court in appeal. Hak Patraks have to be given by the States to landholders who have recently been declared to be Mul-Girásiás, which will be appealed against.

In addition to the above, land disputes or boundary cases will arise in the 36 villages now under survey.

5. 396 miscellaneous orders sitting with the Members were passed against 627 last year and 5,665 miscellaneous orders emanated from the President alone against 6,151 last year.

The decrease in this part of the Court's work is due to the jurisdiction of the Court over 6 of the States having been in abeyance during part of the year.

Amicable settlement.

Only 1 case was settled amicably and 7 cases out of Court during the year against 1 and 10 respectively during the previous year.

Appeals.

6. 50 applications to Government for the exercise of its extraordinary jurisdiction against the decisions of the Court were preferred to Government during the year. 18 of these emanated from the Darbárs and 22 from the Girásiás. Of these one was withdrawn, 20 were disposed of by Government declining to interfere with the awards of the Court and 29 were pending at the end of the year.

Of the applications preferred last year and disposed of during the period under report 2 were reversed, a further hearing was ordered in 5 cases and in one case the jurisdiction of the Court which had been declined was affirmed.

Survey Operations.

7. The operations of the Survey Department which have been supervised by Major Fenton with his usual ability and industry appear in the accompanying statement.

General Remarks.

8. With the sanction of the Government of India Government directed, in their Resolution No. 4993, dated 13th August 1894, that the Court should continue for two years up to the end of December next and that its jurisdiction over the 6 States which had seceded from the union should be restored. It was also ordered that a conference should be held by the Political Agent in April with the States to devise some machinery to perform the work of the Court and protect its decrees. This action was approved of by Her Majesty's Secretary of State in his Despatch No. 76, dated 11th October 1894.

9. The Members of the Court have exhibited their wonted intelligent appreciation of evidence and strict impartiality and my office establishment worked with their usual diligence.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

J. M. HUNTER, Lieut.-Colonel,
President, Rájasthánik Court.

SUBJECT.
Annual Report on the Judicial Work of the Province of Káthiáwár for the year 1894-95.

APPENDIX II.

No. 148 OF 1895-96.

From J. W. A. WEIR, Esquire, I. C. S.,
Acting Judicial Assistant, Káthiáwár.

To Colonel G. E. HANCOCK,
Acting Political Agent, Káthiáwár.

Camp Mángrol, 7th June 1895.

SIR,—I have the honour to submit the Annual Report on the Judicial Work of the Province of Káthiáwár for the year 1894-95.

2. During the year under report the charge of the office was held by the following officers :—

F. C. O. Beaman, Esquire I. C. S., from 1st April 1894 to 7th August 1894.

J. W. A. Weir, Esquire I. C. S., from 8th August 1894 to 31st March 1895.

3. The Vasávad Court was placed in Judicial subordination to the Court of the Political Agent in January last by Government Resolution No. 7586, dated 4th December 1894.

The Court of the Magistrate, B.G.J.P. Railway was abolished in May last and the work performed by that Court distributed between the Deputy Assistant Political Agents of the Pránt.

With these exceptions no alterations occurred in the number of Courts in Judicial subordination to the Court of the Political Agent.

4. The subjoined table shows the result of the trials held by the various Magistrates in the different Pránts, the number of persons concerned and the percentage of convictions to the number of prisoners :—

Prants.	No. of cases tried.	No. of prisoners tried.	No. of persons convicted.	Percentage of convictions.
Jhálávád Pránt	408	997	378	37·91
Sorath do.	189	352	110	31·25
Gohilvád do.	246	687	134	19·50
Hálár do.	154	327	87	26·61
Total.....	997	2,363	709	30·00

A comparison of the above figures with those of the same table in the report of the previous year shows decreases in the year under report of 34 and 60 respectively in the numbers of cases tried and persons convicted. On the other hand there was an increase of 199 in the number of persons tried, in the year under report as compared with the figures of the previous year.

The total percentage of convictions has fallen from 35·53 in the year previous to 30·00 in the year under report, the decrease occurs in the Jhálávád and Hálár Prants, on the other hand there is an improvement in the percentage of convictions in the Sorath Prant. As in previous year the Courts in the Jhálávád Prant performed the greatest amount of criminal work. An accurate comparison of the figures for each Prant in the year under report and in the preceding year is impossible owing to the abolition of the Court of the Railway Magistrate.

5. 40 criminal appeals were disposed of during the year under report by the criminal Court of the Political Agent presided over by the Judicial Assistant, as shown in the subjoined table against 55 in the previous year.

Courts.	No. of appeals in which convictions and sentences were confirmed.	No. of appeals in which convictions and sentences were modified.	No. of appeals in which convictions and sentences were reversed.	Total.

Do. Vánkáner	.....	.....	1	1
Do. Muli	1	1	.....	2
Do. Vasávad.....	1	.....	.....	1
Total....	21	6	13	40

The decrease in the number of appeals is chiefly due to the smaller number of appeals received from decisions of the Nyáyádhish, Rájkot.

6. The District Magistrates have disposed of 20 criminal appeals as shown in the subjoined table during the year under report as against 18 in the previous year.

Prânts.	No. of appeals in which convictions and sentences were confirmed.	No. of appeals in which convictions and sentences were modified.	No. of appeals in which convictions and sentences were reversed.	Total.

Do. Gohilvád ..	1	.....	.....	1
Total....	10	2	8	20

The increase of 2 occurred in the Court of the Assistant Political Agent, Jhálá vád.

7. The Chief Court of Criminal Justice in Káthiáwár presided over by the Judicial Assistant disposed of 19 Sessions cases in 1894-95 as compared with 29 in the previous year. The details have already been given in a separate return previously forwarded.

8. The result of the Criminal Revision work during the year under report shows that in 22 cases the proceedings of the Lower Courts were sent for. In 9 cases the convictions or orders were reversed and in 13 cases they were confirmed.

The subjoined table will show the Courts whose proceedings were sent for with the above result.

Civil Work.

9. The Court of the Political Agent presided over by the Judicial Assistant disposed of 156 appeals during the year under report as against 193 in the previous year, leaving a balance of 23 appeals as against 31 in the previous year. The number of appeals presented in the year under report was 148 or 4 more than in the year previous.

10. The Judicial Assistant also disposed of 11 miscellaneous civil appeals as against 20 in the previous year.

11. 60 political appeals were transferred to the Judicial Assistant for disposal during the year under report: of these 31 were disposed of by him directly, and with regard to the remaining 29 which were recalled by the Political Agent opinions were submitted.

12. The appendix A will show the number of suits and applications for execution of decrees and the manner in which they were disposed by the various Courts in the different Districts.

13. Comparing the figures of the Appendix with those of the same Appendix to the report of the previous year it will be seen that the numbers of suits filed and disposed of in the 31 Courts in the Province in the year under report were 3,453 and 3,496 respectively as against 3,224 and 3,372 in the previous year.

14. Increases in the number of suits instituted during the year under report occurred in the Jhálávád and Sorath Pránts. On the other hand there were decreases of 40 and 7 in the number of suits instituted in the Hálár and Gohilvád Pránts respectively.

15. Increase in the number of suits disposed of occurred in the Jhálávád, Sorath and Hálár Pránts but was largest in the Jhálávád Prant.

16. The number of suits on the file at the close of the year under report is more than the similar number in the year previous. It is worthy of note that the number of contested suits was 524 or 14·98 percentum of the total number of suits disposed of.

17. There is a heavy decrease of Rs. 2,91,178-10-$\frac{1}{2}$ in the value of the suits filed in the year under report as compared with the value of the suits filed in the previous year. The decrease extends to all the Pránts except that of Jhálávád where there is an increase of Rs. 25,733-14-2. The decreases occur in all three Pránts principally in the value of the suits filed in the Courts of the Assistant Political Agents.

18. The result of the Civil Revision work shows that out of 19 cases in which the proceedings were sent for, in 10 cases the orders were reversed and in 9 confirmed.

The subjoined table will show the Courts whose proceedings were sent for with the above result.

20. Do. Dedán Thána.

20. The reports of the results of my inspection of the records of the various Thána Courts have been from time to time submitted to you. These reports show a number of irregularities in procedure which should not occur in any Court which pretends to follow the Civil Procedure Code in the smallest degree; in spite of the fact that almost all the irregularities in question have been repeatedly pointed out to Thánadárs by my predecessor. I trust that the circular lately issued by you on this subject will produce the desired effect and that the Thánadárs will take care to follow in future the most patent requirements of the Civil Procedure Code.

21. Another subject which has engaged my attention during the course of my tour of inspection is as you are aware the comparatively small number of contested suits and the comparatively large number of suits amicably settled or withdrawn. The disparity is in my humble opinion partly due to the dilatoriness the majority of Thánadárs show in disposing of suits; adjournments for one reason or another are granted much too frequently, and any excuse frequently serves a Thánadár for postponing his civil work to a more convenient season. The class of suits which come before Thánadárs are generally such as should be, without difficulty, disposed of at the first hearing. I am aware that the difficulty of procuring the attendance of witnesses from foreign jurisdiction does hamper the speedy disposal of suits but the effects of this difficulty would in my opinion be greatly minimised if longer time were allowed for the service of the summons and greater care taken to indicate precisely the necessary particulars in the summons.

22. My Sarishtadár Mr. Dayáshankar was appointed Acting Head Clerk, Mahi Kántha Agency on the 13th March last, during the remainder of the year under report Mr. Pránjivan performed his duties. The work of all my Office establishment especially that of Mr. Dayáshankar has been highly satisfactory.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. W. A. WEIR,
Acting Judicial Assistant.

On the 10th April 1894 early morning at about 6 A. M. a band of 8 Báhirvatiás with Juma Gand at their head fell upon a marriage procession of about 70 men between Mánpur and Dhrumat near Jhalasari lake and robbed them of gold and silver ornaments while they were on their way to Pedhda from Dhrumat. The Police of Dhrangadhra under Mr. Souter met the gang wherein 4 men were killed and three wounded. They were guilty under Sections 395, 302 and 307, Indian Penal Code.	1 Juma Gand. 2 Háju Miána. 3 Vora Hassan. 4 Hemta Sámat. 5 Versang Koli. 6 Nánji Koli. 7 Umáji Jagtáji. 8 Vasia Ráibhán. They appear to have come from the side of Degám under Bajána.	Captured. Six of these eight were killed in a conflict with Mr. Souter and his Police while the latter were trying to capture them on the very day they committed this violent crime. One of the surviving two was acquitted in the course of trial while the other one was punished with rigorous imprisonment for a period of 14 years.	Very good.
On the 28th May at about 5. A. M. a gang of 5 men fell upon 2 Kolis of Rásangpur near Nágdásar lake at a distance of about 1½ miles from the Runn. They carried away all their property including a camel with saddlery. They were guilty under Section 396 Indian Penal Code.	1 Koli Rásang Hada. 2 Koli Jiva Gaju. 3 Lagdhir. They came from the side of Hematpar.	Captured by Tikar Tappa Fouzdár 4 days after the crime was committed but No. 1 acquitted in the course of trial by the Halvad Nyáyádhish Court, while there was no primâ facie evidence against the latter two to get their extradition from Cutch.	*This is the correct figure. Satisfactory.
At 6 P. M. on 26-4-94, one Harámkhor looted a Bania of Ambardi who was on his way from Sundar to Ambardi and thereby committed offence under Section 392 Indian Penal Code.	Not known	Not captured.....	No remark necessary.
On 31st May 1894 in the evening a Harámkhor fell upon one Koli Bhoda Bechar of Kántrodi in the Sim of Gadhda while he was proceeding with a message to Umerda, beat him with a stick, cut his nose and carried away his clothes and thereby committed offence under Section 392 Indian Penal Code.	1 Rajput Alu Bhávsing coming from Kántrodi side.	Captured after 4 days of the commission of the offence by Police Inspector and was sentenced by the Sessions Court to 7 years' rigorous imprisonment for this offence.	Good.

*Any difference in the figures shown here, as compared with those already given in the Traffic return for 1893 and in the Capital and revenue accounts for the second-half of that year, should be explained in a foot-note.

†If the figures in this column are less than those shown for the previous year, the reasons for the decrease should be explained in a foot-note.

‡ Should exclude the cost of machinery, but the distribution of the capital outlay between rolling-stock and machinery should be given in a foot-note. If it is not possible to allocate the charges separately, the fact should be stated in a foot-note. On lines where there is more than one gauge, the value of engines and of carriage and wagon stock of each gauge should be given separately.

§ The figures for the purposes of items 59 to 62 of the Traffic returns should be obtained by dividing the registered mileage of vehicles attached to passenger, goods, and mixed trains, respectively, by the train-mileage of each description of train.

*To be arrived at in the manner explained for items 79 and 115, respectively, of the Analysis of working—Government of India, Public Works Department, Circular No. V Railway of 1887.

†Any difference in the amount shown here as compared with that given in the annual return of Stores transactions furnished to the Director General of Railways under Government of India, Public Works Department, Circular No. VIII Railway of 1889, should be explained in a foot-Note.

‡The equivalent to be used in converting maunds to tons should be 27·22 maunds 1 ton. The figures in this column should be derived from the actual rates in force and not from their decimal equivalents in column "Per maund per mile."

§Any small proportion of coal used on wood-burning lines or of wood on coal-burning lines should be converted at the rate of 1 of coal to 2½ of wood, unless a nearer equivalent is known.

‖It should be stated whether the cost shown includes loss by exchange, and the amount per ton charged on this account should also be given in a foot-note.

¶Where nearer equivalents have not been determined by experiment, the co-efficients or multiplier given in the enclosure to Government of India, Public Works Department, Circular No. XVI, Railway, dated the 7th December 1894, should be used in converting the different descriptions of fuel into terms of Giridih (Kurhurbarree) best steam coal.

This should be the equivalent in terms of Giridih (Kurhurbaree) best steam coal of the total quantity entered against item 102.

No. 645 OF 1896.

FROM

COLONEL J. M. HUNTER,

Acting Political Agent, Káthiáwár.

To

THE HONOURABLE MR. H. BATTY, I.C.S.,

Acting Secretary to Government, Bombay.

KÁTHIÁWÁR POLITICAL AGENCY,

Rájkot, 27st July 1896.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to submit the Annual Report on the Administration of Káthiáwár for the year 1895-96 to which are appended the reports of—

(1) The President, Rájasthánik Court.

(2) The Judicial Assistant.

(3) The Administrator, Navánagar.

(4) The Administrator, Porbandar.

(5) The Assistant Political Agent, Mália.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. M. HUNTER, Colonel,

Acting Political Agent, Káthiáwár.

CHAPTER I—Political.

JHÁLÁVÁD PRÁNT.

Area 3,978·106 square miles; Population 4,28,906; Revenue Rs. 26,11,900.

Personnel.

1. Major J. S. Ashby continued to be in charge of the Pránt throughout the year. Ráo Bahádur Vithalrái Himatrám held the office of Deputy Assistant Political Agent.

DHRÁNGADHRA—1ST CLASS.

Area 1,156·5 square miles; Population 1,03,754; Revenue Rs. 6,50,000; Tribute Rs. 44,677.

Dhrángadhra: Want of cordiality in the relations between the Ráj Sáheb and the heir-apparent.

2. The health of His Highness the Ráj Sáheb who continues to take an active part in the administration of the State is much improved, but it is to be regretted that the relations between His Highness and the heir-apparent, his grandson Kumár Ajitsingji, continue as unsatisfactory as before and that the latter has not been entrusted with any share in the administration. In spite of want of fitting official occupation he continues to lead a quiet and active life and has so far resisted the temptations of idleness. He is somewhat in debt, incurred chiefly in building his new house, but he is reported to be steadily paying off his liabilities. Of the other sons of His Highness who were studying in the Rájkumár College, Kumár Sajansingji has left the College, while Natvarsingji who is still at the College is an athletic young man and is much improved by his residence at College.

Efficiency of the State Police.

3. The Assistant Political Agent inspected the State Foot and Mounted Police and reports them to have been kept up to a creditable pitch of smartness and efficiency under pensioned Risáldár-Major Rupsing, who, however, unfortunately died, at the latter end of March.

LIMBDI—2ND CLASS.

Area 343·96 square miles; Population 48,116; Revenue Rs. 2,59,918; Tribute Rs. 45,533.

Limbdi: Administration of the State. Advice from the Agency to replace the old Kárbhári by a more capable person.

4. There does not appear to be any change for the better in the administration of this State. The Thákor Sáheb still retains his superannuated and feeble Kárbhári Mr. Motilál in spite of the repeated advice of Government, the Political Agent and Pránt Officer to appoint a more vigorous and capable man. There seems to be no reason for keeping on this man except a disinclination to accept Agency advice. The consequence is that the administration generally is asleep and the several departments inefficient.

5. The District Officer reports that the working of the Judicial Courts still continues far from satisfactory. In his recent visit to Limbdi he found a prisoner lying under sentence of death passed by the Sessions Court on the 31st May 1895. Against this sentence he had appealed but the appeal remained undisposed of on the 8th March 1896. The appellate Court consists of the Thákor Sáheb, the Acting Kárbhári and the Náib Kárbhári; the latter is the Sessions Judge and sits in appeal in conjunction with the other two Members, on his own judgments.

Working of the Judicial Courts.

6. The disputes between this State and Pátdi, Gángad and Ahmedabad District which were disposed of by the commission presided over by Mr. F. Beaman I C. S. are still the subject of appeal by the opposite parties, and in the Gángad case Government have directed the status quo to be preserved pending the result of appeal by the latter Tálukdár.

Nal-Bávli dispute.

WADHWÁN—2ND CLASS.

Area 236·16 square miles; Population 42,280; Revenue Rs. 4,00,000; Tribute Rs. 28,691.

7. During the past year the Thákor Sáheb suffered severely from illness which nearly resulted in the loss of a leg but he has now completely recovered his health.

Wadhwán: Recovery of the Thákor Sáheb.

8. During the month of January a disturbance was made by the Audich Brahmins holding alienated lands in the State, owing to a dispute with the Darbár as to the manner in which the produce of their fields was to be weighed in the grain yard. The Brahmins refused in consequence to remove their cotton from the thrashing yard and made petitions to the Agency complaining of the action of the Darbár in this respect and of other ill-treatment by the State Officials. They have been advised to obey the orders of the Darbár and then to submit their complaints to the Pránt Officer.

Dispute with Audich Brahmins.

9. The financial position of the State has formed the subject of unfavourable comments in the local papers, but the Pránt Officer reports that affairs are not so bad as represented. A good Police Superintendent is required and the Thákor Sáheb is endeavouring through the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, to obtain the services of a competent European officer to carry out the much needed re-organization of the force.

Financial position of the State.

10. The State has obtained the services of Mr. T. R. Fernandez, late of the Gujarát survey, with a view to completing the Revenue survey before the end of the season and introducing a cash assessment, based upon a classification of the soil, by the end of the next official year.

Revenue Survey: Appointment of Mr. Fernandez.

LAKHTAR—3RD CLASS.

Area 247·43 square miles; Population 25,093; Revenue Rs. 75,325; Tribute Rs. 7,351.

Lakhtar; Departure of the Chief on a pilgrimage and appointment of a council for disposal of important works.

11. The Chief has proceeded on a long pilgrimage, leaving the immediate direction of affairs in the hands of the Kárbhári during his absence. For the disposal of all matters of importance a council has been appointed with the Thákor Sábeb of Limbdi as President and the Kárbhári as one of the Members.

Progress of the heir-apparent at the Rájkumár College and the entrance of the other Kumárs into the Anglo-Vernacular School, Rájkot.

12. The heir-apparent Kumár Shri Gagubha continues to make good progress at the Rájkumar College. The two younger Kunwars have been placed at the Rájkot State Anglo-Vernacular School. It is a matter for regret that they had not been entered at that excellent Institution, the Tálukdári Girasia School, where they can associate with boys of their own rank and where their moral and physical training is well looked after.

SAELA—3RD CLASS.

Area 222·1 square miles; Population 15,834; Revenue Rs. 98,000; Tribute Rs. 15,511.

Sáela; Liquidation of debt.

13. The Thákor Síheb reports that he has paid off not less than Rupees 40,000 of the debt against the State and has made arrangements whereby the former rate of interest will be reduced.

Sons of the Chief.

14. It is satisfactory to note that the cordial relations between the Thákor Sáheb and his sons are maintained. The heir-apparent Kumár Madársing is a particularly intelligent young man of quiet active habits, taking considerable interest in agriculture, cattle and horse-breeding. Two of the other Kumárs are entrusted with the supervision of some departments of the State while Kumár Merubha is serving as tutor and companion to his relative the minor Thákor Sáheb of Rájkot.

CHUDA—3RD CLASS.

Area 78·2 square Miles; Population 12,955; Revenue Rs. 92,000; Tribute Rs. 7,143.

Chuda: Administration of the State.

15. The affairs of the State are managed on the same lines as last year, and the Kárbhári Mr. Nágji Nathu appointed by the Thákor, with the consent of the Agency in March 1895, is reported to administer the State in an efficient manner.

Liquidation of the debt.

16. A sum of Rupees 31,240 was paid towards the liquidation of the debt from the surplus revenue. Application has been made to borrow a lump sum from the Muli State in order to collect the various debts but the sanction of Government has not yet been received.

17. The heir-apparent Kumár Mádhavsingji continues to lead a quiet though active life and is associated with the Kámdár in disposing of the cases of the Small Cause Court. The relations between him and his father are much improved and may now be said to be cordial. The Kumár's son has been lately entered at the Rájkumár College.

Relations between the Chief and the heir-apparent.

Bajána—4th Class.

Area 183·12 square miles; Population 15,958; Revenue Rs. 1,00,000; Tribute Rs. 8,037.

18. The old Chief of this petty Jat State has again changed his Kárbhári and Mr. Girdhardás, a nephew of the Diwán of Junágad, has been appointed. During the Pránt Officer's visit to Bajána an amicable settlement was entered into between the two Kunvars as to the disputed question of the mode of succession and amount of giras assignment to the younger Kunvar but the heir-apparent, Jivan Khánji, has subsequently repudiated the arrangement. The relations between the Chief and the heir-apparent therefore continue as unsatisfactory as before.

Bajána: Change of Kárbhári. Ill-feeling still continues between the Chief and his eldest son.

19. It is satisfactory to learn that the Chief has, at the suggestion of the Pránt Officer, re-organized all the departments of the State, by fixing suitable salaries for each official, introduced a budget system, established a State Treasury and reformed the Revenue Department.

Re-organization of Establishment.

20. This State has lately appointed as Superintendent of Police a man who formerly served in the Ahmedabad District Police as Head Constable, and the Pránt Officer was favourably impressed with the smart bearing and drill of the Foot Police, though there is much room for improvement in the Mounted Police.

Appointment of Police Superintendent.

Pátdi—4th Class.

Area 39·4 square miles; Population 4,438; Revenue Rs. 20,000; Tribute nil.

20*A* In consideration of the extent of this estate and the good administration of the present Chief the Government of India has sanctioned the elevation of this State to IV Class rank, which was formerly personal and temporary being made permanent.

Pátdi: Elevation of the Táluka to 4th class permanently.

21. The Bandh at Savda, though sanctioned by Government 3 years ago, has not yet been taken in hand by the Public Works Department, and considerable hardship is experienced in consequence by the cultivators and other inhabitants during the rainy Season. The Public Works authorities have lately been addressed with the view of remedying the inconvenience as early as possible.

Bandh at Savda not taken in hand.

SORATH PRANT.

Area 5217·16 square miles; Population 7,85,032; Revenue Rs. 50,08,810.

Personnel.

22. Captain G. E. Hyde-Cates was in charge of the Prant from the 1st April to the 9th December 1895, when he was relieved by Mr. L. Prendergast Walsh, who remained in charge up to the end of the year.

Ráo Bahádur Náthábhái Dájibhái Patel was Deputy Assistant Political Agent from the beginning of the year to the 19th August 1895, when he was relieved by Ráo Bahádur Bhimji Morárji, who remained in charge for the rest of the year.

JUNÁGAD—1ST CLASS.

Junágad: Changes in the Diwánship.

23. As mentioned in last year's report, the late Diván Mr. Haridás Viháridás retired from the service of the State in February 1895, and was succeeded by Mr. Shyámji Krishnawarma Pandit, Judicial Councillor at Udepur. This gentleman did not succeed in giving satisfaction to the Darbár and consequently in September 1895, his services were dispensed with by the Darbár and Sirdár Ráo Bahádur Behechardás Viháridás, brother of the late Mr. Haridás, was appointed to act as Diván and is still holding that office. Mr. Shyámji Krishnawarma has since applied to the Agency for reinstatement or for payment of the salary due for the period for which his services were engaged. The matter has been referred to Government for orders.

Reversion of Mr. Maconochie Alienation Settlement Officer to British service.

24. Mr. A. F. Maconochie, Alienation Settlement Officer took charge of his office on the 1st August 1895, but, under orders from Government reverted to British service in the month of March 1896, since when the post has been vacant.

The second Makráni outlawry.

25. The State has been again troubled by an outbreak of outlawry on the part of a few discontented Makránis. Fakir Mahmad Lashkarán, a nephew of the celebrated outlaw Kádarbax, who went out in 1894, had a grievance against the Darbár on account of some land and money, and in order to obtain more favourable terms from the Darbár, resorted to the expedient of concealing himself for a time. The Darbár opened negotiations through the man's mother, and offered to treat him more liberally but it was too late; Fakir Mahmad gathered together some of his relations and friends and attacked three villages on the 1st January 1896, and has since then plundered several villages at intervals. The State has spared no pains or expense to capture them and has shown that it is really anxious to suppress the outbreak; a few of the less notorious outlaws have been killed or captured. As it appeared that the band received shelter and assistance in the neighbouring villages of His Highness the Gáikwár, and that the Suba of Amreli rather hindered than assisted the Junágad Police in running down the outlaws, the matter was brought to the notice of the Agent Governor General through whose kind offices the Baroda Government transferred the Suba. The result has been that within a few days the ringleader of the band was killed by the Baroda Police, and another has surrendered to the Junágad authorities. It is now hoped that the outbreak will be completely suppressed in a short time.

Imperial Service Troops.

26. The Junágad Imperial Service Troop consists of 100 men some of whom have been useful in the operations against the outlaw band. The Inspector General Colonel Mellis inspected the corps on the 16th December 1895 and was satisfied with the efficiency displayed. The corps took part in the Camp of Exercise held at Deesa in January 1896, and gained the good opinion of the General Officers Commanding. It is to be regretted that Sáhebzáda Edalkhánji, who was attached to the 2nd Bombay Lancers at Poona for the purpose of acquiring Military knowledge, did not qualify himself for a commission in the corps.

Progress of the heir-apparent SherjumaKhánji at the Rájkumár College.

27. The heir-apparent Sáhebzáda Sherjumákhánji continues to study at the Rájkumár College and has been well reported upon by the Principal. He spent a part of the last summer vacation at Mahábleshwar with Mr. Waddington.

JAFARABAD—2ND CLASS.

Area 42·329 square miles; Population 12,389; Revenue Rs. 73,000; Tribute nil.

Jafarabad visit of the Naváb.

28. This Táluka belongs to the Naváb of Janjira, who resides at Murad, the capital of Janjira. He visited Jafarabad for the first time in January last.

Progress of the revenue survey.

29. The Revenue Survey is nearly completed and before the close of the fair season the whole operations under the Superintendent of Surveys will be completed.

JETPUR.

Area 733·8 square miles; Population 1,11,549; Revenue Rs. 8,80,000; Tribute Rs, 59,222.

Jetpur: Jurisdictional and non-jurisdictional Tálukdárs.

30. The Táluka is divided amongst 16 shareholders, one less than last year, owing to the estate of a deceased Tálukdár merging by inheritance in that of another. Of these, 15 are jurisdictional, and one non-jurisdictional.

The Jurisdictional Talukás are classed as follows:—

2 Third Class.

1. Wála Laxman Merám of Thána Devli.
2. Wála Surag Gánga of Jetpur.

1 Fourth Class Wálá Nája Kála of Bilkha.

4 Fifth.

8 Sixth.

15

The total number of villages in the Táluka is 146, of which 122 belong to jurisdictional Tálukdárs and 9 to non-jurisdictional and 15 are Majmu. The last 24 are under the control of the Táluka Court, which exercises 5th Class powers.

Táluka Court : Admission of Mulu Wála in place of his father as a member of the Court.

31. Of the three members of the Court, Wála Surag Gánga is very old and infirm, and, as his health did not permit him to perform the duties of his office, his son Mulu Wála has been allowed to act on his father's behalf, it being clearly understood that he is not a member of the Court but simply a substitute for his father. The Pránt Officer had to remonstrate with some of the members for non-attendance and to complain of the work of the Court having fallen in arrears. He now reports that there has been great improvement since Mulu Wála has been able to attend on his father's behalf.

Police administration.

32. The police is under the control of a European Police Superintendent Mr. Longley who is at present on leave, Mr. Lambert officiating for him. The Pránt Officer reports that the men are smart and serviceable and deprecates any reduction or alteration in the strength and constitution of the force.

Bantwa.

Area 221·8 square miles; Population 42,105; Revenue Rs. 5,00,000; Tribute Rs 29,642.

Bántwa Constitution.

33. Similar to Jetpur, Bántwa is also owned by several shareholders, as the family follows the custom of equal division between brothers. It consists of the following jurisdictional units.

1 Mánávadar, 3rd Class (under Agency management).
2 Gidad, 4th do. (personal) owned by two brothers.
3 Bántwa Branch, 5th do.
4 Do. Majmu (joint) 5th Class.

Mánávadar being under Agency management, particulars of its administration will be given in Chapter II. In Gidad there are constant disputes between Sáhmatkhánji who exercises the jurisdiction and his younger brother Anwarkhánji. The Pránt Officer visited Gidad last season and reports favourably of Sáhmatkhán's management of his own affairs. Anwarkhán's domestic affairs are also very unsatisfactory and the Agency has been compelled to intervene in the interest of those dependent on him. He has, since the close of the year, at the advice of the Pránt Officer, selected a trustworthy and experienced official to conduct the business of his estate.

There are dissensions also in what is called the Bántwa branch and the parties have resorted to litigation.

The joint property.

34. The Majmu estate is under a Nyáyádhish for jurisdictional purposes, appeals against his decisions lying to the Agency Courts.

HÁLÁR PRÁNT.

Area 7,476·24 square miles; Population 8,62,026 ; Revenue Rs. 70,17,967.

Personnel.

35. Major G. B. O'Donnell was in charge of this Pránt throughout the year. Ráo Bahádur Bhimji Morárji had charge of the office of Deputy Assistant Political Agent, Hálár Pránt, during the three months that Khán Bahádur Dádábhái Hormasji was on leave. The latter returned and resumed charge on the 5th June 1895.

NAVÁNAGAR—1ST CLASS.

Navánagar: Death of His Highness Sir Vibháji K.C.S.I., Jám Sáheb of Navánagar.

36. This State suffered a calamity in the beginning of the year by the death of its ruler His Highness Jám Sáheb Sir Vibháji, K.C.S.I., who was much beloved and esteemed by the people His Highness had reached the advanced age of 69 years and died after a short illness. Learning of the Jám Sáheb's serious indisposition the Pránt Officer, Major O'Donnell, had proceeded to Jámnagar and was present when His Highness died, on the evening of the 28th April 1895. He at once took charge of the State and made the necessary arrangements to secure the State property.

Formal installation of Jám Jasáji to the Gádi.

37. His Highness' elder son Kálubha having been disinherited, the younger son Jasáji was under the orders of Government installed on the Gádi with becoming ceremony by the Political Agent on the 9th May 1895. Jám Jasáji being a minor is studying in the Rájkumár College and Government have assumed the administration of the State.

Appointment of Lieut.-Colonel Kennedy as Administrator.

38. Major O'Donnell remained in charge of the State till the 31st July 1895 when he was relieved by Lieut.-Colonel Kennedy who had been appointed Administrator. Further particulars of the administration of the State is given under Chapter II.

MORVI—1ST CLASS.

Area 821·68 square miles; Population 1,05,516; Revenue Rs. 11,64,717; Tribute Rs. 61,559.

Morvi: Disagreement with the heir-apparent and visit of the Chief's 2nd son to England.

39. No noteworthy events occurred in the State during the year. The heir-apparent Kunvar Shri Jiáji alias Lagdhirji is living with his relative, the Thákor Sáheb of Pálitána, on account of disagreements between him and his father, which, it is to be regretted, have lately arisen. In June last, His Highness sent his younger son Ajitsingji to England for education.

Cutch-Morvi disputes.

40. Mr. Kennedy's commission to adjudicate the disputes between Cutch and Morvi still continues. In January last the Thákor Sáheb submitted a representation to Government with a petition from his Adhoi subjects to the effect that they were not willing to be put under Cutch. This Mahál and the Wawánia Bandar are still under the management of Government pending a settlement of these disputes.

41 Of the two disputes with Kumár Shri Harbhamji, brother to His Highness, the money claim has been investigated by the Judicial Assistant and Political Agent and a report submitted to Government for final orders. The Girás case has also been completed by the Judicial Assistant but his finding was received after the close of the year.

Dispute with the Chief's brother Kumár Shri Harbhamji.

GONDAL—1ST CLASS.

Area 1,024·65 square miles; Population 1,61,036; Revenue Rs. 15,58,441; Tribute Rs. 1,10,721.

42. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb lost his mother on the 2nd November 1895. She was a generous and accomplished lady and will be greatly missed. In the last week of December the heir-apparent Kunvar Shri Bhojrájji and his sister Kunvari Shri Bákunvarba who are being educated in England returned home for a short holiday. The former is to be entered at Eton at the beginning of next term.

Gondal: Death of the mother of the Chief and the return of the Thákor Sáheb's children for a short holiday.

43. The Gondal State has with the approval and sanction of Government advanced a sum of twenty lákhs of Rupees at 5 per cent. interest to the Jámnagar State for the construction of the Railway from Rájkot to Jámnagar.

Loan of 20 lacs to Jámnagar for the construction of Railway.

44. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb having decided to establish a boarding school for Girásiás at his capital town, for the education of the sons of Girásiás who cannot afford to send their sons to the Tálukdári Girásia School, Wadhwán. The foundation stone was at the Chief's request laid by the Political Agent Colonel Hancock on the 6th April 1895 and the construction of the building is progressing rapidly under the supervision of the State Engineer. Much credit is due to His Highness for this spontaneous undertaking, which is the first real effort that has been made by any native Chief in the Province suo motu to ameliorate the condition of the backward class of hereditary landholders.

Construction of the Girásia school.

DHROL—2ND CLASS.

Area 282·7 square miles; Population 27,002; Revenue Rs. 1,66,803; Tribute Rs. 10,231.

45. There is nothing special to record regarding this State. The Thákor Sáheb and his sons live in harmony and the work of the State occupies his attention as well as of his chief Kárbhári Mr. Mánekchand, who, the District Officer reports, is an able man and has always studied and worked for the best interests of the State.

Dhrol: The Chief and his sons.

VIRPUR—4TH CLASS.

Area 66·9 square miles; Population 7,306; Revenue Rs. 42,975; Tribute Rs. 4,114.

Virpur: Sons of the Chief and visit of Kumár Jethisingji to England.

46. One of the sons of the Chief of this State, Kunvar Jethisingji, having proceeded to England last July in the company of Kumár Shri Lakhubha of Jámnagar, with the object of prosecuting his studies, his police duties have been entrusted to another Kunvar Hamirsingji. The Chief desired to withdraw Kumár Rámsingji from the Rájkumár College but at the suggestion of the Principal he has allowed this Kumár to continue there for at least another year. The eldest Kunvar and heir-apparent has been working as Private Secretary to his father. All this bespeaks harmony in the family and the father is very sensible in associating the young Kumárs in the work of the administration.

KOTDA-SÁNGÁNI —4TH CLASS.

Area 74·4 square miles; Population 10,221; Revenue Rs. 1,15,526; Tribute Rs. 11,616.

Kotda-Sángáni: Installation of the Chief and withdrawal of Mr. Lambert's supervision over the Police.

47. The young Thákor Mulváji was, under Government orders, formally invested by the Pránt Officer with all the powers of a 4th Class Chief on the 7th April 1895. Mr. Lambert's supervision over the police was withdrawn in February 1896.

Change of Kárbhári.

48. The stipulation that the Thákor should not dismiss his Kárbhári Mr Umiashankar Jivanrám for 2 years was withdrawn by Government about the end of the year and the Thákor then accepted Mr. Umiáshankar's resignation and appointed Mr. Narmadáshankar Ládhábhái in his place. The latter is reported to have acquired a good reputation and the Pránt Officer is of opinion that he will do very well at Kotda.

GOHILVÁD PRÁNT.

Area 4,208·4 square miles; Population 6,75,375; Revenue Rs 49,42,462.

Personnel.

49. Captain H. D. Merewether was in charge of the Pránt from the beginning of the year up to the 21st January 1896, when he was relieved by Captain J. Davies who remained in charge until the end of the official year.

BHÁVNAGAR—1ST CLASS.

Bhávanagar: Death of His Highness Sir Takhtsingji, G. C. S. I. and formal installation of his son Kumár Bhávsingji.

50. During the year under report the State has prospered in every way but it suffered a great loss in the sudden death of the late Mahárája Sir Takhtsingji Jasvatsingji, G. C. S. I. L. L. D. He was a most enlightened ruler and had done much for the improvement of his State. He was an enthusiastic patron of education, he encouraged commerce, and towards charitable and useful institutions his liberality was unbounded. He has been succeeded by his elder son Kunvar Bhávsingji, who has received a sound education in the Rájkumar College and latterly under the guardianship of Mr. Fraser, I. C. S. Bhávsingji was installed with the customary ceremony by the Political Agent, Colonel, Hancock on the 10th February last.

The Council.

51. The personnel of the Council during the year remained the same as at the close of the previous year. Mr. R. Proctor Sims proceeded on leave to England on the 21st June and returned on the 21st November. During his absence the duties of P. W. Councillor, as well as those of the Bhávnagar member of the Railway Committee were performed by the Diwán and senior Councillor Mr. Vithaldás Sámaldás in addition to his own duties.

Progress of Kumár Shri Mangalsingji at the Rájkumár College.

52. Kunvar Shri Mangalsingji is still attending the Rájkumár College; his progress and general conduct are reported as satisfactory.

Imperial Service Troops.

53. The present strength of the Bhávnagar Imperial Lancers is reported to be 291, thus requiring 60 Sowars to complete the establishment. The regiment was inspected during the year by Colonel Melliss, C. S. I., Inspector General of Imperial Service Troops, who expressed his approval of the state of the regiment. Two Officers were sent to Meerut to attend the School of Musketry in October last and both obtained certificates. In December 6 Officers 24 non-commissioned Officers and 176 men proceeded to Deesa to take part in the manœuvres under Brigadier-General Hogg. At the conclusion of the manœuvres all ranks were specially praised by the General.

PÁLITÁNA.—2ND CLASS.

Area 289·88 square miles; Population 60,348; Revenue 4,75,000; Tribute 10,364.

Pálitana: Bestowal of the title of K.C.S.I. and dispute with Kumár Sámatsingji.

54. The Thákor Sáheb was created a K.C.S.I. He is fond of horses and has a well stocked stud. A workshop for the manufacture of carriages, harness, furniture, &c., has been established in January last. The unfriendly relations between the Thákor Sáheb and his brother Sámatsingji continue as before.

Dispute between the Chief and his Bháyát of Motisri.

55. The dispute between the Darbár and the Bháyáts of Motisri and Sándhkhákhra regarding the village of Wálukad and Khijadia is still under inquiry before Mr. Kennedy. There is another dispute with the Bháyáts regarding accounts of the revenue of certain villages attached by the Darbár in 1875 in payment of Darbár dues. The villages have been under the management of the Darbár for the last twenty years, but no settlement of accounts has been made in spite of constant solicitations of the Bháyáts. The matter has been submitted to Government on appeal against an order of the Rájasthánik Court.

VALA—3RD CLASS.

Area 109·3 square miles; Population 17,842; Revenue Rs. 1,50,000; Tribute Rs. 9,202.

Vala: Amicable settlement of dispute with Bhávnagar.

56. The principal event to be noted during the year under report is the amicable settlement of a long standing dispute between Bhávnagar and this State regarding the villages of Haldhar and Ratanpur. The Thákor visited Bhávnagar in June last and the late Mahárája and he came to a satisfactory arrangement regarding their respective claims.

Death of the Chief's wife.

57. In June last the wife of the Thákor died after giving birth to a Kunvar who survives her.

JASDAN—3RD CLASS.

Area 383 square miles; Population 35,057; Revenue Rs. 1,35,000; Tribute Rs. 10,993.

Jasdan: Disagreement between the Chief and his eldest son.

58. The relations between the old Chief, Khachar Ala Chela, and his eldest son Odha Khachar still continue to be unfriendly. The latter lives most part of the year at Rájkot and continues to agitate his grievances before the Agency, but as he is now given a maintenance allowance, though in his own opinion insufficient, there is no call for Agency interference.

LÁTHI—4TH CLASS.

Area 41·8 square miles; Population 8,350; Revenue Rs. 1,24,131; Tribute Rs. 2,007.

Láthi: Its administration.

59. The Prant Officer visited Láthi in March last and found everything working satisfactorily. The Thákor is reported to take a personal interest in the affairs of his State. On the occasion of his son's last birthday he established 4 scholarships amounting in all to Rs. 52-8-0 per month for the encouragement of promising pupils. His new Kárbhári appears to give satisfaction.

CHAPTER II.

JHÁLÁVÁD PRÁNT.

Wards and Managed Estates.

MULI—4TH CLASS.

Area 133·2 square miles; Population 16,726; Revenue Rs. 79,602; Tribute Rs. 9,354.

Muli: The Chief studies at the Rájkumár College.

60. The young Thákor continues his studies at the Rájkumár College and his younger brother at the Tálukdári-Girásia School. Both are reported favourably on.

61. The Committee appointed to examine and adjust the accounts of the State for the last 25 years had disposed of 15 years' accounts up to the year under report. The remaining work it is reported will probably take more than a year in consequence of the reduction lately effected in the original strength of establishment.

Examination of State accounts by a Committee.

62. The supervision of the State police has been transferred to Mr. Lambert, Superintendent of Police, Vánkáner and Rájkot.

Supervision of Police by Mr. Lambert.

63. The financial condition of the Táluka is flourishing there being a balance in hand of Rs. 1,79,619.

Financial condition of the Táluka.

64. The revenue of the State for the last year amounted to Rs. 79,602, and the expenditure to Rs. 74,215 besides an outlay on Public Works of Rs. 2,711. It is proposed to employ the large balance in a loan to the Chuda State at 5 per cent. interest and for which the sanction of the Government of India has been received since the close of the year.

Revenue and Finance.

Petty States.

65. The small estates of Dasáda and Jhinjhuváda are under Agency management. The various petty estates in Dasáda which were hitherto managed by separate officials subject to the orders of the Pránt Officer have, during the last year, been placed under one Manager, who will be able to devote his personal attention to them.

Petty Estates.

66. Jhinjhuváda affairs had fallen into great confusion. Though the estate is under Agency management for debt, the Civil Courts were passing decrees and issuing processes for their execution against the property of the encumbered Tálukdárs. This led to litigation and costly appeals and counter-appeals to Government. A full and detailed report of the circumstances of the Táluka was accordingly submitted to Government, and it has been eventually held that the processes of Civil Courts should be considered to be barred, but that in consideration of the special circumstances under which creditors lent their money during the period of management, their claims should be summarily enquired into and settled. A Committee has therefore been appointed for the purpose under the orders of the Pránt Officer.

Jhinjhuváda: General.

67. For the control of the numerous petty attachments, a General Manager has also been appointed with the approval of Government, and it is hoped that the efficient supervision which this Officer will be able to exercise over them will conduce to their better management.

Appointment of a General Manager.

SORATH PRÁNT.

PORBANDAR—1ST CLASS.

Area 636·5 square miles; Population 85,785; Revenue Rs. 6,50,000
Tribute Rs. 48,504.

Personnel.

68. The office of Administrator was held by Mr. W. T. Morison from 1st to 3rd April and from 7th November 1895 to 31st March 1896, Major J. W. Wray being in charge from 4th April to 6th November during Mr. Morison's absence on furlough.

Riot between the Hindus and the Mahomedans.

69. The year was unhappily marked by a serious riot, which took place between the Hindu Khárwás (boatmen) and Mussalmans of Porbandar town on the occasion of the Mohoram on the 4th July 1895. A body of Mussalman processionists while passing with their Tábuts through the Khárwa quarter of the town, were attacked by a crowd of Khárwás, and a general riot ensued, the number of casualties being 3 Mussalmans killed and 24 seriously injured and 5 Hindus seriously injured. Troops were sent from Rájkot to assist the State Police in restoring order, and a special Officer Mr. R. M. Kennedy was subsequently deputed to try the rioters. 31 Hindus were sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from 1 day to 4½ years. One Mussalman was sentenced to imprisonment for 2½ months. An extraordinary expenditure of Rupees 56,252 was incurred by the State in connectien with the riots and trials of the rioters.

Enquiries showed existence of ill-feeling.

70. The result of the judicial and subsequent enquiries seems to show that there existed at the time a long pent up ill-feeling between the two communities, which had become intensified by sympathy with religious riots occurring in other parts of India, and that the Hindus took advantage of a certain vagueness in the orders regulating the Mohoram procession, to attack the Mussalmans. The Administrator reports that the two communities are at present on fairly good terms, though no open reconciliation has yet been effected, and that an effort will be made during the monsoon, when all the Khárwás are at home, to arrange an amicable settlement.

Settlements of Mhers' disputes. Commutation of Chula Vero.

71. The final orders of Government sanctioning the scheme for commuting the Chula Vero and other cesses previously levied from the Mehrs into a small assessment on their lands were received in April 1895 and were carried out in the year under report. The result is reported to be most satisfactory. The land tax has been collected without the slightest difficulty and the Mehrs who, while the scheme was under discussion, seemed determined to oppose it in every way, now accept it gratefully as relieving them from the uncertainty and inequality of the previous cesses. The tax now falls solely on those who are able to pay. An additional gain, which the Mehrs highly appreciate, is that they now have an accurate register of their several holdings, which does much to prevent land disputes. As an act of grace and to mark the termination of the old dispute between the Mehrs and the Darbár all outstandings on account of Chula Vero due by the Mehrs were remitted on the 1st April 1896. The total amount remitted was Rs. 68,351. This graceful conclusion of these long and bitter disputes on the part of the Administrator was both generous and politic.

72. The year was marked by a great improvement in the trade of the port. Cotton was attracted to Porbandar by special concessions and facilities granted to all cotton brought by Railway from beyond a certain point. There is every indication that the progress which has now set in will continue. Considerable attention is being paid to the improvement of wharfs and the deepening of the creek and a large area was added by reclamation to the Bandar accommodation during the year.

Sea customs.

73. His Highness the Rána has enjoyed good health and continued his friendly relations with the Administrator throughout the year. He proceeded to Bombay in May 1895 and underwent an operation for cataract which has proved very successful. The continued improvement in Kumár Bhávsingji's conduct is a source of much gratification. He is always ready to act according to the Administrator's advice and seems determind not to relapse into his previous habits. The only cause for regret is his apparent disinclination to apply himself steadily to any sort of work. He is fond of all outdoor sports and takes an interest in the State paddock, of which he is in charge. Kumár Vajesingji who takes a share in the judicial administration of the State, suffered from a serious attack of pleurisy in March 1896, but has quite recovered now. He is engaged in doing magisterial work.

Health of the Rána.

74. The annual report of this State is a record of judicious management, steady and solid progress in the prosperity of the State and the well-being of the people.

Progress and prosperity of the State.

MÁNÁVADAR—3RD CLASS.

Area 90 square miles; Population 16,000; Revenue Rs. 2,87,298; Tribute Rs. 14,821.

75 Ráo Bahádur Pránjivan Vishwanáth was Manager of the State throughout the year and the Pránt Officer reports he was very satisfied with the able way in which he has carried on his duties.

Mánávadar: Personnel.

76. The State is owned by two shareholders, both of whom are minors. The elder is studying in the Rájkumár College and the younger will be admitted next December.

Shareholders of the State.

77. The financial condition of this State is very good, a sum of Rs. 5,98,300 having been already invested in Government Securities and a further sum of Rs. 1,50,000 will be invested during the current year. The revenue amounted to Rs. 2,87,298 and expenditure Rs. 1,50,974, Public Works costing Rs. 25,703 were constructed during the year.

Financial condition of the State

VADIA—5TH CLASS.

Area 72 square miles; Population 10,353; Revenue Rs. 1,29,853; Tribute Rs. 3,898.

Vadia: Return of the Chief from England.

78. The young Chief Báva Wála returned from his tour in Europe at the end of November 1895 and having attained majority was invested with the full powers of his State on the 12th December 1895. There was a balance of Rupees 1,32,000 in the State Treasury consisting of Rs. 79,500 in Government Securities and Rs. 42,500 in cash, when the State was handed over to him. Báva Wála is a promising and intelligent young man and promises to be a good administrator of his Táluka.

BILKHA—ESTATE OF DESA WÁLA—5TH CLASS.

Area 44·5 square miles; Population 4,886; Revenue Rs. 82,685; Tribute Rs. 2,976.

Bilkha: Estate of Desa Wála under management.

79. This estate has been under Agency management since the death of the late Tálukdár in 1892. The present Tálukdars are minors, aged 16 and 8 respectively, the elder of whom is studying in the Rájkumár College. It is proposed to enter the younger brother in the College in December next.

Revenue and Finance.

80. The total revenue collected was Rupees 82,865 and the expenditure Rupees 65,860. The estate has an invested balance of Rupees one lákh.

HÁLÁR PRÁNT.

NAVÁNAGAR—1ST CLASS.

Area 3,791·3 square miles; Population 3,79,611; Revenue Rs. 25,39,814; Tribute Rs. 1,20,093.

Navánagar: Death of His Highness the Jám Sáheb and the appointment of a British Officer as Administrator.

81. As stated in para. 36 of this report, His Highness the Jám Sáheb Sir Vibháji, K. C. S. I., died on the 28th April 1895, leaving two sons, the elder Kunvar Kálubha, aged 40, who had been disinherited for misconduct in 1877 and the younger Jaswatsingji who is still a minor. The latter was installed on the Gádi on the 9th May, but the administration of the State was assumed by Government—Lieut.-Colonel W. P. Kennedy was appointed Administrator, and took charge of the administration on the 31st July 1895. He found the conditions to be those of a very pronounced state of centralization of power, with a host of officials mostly with insufficient qualifications and with very inadequate pay, so far as the responsibility of their charges went, but who at the same time had not enough to do. There was no proper distribution of work and no proper checks. Almost everything and, certainly, the most important branches of administration were in the hands of one particular class. This state of things required thorough overhauling and infusion of new blood and the introduction of experienced men trained in a good school. The loan of Officers of the British Government was asked for to fill the higher posts of heads of the important Departments. The local talent, so to speak, was not equal to the occasion in some instances while in others it soon became evident that it was not malleable.

The re-organization was not completed even up to the end of the official year, and the period of 8 months has been one of transition from the old order to a new order of things.

Re-organization of the several Departments of the Administration.

82. The Judicial, Revenue and Customs Departments have been put on a sound and workable footing, with proper division of labour and responsibility. Veth or unpaid forced labour has been abolished. Whereas formerly carts and men could be impressed by State servants and taken to any distance without payment, there are now fixed rules as to rates and distances and every one has to pay.

Acts in force in the State.

83. The principles of the British Codes as embodied in local Acts are practically observed in the State. These local Acts were drafted with a view to suit local circumstances while cases not met by them are governed by the principles of British laws on the subject. It is therefore proposed to gradually overhaul these local Acts with a view to strengthening the weak points and clearing away ambiguity.

The Imperial Lancers.

84. The Imperial Lancers have now been brought up to 100 strong. The strength was only 75 when the administration came in, and, as it was pointed out by the Inspecting Officer that this number was too small to be of any real use in instruction, it was thought best to bring the strength up to a point which would render the squadron efficient. The squadron took part in the manœuvres held at Deesa in January last and acquitted itself very well, General Hogg writing in complimentary terms about the men but pointing out that the horses were too small. This defect has been, to some extent, remedied.

Revenue and Finance.

85. The revenue amounted to Rupees 25,39,814 and the expenditure to Rupees 21,47,058. The debts aggregate Rupees 8,87,535, but Colonel Kennedy hopes to liquidate the greater portion of it by the end of October next. The Gondal loan of 20 lákhs was taken for the special purpose of constructing the Jámnagar Railway under conditions approved by Government, which, under the altered condition of the State, appear hard to the Administrator, as the State cannot repay any portion for 15 years, during which it must go on paying interest at 5 per cent.

Wánkáner.—2nd Class.

Area 414·5 square miles; Population 39,329; Revenue Rs. 2,62,901; Tribute Rs. 18,879.

Vánkáner: The Manager.

86. Ráo Bahádur Ganpatráo Náráyan Laud was in charge of the State throughout the year. The relations of the Bái with the administration have been much more satisfactory than formerly, probably due to the new arrangement by which her private Kámdár is nominated and paid by the State.

Marriage of the Ráj Sáheb.

87. The marriage of the young Ráj Sáheb to the Sháhpura Kunvari was celebrated with much rejoicing and all befitting ceremonies on the 5th February 1896. The occasion of a large concourse of guests was taken advantage of to hold a horse and cattle

Show which was a distinct success. The young Ráj Sáheb has since informed the Pránt Officer that it is the desire of his bride to have an English lady for a companion and that he is very anxious to gratify her wish. The post has been offered to Miss Hammond, who was lately at Gondal.

Revenue and expenditure.

88. The revenue of the State last year amounted to Rs. 2,62,901 and the expenditure Rs. 2,76,963 inclusive of Public works costing Rs 26,931. The State has an invested balance of Rs. 2,95,700 in Government Securities.

Old outstandings.

89. The investigation into old outstandings was completed last year with the result that out of a total of Rs. 1,07,630, outstandings amounting to Rs. 56,336 were found to be irrecoverable and had to be written off. Arrangements have been made for the recovery of the remainder.

Revenue Survey.

90. The Revenue Survey has made satisfactory progress.

Technical school.

91. A technical school has been opened on a small scale in which drawing, carpentering and smith-work are being taught. It is too early to judge of its success but about 30 boys attend regularly for instruction.

Flourishing condition of the State.

92. Vánkáner continues to flourish under the careful management of Mr. Laud, whose heart is in his work and who takes great pains to add to the appearance and resources of the State and the well-being of the people.

Rájkot—2nd Class.

Area 282·14; square miles; Population 49,938; Revenue Rs. 3,61,302; Tribute Rs. 21,321.

Rájkot : Its Manager.

93. This is also another State which continues to show satisfactory progress under the careful management of Mr. Motichand Tulsi who has been in charge throughout the year.

Revenue and expenditure.

94. The revenue for the year amounted to Rupees 3,61,302 as against Rupees 3,35,975 in the previous year. The expenditure was Rupees 2,84,028 inclusive of Rupees 1,08,293 on account of public work. Besides this Rupees 49,995 was expended on the Lálpuri water-works which, it is hoped, will prove remunerative as well as useful. Mr. Booth reports that the chief difficulties are now ended and that the work is progressing rapidly towards completion.

The minor Chief and his brother's education.

95. The minor Thákor Sáheb is studying in the Rájkumár College where he has been joined by his younger brother Kumár Karansingji. Both live together and are excellent friends.

MÁLIA—4TH CLASS.

Area 102·8; square miles; Population 13,589; Revenue Rs. 1,15,354; Tribute Rs. 1,367.

Mália. Personnel.

96. Major G. B. O'Donnell was in charge of the State throughout the year and through his judicious management of the Miánás this troublesome tribe have been unusually quiet. The promptness with which an escaped prisoner and two robbers of Her Majesty's mail were apprehended shows that offenders cannot now count upon the assistance and sympathy they used to receive from their tribesmen Under the orders of Government Mália is not now a separate charge but added to that of the Assistant Political Agent, Hálár Pránt, with an allowance of Rupees 150 per mensem.

The Miánás.

97. The year was a remarkably peaceful one. In fact it was probably the first for many years that the Miánás have not maintained the unenviable notoriety that they have earned for themselves in the Province. Major O'Donnell writes:— "with careful handling for the next few years they will probably become as law abiding as any other community in the Province. But for some time to come there must be only one authority in the State and that authority must be in the hands of a European. The dual control that existed for several years the Thánadár having jurisdiction over the Miánás, while the Chief exercised authority over the rest of the population, did not work well, for it has come to my knowledge that the Chief was indifferent to the apprehension of offenders putting the blame of every crime on the Miánás, while certain Thánadars were not as active in bringing them to justice with a view to showing how peacefully they behaved under their control."

Employment of the Miánás in Sind on canal works.

98. An experiment in the management of this tribe was tried last year. As the hot weather advanced and means of livelihood at Mália became reduced, it was suggested that the Miánás should be employed on the Jamrao Canal in Sind, and ultimately 75 families went in three detachments. At first they seemed to be contented there but they afterwards became restless in consequence of suffering from the climate and gave trouble to the officers in charge of the works. An influential man was therefore sent to act as Mukádam of the gang. Things went on peaceably for a time but eventually they left the Jamrao works in a body and went over to the Kotri Rohri Railway works and have since given no trouble. A good many of them found employment on the Jámnagar Railway works, so that there has been no difficulty about their finding means of livelihood this year.

Financial condition of the State.

99. The year was a prosperous one financially. The receipts amounted to Rupees 1,15,354 and expenditure Rupees 91,338. A sum of Rupees 13,486 was paid towards liquidation of debts.

The deposed Chief.

100. The deposed Chief lives at Ahmedabad but is very anxious to be permitted to reside in Káthiáwár. His request has been submitted to Government for favourable consideration. The heir-apparent lives at Mália and his son has lately been entered in the Rájkumár College.

MENGNI—5TH CLASS.

Area 34·5 square miles; Population 4,415; Revenue Rs. 33,000; Tribute Rs. 3,412.

Megni: Amicable settlement between the Tálukdár and his son.

101. This Táluka has been under Agency management since 1884 for debt and mismanagement. The unsatisfactory condition of affairs was brought to notice by the heir-apparent Nársingji, since which time there were dissensions in the family. These were amicably settled through the friendly mediation of His Highness the Ráj Sáheb of Dhrángadhra and a petition was submitted to the Agency for restoring the State to the old Chief, but as the debts have not been fully paid up, the request was refused.

Death of the Chief.

102. The Tálukdár Mádhavsing died from a long established disorder on the 15th December last, and his elder son has been associated with the Manager. The debt now amounts to Rupees 16,161 which, it is hoped, will be paid off in the course of two years.

GOHILVÁD PRÁNT.

No important States under Management.

103. There are at present no States of importance under Agency management in this Pránt. The petty estates, to which the Encumbered Estates Rules have been applied or are under attachment on account of minority number 23, for the supervision of which together with those of the Jhálávád Pránt a General Manager on a salary of Rupees 200 has recently been appointed with the sanction of Government.

CHAPTER III—Protection.

COURSE OF LEGISLATION.

New rules sanctioned and brought into force.

104. The following regulations were sanctioned by Government and brought into force during the year:—

Revised rules of Extradition between Native States in Káthiáwár.

Ábkári rules (to take effect from 1st April 1896.)

Káthiáwár Agency Police Law, 1896, (to take effect from 1st October 1896.)

Rules under the consideration of Government.

105. Rules for the manufacture, sale, &c., of arms and ammunition in Káthiáwár are still under consideration. Government have suggested certain amendments in the draft Rules submitted by the States but the latter are reluctant to adopt them and the matter is thus in statu quo.

Police.

Strength and distribution of Police.

106. The strength and distribution of Police of the various States and the Agency (including the reserve at head-quarters but exclusive of the Railway and Village police) is given below:—

Divisions.	Total strength of Police.	Area in square miles.	Population.	Proportion of force to
				Area	Population
				1 to	1 to
Jhálávád	1,141	3,978·106	4,28,906	3·48	375
Sorath	1,758	5,217·16	7,85,032	2·96	446
Hálár	2,493	7,476·24	8,62,026	2·99	345
Gohilvád	2,671	4,208·4	6,76,440	1·57	253
Reserve at Rájkot	253	...	.....	.....	.....
Total.....	8,316	20,879·906	27,52,404	2·51	330

Comparison with previous year.

107. These figures when compared with those of the previous year show an increase in Jhálávád, Sorath and Gohilvád and a slight decrease in Hálár. The increase in Jhálávád is due to additions by Dhrángadhra and Lakhtar to the strength of their Police.

The increase in Sorath is comparatively large, and is chiefly due to the addition of forty men to the force in Porbandar, in the re-organization of its police, in accordance with Government Resolution No. 1634, dated 2nd March 1896. Jetpur also has added to its police.

In Gohilvád the increase is due to Bhávnagar, Jasdan and Láthi having made additions to their police.

Working of the State Police.

108. The following table shows the working of the State Police during the year 1895-96:—

States and Tálukás.	No. of accused arrested.	No. of accused convicted.	Percentage of convicted to accused arrested.	Amount of property stolen.	Amount of property recovered.	Percentage recovered.
Jhálávád	987	554	56·12	22,357 10 4	11,744 14 8	52·53
Sorath	2,141	1,187	55·36	65,383 7 1	21,989 4 3	33·6
Hálár	2,701	1,545	57·20	60,873 7 8	26,152 4 4	42·96
Gohilvád	1,319	813	61·63	22,435 11 6	13,218 5 4	58·91
Total.....	7,148	4,099	57·34	1,71,050 4 7	73,104 12 9	42·73

109. As compared with the previous year there is an increase in the percentage of convicted to accused arrested in Sorath, Hálár and Gohilvád Pránts while there is a slight decrease in Jhálávád. As regards the percentage of property recovered Jhálávád shows an increase while there is a falling off in the other Pránts. These variations are usual and require no special remarks.

Comparison with previous year.

Working of the Agency Police.

110. Turning to the Agency Police the results are as follows :—

Number of accused arrested	626
,, convicted	427
Percentage of convicted to accused arrested.....	68·21
Value of property stolen	39,080
,, ,, recovered	25,593
Percentage of recovery	65·48

Last year the percentage of persons convicted to those arrested was 53·14 and that of property recovered was 62·73. The percentage in both has improved.

111. 547 cases were reported to the police as compared with 561 of the previous year. The Superintendent of Agency Police reports that the decrease may be due to the fact that the Railway Police formerly inquired into and dealt with cognizable and non-cognizable crime indiscriminately, but this has now been stopped.

Cognizable crime.

Non-cognizable crime.

112. The number of non-cognizable cases during the year under report was 572 as against 573 during the previous year.

Statistics of both classes of crime.

113. The following statement shows details of both classes of crime in each of the Pránts :—

Pránts.	Area in square miles. (Thánás).	Population. (Thánás).	Years.	No. of cases reported.
				Cognizable.	Non-cognizable.	Total.
Jhálávád	1,116	1,05,569	1894-95	227	240	467

			1895-96	547	572	1,119

More serious offences.

114. The more serious offences were 436 as against 450 in the previous year:—

	1894-95	1895-96.
Murder	4	3
Attempt at murder	1	...
Culpable homicide	4	...
Grievous hurt	30	17
Kidnapping	5	3
Dacoities	2	2
Robberies	7	10
House-breaking	127	121
Thefts	255	265
Receiving stolen property	15	15
	450	436

Of these 47 were declared to be false complaints, leaving 389 as real cases reported to the police.

Dacoity.

115. There was practically immunity from organized dacoities in the Province until the end of December. In January 1896 four Makránis named in the margin, relatives of former Makráni outlaws, went out against Junágad and, being joined by other bad characters, committed several outrages. In January they attacked 10 villages and looted property of the value of Rupees 7,936 killing 2 persons and wounding 4. In Februay 5 villages were attacked and property of the value of Rupees 550 plundered, 4 persons killed and 1 wounded. In March the outlaws attacked 2 villages, carried off property of the value of Rupees 4,023, killed one and wounded two persons. Since April the outlaws have been inactive in consequence, it is believed, of the more efficient arrangements of the Junágad State for their capture or destruction and the co-operation of the Náib-Suba of Amreli under His Highness the Gáekwár. Of these outlaws Nathu Jahángir, the ringleader, has recently been killed by a body of Police under the above mentioned Náib-Suba. Others are hard pressed by the Junágad Police; it is hoped therefore that before long, the remnant of the gang will be accounted for.

1 Fakir Mahmud.
2 Alládád Jahángir.
3 Nathu Jahángir.
4 Kála Mandos.

The Mendarda outlaws Jhinia Maiya and Galia were killed by the Junágad "Gist" (police party) at Dháwa under Junágad.

Riots.

116. The trial of the Vasáwad rioters alluded to in the last years report ended in the acquittal of all the accused. Government expressed their regret that it had not been possible to establish the guilt of any of the persons by whom certain crimes of violence were undoubtedly committed.

A serious riot took place in Porbándar between the Hindus and Mussalmáns on the occasion of the Mohorram on 4th July 1895. The Hindu Khárvás who were the aggressors attacked the Tábuts when they were being carried in a procession to be immersed in the sea Troops had to be sent from Rájkot to quell the disturbance and to restore confidence in the minds of the people. Khárvás were proceeded against in the Magistrate's Court of whom 16 were discharged and 42 committed for trial by a special Criminal Court presided over by Mr. Kennedy, I. C. S., who convicted 31 to terms of imprisonment varying from 1 day to 4½ years.

7 Mussalmáns were placed before the Magistrate, of whom 2 were committed to the Sessions Judge who discharged one and sentenced the other to 2½ months' imprisonment. In connection with this riot and the trials the State was put to the total expenditure of Rupees 56,252. Everything however is now quiet, the bitterness is subsiding, and, through Mr Morison's firm and tactful management, it is hoped, a reconciliation will be effected before long.

Railway Police.

Police on the B.-G.-J.-P., J.-R. and Morvi Railways.

117. The strength and cost of the police on the B.-G.-J.-P., J.-R. and Morvi Railways were as follows:—

Railways.	Strength.	Cost.	Number of miles.	Cost per mile.
B.-G.-J.-P. & J.-R. Railway	84	11,441	380	30
Morvi Railway	18	2,274	94	24

Working of the Railway Police.

118. The following abstract shows the result of the working of the Railway Police:—

Railways.	Number of persons arrested.	Number of persons convicted.	Percentage.	Value of property stolen.	Value of property recovered.	percentage.
B.-G.-J.-P. & J.-R. Railways	54	32	60·37	3,265	1,827	55·95
Morvi Railway	6	5	83·33	149	88	59·06

Comparison with the previous year.

119. The percentage of property recovered has fallen as compared with that of the previous year. But the test of percentage of the recovery of stolen property is not a very reliable guide, as a large amount recovered in one case might raise the percentage.

Agency Courts.

Regular, Special and Temporary Courts of the Agency.

120 The Courts under the Agency may be classed under three groups, viz., regular, special and temporary.

Regular

1 Political Agent's Court (including that of the Judicial Assistant).

4 Assistant Political Agents' Courts.

4 Deputy Assistants' Courts.

15 Thánadárs' Courts.

1 Depuuty Thánadár.

Special.

1 Bántva Nyáyádhish.

1 Jhinjhuváda Kámdár.

1 Dedán Thánadar.

Temporary.

Courts of States under management.

The number of these last varies according as States come under, or are released from management either on account of indebtedness, minority or any other political reasons.

In 1895 riots having occurred at Vasávad through the judicial mal-administration of the Táluka, the jurisdiction has been temporarily assumed by the Agency and is now exercised by the Bagasra Thánadár.

121. The following abridged return will show at a glance the work, both original and appellate, performed by the regular Agency Courts :—

* This includes a large number of cases of claims against Encumbered Estates which were filed on the attachment of the estates.

122. It will be seen from the above that there is an increase in the number of original civil cases disposed of as compared with the number disposed of in the previous year, while a decrease is noticeable in the number of political cases and appeals. The number of cases outstanding at the end of the year was as follows as compared with the previous year :—

Civil cases filed and estimated value as compared with the previous year.

124. The number of civil suits filed during the year amounted to 3,899 of the estimated value of Rupees 7,19,236 against 3,453 of the estimated value of Rupees 6,57,145.

Number of Sessions cases.

125. The number of Sessions cases tried during the year by the Chief Court of Criminal Justice was 26 against 19 in the previous year. Out of these, 10 were of murder, 2 culpable homicide, 1 theft, and 13 others.

The Courts which committed the Sessions cases.

126. The following statement shows the number of Sessions cases committed by the different Courts and States and disposed of in the year 1895-96 as compared with the previous year;—

	1894-95.	1895-96.

127. Besides the 26 Sessions cases the Judicial Assistant disposed of 35 criminal and 88 civil appeals, 9 miscellaneous civil and 10 political appeals, total 142, against 239 in the previous year. This decrease may be attributed to the fact that the Judicial Assistant was absent during part of the year. The duties of his office were entrusted to a Pránt Officer in addition to those of the Pránt.

Criminal, civil and political appeals disposed of.

128. The result of the criminal revision work during the year shows that in 30 cases the proceedings of the lower Courts were sent for. In 7 cases the convictions or orders were reversed and in 23 cases they were confirmed.

Criminal and civil revision work.

The result of the civil revision work shows that out of 31 cases in which the proceedings were sent for, in 8 cases the orders were reversed and in 23 confirmed.

The Political Agent disposed of 10 civil revision applications against the decisions of the Porbandar Courts. In seven cases the proceedings of the lower Courts had been sent for, and in one case the decision of the Administrator was set aside.

129. The Judicial Assistant, this year, inspected the records of 4 Courts only as against 20 in the previous year. This is also due to the fact that Captain Hyde Cates was in charge of the Sorath Pránt in addition to his own work, as Acting Judicial Assistant, from 28th July 1895 to the 10th December 1895 and went on three months' leave on the 19th December. Mr. Pratt who held charge during that time was ill for a month, and being engaged with the Morvi Girás case, he was unable to inspect the District Courts

Inspection of records of Subordinate Courts.

130. The number of applications filed for execution of decrees was 4,051 against 3,758, of which 3,905 were disposed of. The number remaining undisposed of at the end of the year was 1,555 against 1,429 in the previous year. The attention of the Judicial Assistant will again be called to the necessity of reducing the arrears of work.

Applications for the execution of decrees.

131. The following statement shows that 409 documents aggregating in value Rupees 7,62,053 were registered during the year, as against 382 aggregating Rupees 6,06,912 last year. The total of fees realized were Rupees 1,266 against Rupees 5,293 in the previous year.

The number of outstanding cases at the end of the year was 5,308 as against 5,644 last year.

133. The following is a return showing the statistics of criminal trials held by the State Courts of Class I to VII including those under management :—

Criminal trials held by the State Courts.

Rájasthánik Court.

Personnel.

135. Colonel Hunter held the presidency of the Court during the whole of the year under review. From the 3rd September to 28th October he acted as Political Agent in addition to the duties of the Court.

Work done by the Court.

136. 149 regular cases were disposed of and 6,166 miscellaneous orders were passed against 310 cases and 6,061 miscellaneous orders last year. Last year the number of cases disposed of was swelled by the Muli Hak-Patrak cases. This year the number is somewhat less than the average in consequence of the Court having been closed for 3 weeks vacation, and of the President having to discharge the duties of the Political Agency in addition to his own.

The work of the Court during the year is thus summarized :—

New cases filed	88
Cases remanded by Government	35
Cases heard and disposed of	149
Balance on file.....	318

Applications to Government.

137. 74 applications for the exercise of extraordinary jurisdiction against the decisions of the Court were made to Government, against 50 during the previous year. Of the former, 19 were preferred by the Darbárs and 55 by the Girásiás, of which one was withdrawn. In all but 11 of these applications Government declined to interfere. One decision only was reversed. In 3 a review was ordered to be made and in 7 a fresh hearing was considered to be necessary.

Future of the Court.

138. In a despatch No. 76 (Political) dated 11th October 1894, Her Majesty's Secretary of State approved of the Bombay Government's decision to continue the Court for a further period of two years from 31st December 1893, but desired that as there appeared to be only one year's more work in the Court the States should be consulted with a view to replacing the Court by a less expensive machinery. Subsequently, however, fresh cases came in and in April 1895, there still remained a large number of cases undisposed of on the files of the Court and the States, besides expected cases. At the meeting of the States' Representatives in April 1895 to consider the recommedations of the Secretary of State certain Resolutions were passed postponing the consideration of the Secretary of State's proposals until the following December, and agreeing that the Court should continue on its present footing until the States had come to a final decision on certain conditions viz :—

(a) That the Court's jurisdiction should be restricted to States of the first four classes.

(b) That no further claims to status should be entertained.

These Resolutions were not considered satisfactory by the Government of India who ordered the re-assembling of the States with a view to a re-consideration of the question of the substitution of a new and less costly machinery for the present Court.

At this meeting the States unanimously expressed their disinclination to keep up the Court as a permanent Institution on any conditions but agreed to the Court continuing on its present footing until certain cases shall have been disposed of, after which it should cease to exist, provided that if these proposals are not accepted the Court shall be abolished from the end of the year 1895. These have been submitted for the orders of Government who have decided that the Court should not entertain Girás cases in Tálukás below the 4th Class, and that it should cease to exist on the 31st December 1897. In the meantime a tribunal is to be devised for the disposal of the cases now excluded from the jurisdiction of the Court.

Prisons.

139. The total number of prisons in the Province is 144, the same in the last year being 149.

Prisons.

140. The total expenditure on account of prisoners amounted to Rupees 1,20,385. The daily average of prisoners was 1,339 and and the average cost per prisoner Rupees 89·9 per annum.

Expenditure on account of Jails.

CHAPTER IV—Production and Distribution.

141. The rainfall this year was a little less than half of the amount registered last year, and it fell unseasonably being scanty at the beginning of the season. The early crops were consequently poor. The latter part of the monsoon however was favourable for the Páchtar (later) crops, especially cotton, the average out-turn of which was 10 to 14 annas in the Rupee.

Rainfall.

142. The staple crops are Juvári, Bájri, wheat, gram, pulse, cotton, oilseeds and sugar-cane. The Junágad and Gondal States continue to take interest in agricultural experiments.

Staple crops.

143. A new variety of cotton called "Agarai" has been sown in several villages of the Junágad State but the result has not yet been reported. Experiments were made in sowing rice in Chorvád under Junágad, and it is asserted that the crop produced equals the best kind of rice in Gujarát.

Exotic cotton and other agricultural experiments.

In Porbandar 1,580 Maunds of the best Broachi cotton seed were purchased and distributed among selected cultivators. Wherever the seed was sown in good deep soil the crop was good, but on the poor shallow soil the plants did not thrive.

144. The States which maintain gardens of any importance are Junágad, Bhávnagar, Dhráugadhra, Morvi and Gondal. The botanical garden at Gondal continues in a flourishing condition. Junágad, Bhávnagar and Porbandar possess and maintain cocoa-nut plantations on an extensive scale. In the former State the yield of cocoanuts is satisfactory, but in the latter the plantation is too young to show any appreciable return. Vánkáner also has a small plantation in which the trees first planted have begun to bear fruit.

Gardens.

145. As reported last year, there is nothing new to record of the forests in the province. The Forest Departments of Navánagar and Porbandar are managed by trained men, but it is not likely that anything larger than firewood and small timber will ever be produced.

Forest.

Junágad pays some attention to the conservancy of the Gir forest but not on any system or scientific principles. The whole Gir is let out for grazing purposes which is not favourable to the growth of the forest. Tree-planting, to a limited extent, has been carried on by Pálitána on the banks of Setrunja and in the Rájthali Hills. The majority of trees are mangoes, Jámbudás and Bábul.

146. The only factories which Káthiáwár can boast of are two Spinning and Weaving Mills worked by steam power one at Bhávnagar and the other at Morvi. There are many cotton ginning factories scattered about the Province. During the past year new factories were erected and opened at Porbandar and Vánkáner while a cotton press was started at Wadhwan.

Manufacture.

The Ginning factories at Dhrángadhra, Morvi and Dhoráji are reported to have done well. An oil mill, to be driven by steam, was in course of construction at Porbandar and another is proposed at Vánkáner.

147. A local horse and cattle Show was held at Vánkáner at the end of January 1896 on the occasion of the marriage of the young Ráj Sáheb.

Horse-breeding.

Certain States have undertaken to hold annual horse Shows in turn.

This year it fell to the turn of Junágad but that State excused itself on the ground that all the energies of the administration were concentrated in the operations against the outlaws. It is hoped that a Show will be held in March next. The State Kárbhári of Vánkáner devotes considerable attention to the breeding of horses. Six young horses suitable for army remounts were purchased from the Vánkáner paddock during the year, and Captains Brown and Morgan of the Civil Veterinary Department have noticed the success that has atten ded Ráo Bahádur Ganpatráo N. Laud's efforts to breed animals suitable for Army remounts.

The States of Junágad, Bhávnagar, Morvi, Gondal, Vánkáner, Pálitána and Jasdan also continue to maintain horse-breeding establishments, but they are on a small scale and though they afford interesting examples of breeding foreign horses with indegenous stock they do not settle the question whether horses can be profitably bred in Káthiáwár by private breeders, for the feeding is far more liberal than a petty landholder or Grásiás could afford.

Trade.

148. The following table contains statistics of the sea-borne trade of the Province excluding Baroda ports. They show an increase both in imports and exports.

Railways.

149. Four distinct Railway lines belonging to separate proprietors traverse the Province having 3 different gauges.

Railways.

B. B. and C. I. Railway (portion)	.....	5′ 6″	32 miles.
B. G. J. P.	do.	3′ 3½″	334 ,,
Jetalsar-Rájkot	do.	3′ 3½″	46 ,,
Morvi	do.	2′ 6″	94 ,,
	Total length.....		506 miles.

In addition to these the line from Rájkot to Jámnagar, the survey of which was completed last year, is now under construction, and both the earth-work and bridging are so far advanced that the line will, it is expected, be completed in a year. The sanction of Government to commence the work was received in May 1895; but owing to the death of His Highness the Jám Sáheb, Sir Vibháji, nothing could be done in starting operations for want of funds, but as soon as the agreement for the loan of 20 lakhs from Gondal was signed the work was started under the direction of the Manager and Engineer-in-Chief of the B.-G. J.-P. Railway.

150. The gross earnings of the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway amounted to Rupees 21,35,558 against Rupees 19,95,843 in the previous year and the expenditure was Rupees 12,36,892 against Rupees 11,43,356. The mileage result of earnings come to Rupees 108·16 gross or Rupees 45·51 net per mile against 100·95 and 45·11 respectively in the previous year. The divindend to the proprietary States was as follows :—

B.-G. J.-P. Railway.

		Net revenue.	percentage.
Bhávnagar	Rupees	5,50,577	7·75
Junágad	,,	4,573	·12
Gondal-Porbandar ...	,,	2,67,121	4·02
Jetalsar-Rájkot	,,	77,447	5·15

The Junagad dividend shows poor results but the large expenditure for the Ojat bridge from the revenue explains this, and, if it had not been for this charge the dividend would have been 2½ per cent.

As reported last year the Dhoráji Agreement, under which the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway is worked, terminated on 31st December 1894, but as the proprietary States were not prepared with a new scheme for future management, the period was first extended to 30th June 1895 and then to 31st December 1895.

Junágad and Gondal asked for separate management of their sections, but Government declined to entertain the proposal and intimated that the principle of combined management must be maintained to secure efficiency.

At a meeting of the Proprietors held on the 16th June 1896 it was agreed that the combined management should continue, but this belongs to the events of the current year; details will be noticed in the next year's report.

Jetalsar-Rájkot Rail way.

151. The working of the Jetalsar-Rájkot branch has been entrusted to the B.-G.-J,-P. Railway under a contract, the terms of which are that the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway proprietors should receive 45 per cent. of the gross earnings of the Jetalsar-Rákot Railway for working expenses (including telegraph charges and hire of Rolling Stock) and further a monthly payment of Rupees 200 for expenses incurred in maintaining the Railway (repairs, renewals, &c.) All jurisdictional charges are payable direct to Government by the Jetalsar-Rájkot Railway. The traffic on this line continues to develop. It is now earning over 5 per cent. on its capital and will probably yield a still higher return when the Morvi line is converted into metre guage.

Morvi Railway.

152. The gross earnings of the Morvi Railway amounted to Rupees 3,69,972 against Rupees 3,20,348 and the expenditure to Rupees 1,69,845 against Rupees 1,77,681 in the previous year, giving 71·11 gross or 38·48 net earnings per mile per week. The divindend comes to Rupees 8·34 on capital cost against 6·42 in the previous year.

It has been proposed to convert this Railway into metre gauge and to join it with the B.-G.-J.-P. and J.-R. Railways for the purposes of management. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb of Morvi has agreed to the conversion under certain conditions but is not at present willing to accede to the proposal of joint management. The matter is still under the consideration of Government.

Railway Volunteers.

153. The enrolled strength of the Railway Volunteers company was 71 against 72 in the previous year, of whom 70 have qualified as efficients, only 1 being non-efficient. The average attendance at drill was 12·85 showing a falling off from last year which is due to the absence of a few men at the annual camp of exercise.

Accidents.

154. There were no serious accidents on the B.-G -J.-P.- Railway. There were 5 cases of fatal accidents against 2 in the previous year; 4 cases of trains running through level crossing gates; 35 cases of vehicles derailed against 21 in the previous year; 2 cases of partial train derailments; 12 cases of engine failures and 5 cases of fire.

On the whole line the rainfall during the year was an ordinary one and caused no damage to works or banks.

The Morvi line was altogether free from serious accidents.

Amreli Railway.

155. As reported last year a branch Railway from Khijadia, a place on the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway to Dhári via Amreli under the Gaekwar government, was in contemplation by the Baroda Darbár but nothing has yet been decided.

Public Works.

Public Works undertaken by States.

156. The total amount spent by the Native States upon Public Works during the year amounted to Rupees ~~21,14,366~~ 23,23,899 against 22,34,966 in the previous year.

The figures of the first and Second Class States are given below:—

Junágad	2,77,365
Navánagar	1,16,386
Bhávnagar	5,77,592
Porbandar	1,78,653
Dhrángadhra	82,848
Morvi	2,75,115

Limbdi	19,268
Rájkot	1,87,779
Wadhwán	1,07,668
Jáfarábad	5,154
Total Rs...	21,14,330.

Works executed through the Agency.

157. The total amount spent during the year through the Agency Engineer on public works was Rupees 1,12,936 against Rupees 1,55,042 in the previous year. The most important public work in hand is the Lálpuri Irrigation and water supply project in the Rájkot State in which considerable progress has been made.

Telegraph Offices.

158. No new telegraph office was established during the year.

Post Offices.

159. There has been an increase of two Post Offices, 1 Village Postman, and 36 letter-boxes, while 1 Post Office, 4 Village Post men and 32 letter-boxes were reduced. There were two cases of mail robbery during the year. The 1st occurred in Bhávnagar territory while the mail was on its way from Songad to Pálitána. It occurred on 6th April 1895 and the property stolen amounted to Rs. 100. The culprits were arrested, prosecuted and convicted. The 2nd case occurred on 12th March 1896 between Khákhrechi and Mália. The perpetrators, two in number, were apprehended, tried and each sentenced to undergo 3 years' rigorous imprisonment. There was no loss of property as it was recovered.

CHAPTER V.

Tribute collections.

160. The following statement shows the demands, collections and outstanding balances of the tribute due to the British and Gáekwár governments and Junágad State for the year under report:—

From the above it will be seen that the total demand was Rupees 11,40,441-1-5 being Rupees 10,78,684-0-0 for the year of report, and Rupees 61,757-1-5 on account of former years. The realization amounted to Rupees 10,82,400-13-7, leaving Rupees 58,040-3-10 as outstanding balance at the close of the year. Of this Rupees 53,024-7-2 have since been recovered leaving a balance of Rupees 5,015-12-8 to be recovered.

Local Funds

Káthiáwár Consolidated Fund.

162. The account of the Consolidated Fund which forms an appendix to the report shows receipts of Rupees 1,41,870 and expenditure of Rupees 1,33,998 during the year as compared with Rupees 1,15,623 and Rupees 1,62,023 respectively for the previous year.

The increase in the receipts principally is due to recoveries on account of the new audit establishment made from the States concerned.

Stamp Labels.

163. The income from the Court-fee stamp labels has also improved having amounted to Rupees 39,093 as compared with Rupees 37,238 in the previous year.

States General Contribution and Endowment Fund.

164. The Annual Meeting of the Kárbháris was held on the 8th and 10th August 1894 when the Budget for 1895-96 was discussed. A copy of the budget was submitted to Government for information.

The following are the principal heads of expenditure which the Committee sanctioned from the Fund :—

CHAPTER VI.

Vital statistics and Medical Service.

Hospitals and Dispensaries.

165. The total number of Hospitals and Dispensaries in the Province during the year was 105 against 99 in the previous year, showing an increase of 6.

Of the total number, 25 were under the supervision of the Agency Surgeon. They are as follows:—

2 Civil Station Dispensaries.

8 Thánás. do.

15 Dispensaries in States under management.

Patients treated.

166. Excluding the West Hospital at Rájkot to which special reference will be made hereafter, the total number of patients was 7,03,894 against 6,76,017. The total cost was Rupees 2,74,624 against Rupees 2,41,208.

General health.

167. The public health generally was indifferent. Cholera made its appearance in most parts of the Province during the autumn and winter followed by fever, small-pox and measles.

West Hospital.

168. Surgeon-Lieut.-Colonel F. C. Barker, M. D., was in charge of the West Hospital from 1st April to 28th September 1895.

Surgeon-Captain W. E. Jennings acted from 29th September to 2nd November 1895 when he was relieved by Surgeon Lieut.-Colonel J. McCloghry who was in charge till the end of the year.

5,164 out-patients and 891 in-patients were treated during the year against 4,697 out-patients and 817 in-patients in the previous year. Assistant Surgeon Erachsha Sheriárji Bharucha, L.M.&.S., was transferred to Poona Medical School on the 5th June 1895, being relieved by Assistant Surgeon A. G. Hakim, L M.& S. who in his turn was succeeded by Assistant Surgeon J. E. Bocarro, L.M.&.S, on 7th July 1895.

Vaccination.

Vaccination.

169. As mentioned in the last year's report the States of Junágad, Navánagar and Bhávnagar now control their own Vaccination Departments while the vaccination operations in the rest of the Province are under the supervision of the Agency Surgeon. The total number of Vaccinators in Káthiáwár is now 53, the same as last year.

Of these, 25 are in the 3 States above mentioned, and 28 are under the Agency Surgeon.

The other 1st Class States of Porbandar, Morvi and Gondal have applied to be allowed to supervise and control their own Vaccination Departments and the matter is under consideration.

Statistics.

170. The general result of vaccine operations shows that 93,477 primary and 1,251 re-vaccinations were performed during the year, making a total of 94,728 against 93,106 in the previous year showing an increase of 1,622. The total cost was Rupees 31,850 against Rupees 26,953 in the previous year, showing an increase of Rupees 4,897.

171. Small-pox was reported in 69 villages against 22 in the previous year and the usual steps for preventing its spread were taken.

Small-pox.

CHAPTER VII—Education.

172. The Educational Institutions in the Agency number 1,311 with 79,535 scholars against 1,296 schools and 77,079 scholars last year. They are as follows:—

Educational Institutions.

1	Rájkumár College at Rájkot.
1	Tálukdári Girásia School.
1	Sámaldás College.
7	High Schools.
2	Training Colleges.
1	Industrial School.
38	Middle Schools for boys.
2	Do. do. for girls.
884	Primary Schools for boys.
85	Do. do. for girls.
13	Aided Schools.
276	Unrecognized Schools.
1,311

The total expenditure on public instruction was Rupees 7,70,406 against 6,00,755 in the previous year. This compares very favourably with the Native States in other parts of the Presidency. The increase is chiefly due to the expenditure on buildings incurred by some of the States, especially Junágad, which spent Rupees 1,25,050 this year.

As to physical education Mr. Turkhad, Educational Inspector, says:- "I am glad to be able to report that there are signs that the importance of this is being felt by the parents. The teachers are, I believe, beginning to realize the fact that children are able to do better class work when their bodies receive suitable exercise, and that the time spent in the play-ground is not time wasted. Many of the middle schools have established cricket clubs and I hope that in a short time I may be able to start cricket matches between the elevens of different schools."

173. In the 8 States to which the control of their schools has been entrusted, the Educational Department appears to be properly managed in Junagad, Bhávnagar, Porbandar, Vánkáner, Pálitána and Rájkot but Morvi and Wadhwan still continue to show a disposition to shirk their responsibilities in regard to proper and efficient management.

Rájkumár College.

174. Mr. Chester Macnaghten was in charge of the College up to the 10th February 1896, i.e., till his death, since when Mr. C. W. Waddington has filled the post of Principal. It is not necessary to dwell here upon the great services rendered to Káthiáwár by Mr. Macnaghten during the last 25 years that he held the post of Principal. His loss will be keenly felt for some time to come both in the College and the Province generally.

Personnel.

175. The number of Kumárs on the rolls shows a slight decrease, 11 having been withdrawn during the year, while 9 have joined the College. The number at the end of the year was 37 as agasnst 39 at the end of the previous year.

176. Kumárs Jaswatsingji of Navánagar, Vejaydevji of Dharampur, Fatehsingji of Chhota Udeypur and 6 others from Káthiáwár have joined the College during the year.

New admissions.

177. The annual examination was held in August last by the Educational Inspector, N. D., whose report to the Director of Public Instruction has been considered satisfactory both by the Director and by Government.

Annual Examination.

178. With regard to the work done in the classes and in the play-ground Mr. Waddington quotes from some notes prepared by the late Mr. Macnaghten for the annual distribution of prizes.

Prize distribution.

"I must now say some thing about the past year for which the prizes have been awarded. It has not been a remarkable year. It has, I suppose, been so far fortunate that it has had little history. It has also, I hope, been a year of quite respectable progress."

With regard to athletics Mr. Macnaghten remarks:—

"Narsingji of Rájpipla as I have said has commanded our forces on parade and in the cricket field, and in both respects has distinguished himself. With his brother Digvejaysingji and Dánsingji of Lákhanka Vijaysingji of Láthi he won the friendly tent-pegging competition with the Mayo College last February. In our Cricket Match on that occasion we were for the second time defeated, but, loyally supported by some of our 'old boys' we hope this year to try again."

The annual distribution of prizes was held on the 31st March 1896, when Colonel G. E. Hancock, the Acting Political Agent presided, and bade farewell to the College on his retirement.

General health.

179. The general health of the Kumárs was excellent as usual and this speaks well for the care and thought taken for the sanitary arrangement of the College.

Tálukdári Girásia School.

Tálukdári Girásia School.

Physical education.

181. The physical, moral and educational training of the boys is all that can be desired and reflects credit on all concerned

Examination.

182. The school was examined by Mr. Dorábji Edalji Gimi, acting Educational Inspector, Káthiáwár, who speaks very highly of the way in which the pupils are given moral and physical training.

Mr. Gimi remarks in the following terms:—"I was greatly pleased with the boys' English composition, especially in the first two classes. If their vocabulary is not large, they write correctly at least and are remarkably free from such bad mistakes in idiom and grammar as are found among the High School boys. The attention paid to physical training of the boys and their general discipline in the class room and out of it, are the most noticeable as the most creditable features, too, in the management of this Institution. I must confess I have seldom seen such excellent behaviour as I found among the pupils here, and my opportunities were not confined to the examination days."

CHAPTER VIII.—Archæological.

Archæological.

184. There is nothing new to report under this head.

CHAPTER IX.—Miscellaneous.

Printing Presses.

185. The number of printing presses shows an increase of 1 in the Civil Station, Rájkot, and a decrease of 1 at Junágad.

Newspapers and periodicals.

186. Two newspapers are published at Rájkot, viz. the Káthiáwár Times, and the Káthiáwár News. The former is a daily paper in English and the latter bi-weekly and bilingual.

Conclusion.

Acknowledgments to Officers.

187. The Political Agent is fully satisfied with the zeal and efficiency displayed by all the Assistants and by his Native subordinates. They have all heartily worked for the good of the Province and the general progress made testifies to their efficiency.

J. M. HUNTER, Colonel,
Acting Political Agent.

APPENDIX I.

No. 8 OF 1896-97.

From The PRESIDENT,
Rájasthánik Court, Káthiáwár.

To The POLITICAL AGENT,
Káthiáwár.

Camp Porbandar, 11th April 1896.

Sir,—I have the honour to submit the 23rd Annual Report on the working of the Rájasthánik Court during the past official year.

CHANGES IN THE PERSONNEL OF THE COURT.

President, Rájasthánik Court.

2. I held the presidency of the Court during the whole of the year under review and from the 3rd September to 28th October 1895 I acted as Political Agent in addition to the duties of the Court.

Superintendent of Girás Surveys.

Lieut.-Colonel Fenton superintended the survey operations during the year with the exception of 1 month and 21 days when he availed himself of privilege leave, and Mr. Hatch held charge of his office.

Members.

By Government Resolution No. 3571, dated 5th June 1895 Ázam Vandrávandás Vallabhdás was appointed a member of the Court for the Morvi State in place of Ázam Sámaldás Vallabhdás who resigned to accept a Kárbhárishíp in one of the Jetpur Tálukás.

Ázam Venishankar Gaorishankar, the member for Bhávnagar, who has been on the bench of the Court for 15 years and has discharged his duties with zeal and integrity, has intimated his desire to retire in consequence of failing health, and the Bhávnagar Darbár has been requested to furnish the names of two persons for submission to Government with a view to the selection of his successor.

WORKING OF THE COURT.

3. There were 344 cases pending at the end of the last official year. During the year 88 new cases were filed and 35 remanded by Government while 149 cases were settled leaving a balance of 318 at the end of the year under report.

4. The following is the detail of the above cases filed during the year—

Hak Patraks	35
Boundary disputes	59
Suits	4
Status cases	23
Miscellaneous complaints	2
	123

Cases disposed of—

Hak Patraks	43
Boundary disputes	60
Suits	6
Status cases	33
Miscellaneous complaints	7
	149

5. The number of cases settled is somewhat less than the average in consequence of the Court having been closed for 3 weeks vacation and of the President having to discharge the duties of the Political Agency in addition to his own.

6. Of the 318 cases now pending —

171 are Hak Patraks.
102 „ Boundary disputes.
16 „ Suits.
20 „ Status cases.
9 „ Miscellaneous complaints.

Of these 164 cases are in contributing States from Classes I to IV and the others in non-contributing States below that class.

7. Besides the above there are 78 cases now pending on the files of the States of the first 4 Classes, Hak Patraks to be given to recently declared Mulgirásiás whose lands will have to be surveyed, and disputes in the 31 villages now under measurement or awaiting survey, all of which will result in appeals to the Court.

8. 277 miscellaneous orders were passed by the President sitting with the Members against 396 last year, and 5,889 were passed by the President alone against 5,665 during the previous year.

9. 13 disputes on the files were settled amicably and 6 cases out of the Court against 1 and 7 respectively during the previous year.

Amicable settlements.

This increase in the amicable settlements in a satisfactory feature as showing an improvement in the relations between the Chiefs and their subordinate landholders.

10. 74 applications for the exercise of extraordinary jurisdiction against the decisions of this Court were made to Government against 59 during the previous year. Of the former 19 were preferred by the Darbárs and 55 by the Girásiás of which one was withdrawn. In all but 11 of these applications Government declined to interfere. One decision only was reversed. In 3 a review was ordered to be made, and in 7 a fresh hearing was considered necessary.

Appeals.

11. The report and usual statements of the survey operations for the quarter ending 31st December 1895, submitted by the Survey Superintendent are appended. These call for no special remark except that the percentage of idle days has been greatly reduced by Colonel Fenton's close supervision of the work, and the result of the tests is satisfactory The Bháyáti Courts of the States from I to IV have allowed the number of pending cases on their files to increase from 22 to 30, greater activity is being impressed upon them.

A fresh volume of the Court's decisions will be published shortly.

Future of the Court.

12. In a despatch No. 76 (Political) dated 11th October 1894, Her Majesty's Secretary of State approved of the Bombay Government's decision to continue the Court for a further period of 2 years from 31st December 1893 but desired that as there appeared to be only one year's more work in the Court the States should be consulted with a view to replacing the Court by a less expensive machinery. Subsequently however fresh cases came in, and, in April 1895, there still remained a large number of cases undisposed of on the files of the Court and the States, besides expected cases. At the meeting of the States' representatives in April 1895 to consider the recommendations of the Secretary of State certain Resolutions were passed postponing the consideration of the Secretary of States' proposals until the following December and agreeing that the Court should continue on its present footing until the States had come to a final decision, on certain conditions, viz.

(a) That the Court's jurisdiction should be restricted to States of the first four classes.

(b) That no further claims to status should be entertained.

These Resolutions were not considered satisfactory by the Government of India who ordered the reassembling of the States with a view to a reconsideration of the question of the substitution of a new and less costly machinery for the present Court.

At this meeting the States unanimously expressed their disinclination to keep up the Court as a permanent institution on any conditions but agreed to the Court continuing on its present footing until certain cases enumerated in the President's letter No. 142 dated 28th October 1895 shall have been disposed of, after which it should cease to exist, provided that if these proposals are not accepted the Court shall be abolished from the end of the year 1895. These have been submitted for the orders of Government which are now awaited.

13. It may be observed that the Court funds will be insufficient to meet the expected calls upon it after the end of the current month. As the States agreed in April 1895 to the Court continuing on its present footing until a final decision shall have been arrived at they may be reasonably called upon to resume their contributions towards the maintenance of the Court pending the final settlement of the questions connected with the Court's future existence.

14. I have again the pleasure to acknowledge the valuable assistance I have received from the native gentlemen constituting the Court who have upheld their character for care and strict impartiality in the investigation of the cases coming before them. The members of my establishment have also given me every satisfaction in the fulfilment of their duties.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant.

J. M. HUNTER, Lieut.-Colonel,
President, Rájasthánik Court.

APPENDIX II.

No. 87 of 1896.

From Captain G. E. Hyde Cates,
Acting Judicial Assistant, Káthiáwár.

To
The Political Agent,
Káthiáwár.

Rájkot, 30th May 1896.

Sir,—I have the honour to submit the Annual Report on the judicial work of the Province of Káthiáwár for the year 1895-96.

2. During the year under report the charge of the office was held by the following officers :—

J. W. A. Weir, Esquire, I. C. S., from 1st April 1895 to 27th July 1895.

Captain G. E. Hyde Cates from 28th July 1895 to 18th December 1895.

E. M. Pratt, Esquire, I. C. S., from 19th December to 24th March 1896.

Captain G. E. Hyde Cates from 25th March 1896 to 31st March 1896.

3. The subjoined table shows the result of the trials held by the various Magistrates in the different Prânts, the number of persons concerned and the percentage of convictions to the number of prisoners :—

Prânts.	No. of cases tried.	No. of prisoners tried.	No. of prisoners convicted.	Percentage of convictions.
Jhálávád Prânt	446	934	368	40·46
Sorath do.	187	342	92	26·90
Gohilvád do.	294	682	259	37·97
Hálár do.	179	333	112	33·63
Total....	1,106	2,291	831	36·27

A comparison of the above figures with those of the same table on the report of the previous year shows increase of 109 and 122 respectively in the numbers of cases tried and persons convicted. On the other hand there was a decrease of 72 in the number of persons tried in the year under report as compared with the figures of the previous year.

The total percentage of convictions has increased from 30·00 in the year previous to 36·27 in the year under report. There is a considerable decrease in the Sorath Prânt but on the other hand there is an improvement in the percentage of convictions in the Jhálávád, Gohilvád, and Hálár Prânts, especially Gohilvád.

4. 35 criminal appeals were disposed of during the year under report by the Criminal Court of the Political Agent presided over by the Judicial Assistant as shown in the subjoined table against 40 in the previous year :—

6. The Chief Court of Criminal Justice in Káthiáwár presided over by the Judicial Assistant disposed of 26 Sessions cases in 1895-96 as compared with 19 in the previous year.

The details have already been given in a separate return previously forwarded.

On account of the Vasávad riot case, which occupied a great deal of time of this Court viz., from the 24th May 1895 to the 12th of July 1895, as also on account of the political case between the Thákor Sáheb of Morvi and his brother Harbhamji the Court was unable to take in hand any civil appellate and other work during that period.

7. The result of the Criminal Revision work during the year under report shows that in 30 cases the proceedings of the Lower Courts were sent for. In 7 cases the convictions or orders were reversed and in 23 cases they were confirmed. The subjoined table will show the Courts whose proceedings were sent for with the above result :—

Civil Work.

8. The Court of the Political Agent presided over by the Judicial Assistant disposed of 88 appeals during the year under report as against 156 in the previous year, leaving a balance of 83 as against 23 in the previous year. The number of appeals presented in the year under report was 148.

The reason for so large a number of appeals remaining in arrears has been given in para. 7 of this report.

The Judicial Assistant also disposed of 9 miscellaneous appeals as against 11 in the previous year.

10. It will appear from the last year's statement furnished to the Political Agent, Káthiáwár, that 60 political appeals were transferred to the Judicial Assistant but it should be 78, out of which 60 were disposed of, leaving a balance of 18 in arrears at the end of the year. 9 political appeals were transferred during the year under report, making a total of 27, of which 10 have been disposed of, leaving 17 in arrears.

11. Appendix A will show the number of suits and applications for execution of decrees and the manner in which they were disposed of by the various Courts in the different Districts.

12. Comparing the figures of Appendix A with those of last year it will be seen that the number of suits filed and disposed of in the Courts in the Province in the year under report were 3,899 and 4,046 respectively as against 3,453 and 3,496 in the previous year.

13. The number of suits on the file at the close of the year under report is larger than in the year previous. The number of contested suits was 567 or 8·68 per cent of the total of suits disposed of against 524 or 14·98 per cent last year.

14. An increase in the number of suits instituted during the year under report occurred in all Prânts.

15. Increases in the number of suits disposed of occurred in all Prânts.

16. The result of the civil revision work shows that out of 31 cases in which proceedings were sent for. In 8 cases the orders were reversed and in 23 confirmed.

The subjoined table will show whose proceedings were sent for with the above result:—

17. The records of the following Subordinate Civil Courts were examined during the year under report:—

1. Court of Bántva Nyáyádhish.
2. Do. Mánávadar Manager.
3. Do. do. Nyáyádhish.
4. Do. of the Manager of Ázam Desa Bhima of Bilkha.

18. Last year the records of 20 Subordinate Courts were examined. The small number examined this year is due to the fact that Captain Hyde Cates was in charge of the Sorath Prânt in addition to his own work as Acting Judicial Assistant from 28th July 1895 to the 10th December 1895, and went on three months' leave on the 19th December. Mr. Pratt who held charge during that time was ill for a month and he also had the Morvi Girás case, and therefore could not move about.

19. Mr. Dayáshankar was Sarishtadar of the Judicial Assistant's Office from 1st April 1894 to 13th March 1895 and performed his duties satisfactorily. He was succeeded by Mr. Harishankar, who is an official of long standing and hard working and zealous.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

G. E. HYDE CATES, Captain,
Acting Judicial Assistant.

KÁTHIÁWÁR POLITICAL AGENCY,
Rájkot, 4th September 1897.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to submit the Annual Report on the Administration of Káthiáwár for the year 1896-97 to which are appended the reports of—

(1) The President, Rájasthánik Court.

(2) The Judicial Assistant.

(3) The Administrator, Navánagar.

(4) The Administrator, Porbandar.

(5) The Assistant Political Agent, Mália.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant.

J. M. HUNTER, Colonel,
Political Agent, Káthiáwár.

CHAPTER I—Political.

JHALAVAD PRANT.

Area 3,978·106 square miles ; Population 4,28,906 ; Revenue Rs. 27,56,100.

Personnel

1. Major Ashby was in charge of the Pránt from the beginning of the year till 11th May 1896 when he proceeded on 6 months' leave and Major O'Donnell assumed charge. Ráo Bahádur Vithalrái Himatrám Dave held the office of the Deputy Assistant Political Agent throughout the year.

DHRÁNGADHRA—1ST CLASS.

Area 1,156·5 square miles ; Population 1,03,754 ; Revenue Rs. 6,81,301 ; Tribute Rs. 44,677.

Dhrángadhra : Improvement in the health of His Highness.

2. The health of His Highness the Ráj Sáheb, who is now 60 years of age improved very much during the year under report and permitted him to take his usual active share in the administration of his State. I paid a visit to Dhrángadhra in the last cold season and was received with the courtesy and hospitality which His Highness delights in showing to his guests. The State however appeared to me to be backward when compared to other States of the same class in the Province, the high roads were in bad repair and public institutions and agriculture somewhat starved to provide funds for the costly additions to the palace. His Highness however has lately awakened to the advantage of bringing his estate into line with others of his rank.

His Highness' relations with his family.

3. Union and amity reign among the members of His Higness' large family except in regard to his grandson and heir Ajitsingji who, however, has been loyally following my advice and endeavouring to conciliate his grandfather, and it is hoped that the slight improvement in their relations may increase and become permanent. Kumár Ajitsingji continues to lead a steady quiet life in spite of his enforced idleness. It is however possible I may now be able to induce His Highness to give him some share in the administration. Kumár Natvarsingji, the youngest son of His Highness, continues his studies at the Rájkumár College. The other Kumárs live with the Ráj Sáheb who has been advised to place each of them in charge of the appanage assigned to them to afford them employment and an opportunity of learning the principles and economy of land administration

Proposal for metre gauge Railway from Dhrángadhra to Wadhwán Civil Station.

4. During my recent visit His Highness expressed his great desire to connect his capital with the metre gauge system of Káthiáwár by a branch railway to Wadhwán Civil Station and pressed me to obtain the sanction of Government to commence the work as early as possible in order to take advantage of a favourable market and to provide work for the labouring classes who were feeling the high prices of food grains. Government, however, were not able to accord sanction without a detailed survey and plans and estimates.

These have been completed and the plans submitted to Government in April last, and conditional sanction was received by telegram in May last, but His Highness did not consider it advisable to commence the work in Dhrángadhra subject to the possibility of the alignment being altered.

Efficiency of the State Police.

5. I inspected the armed police, mounted and foot, in which His Highness takes great interest and pride and was glad to find that the efficiency to which the force had been brought by Mr. Souter was being maintained.

Limbdi—2nd Class.

Area 343·96 square miles; Population 48,116; Revenue 2,83,533; Tribute 45,533.

Limbdi: Administration of the State.

6. Although the Thákor Saheb has not followed the advice of the Agency to appoint a more vigorous and efficient Kárbhári, he appears from the Pránt Officers report to have excercised a more careful personal supervision over all Departments of the State with the result that there has been a very marked and satisfactory improvement in their administration which has been particularly noticeable in the Judicial Department. It is hoped that the improvement will be permanent.

Nal-Bavli dispute.

7. The Gángad appeal in the Siál boundary dispute has been finally decided by Government in favour of Limbdi and Mr. Beaman's award will now be carried out.

Wadhwán—2nd Class.

Area 236·16 square miles; Population 42,280; Revenue 4,00,000; Tribute 28,691.

Wadhwan: The Thákor Sáheb had a relapse of illness but has now regained his former health.

8. The Thákor Sáheb administers his State with the help of his Chief Kárbhári Mr. Sámaldás Chhaganlál. He had a relapse of his illness about the beginning of the year and was in very indifferent health till last December; since when he has made steady progress and has nearly regained his former health.

Agitation of the Audich Bráhmins has subsided.

9. The agitation of the Audich Bráhmins of Wadhwán referred to in the last year's report has subsided. Their grievances were enquired into by the Pránt Officer who found that the Darbár was not trying to enforce any new levy or "hak" upon them but was only carrying out a long existing practice by which it protected its revenues against fraud. As the Darbár had entrusted the settlement of their complaints to a retired Survey Officer of Government of standing and experience, I had no hesitation in referring the Bráhmins to the Darbár, and no more has been heard of them since. It is satisfactory to learn that some of them have accepted the Darbár's proposals and others are expected to follow their example.

10. Mr. T. R. Fernandez, the Survey and Settlement Officer, whose services have been lent by Government, entered upon his duties in April 1896 and has completed the survey and classification. Rules for the settlement of alienated lands have been framed in the spirit of the British Indian Summary Settlement Act and the Rules at Rajpipla, Baroda, Junágad and Idar. The inquiry into titles under them will however occupy some time.

Completion of survey and classification by Mr. T. R. Fernandez.

Lakhtar.—3rd Class.

Area 247·43 square miles; Population 25,093; Revenue Rs. 75,325; Tribute Rs. 7,351.

11. The Thákor returned in March last from the long pilgrimage he undertook last year and resumed charge of his State which had been administered during his absence by the Kárbhári Mr. Maganlál under the direction of a Council presided over by the Thákor Sáheb of Limbdi.

Lakhtar : Return of the Chief from pligrimage.

12. The heir-apparent Kumár Shri Gagubha continues to work satisfactorily at the Rájkumár College, while the two younger Kumárs are being educated at the Anglo-Vernacular School at Rájkot with a view to their following a College career.

Progress of the heir-apparent at the Rájkumár College and the other Kumárs at the Anglo-Vernacular School at Rajkot.

Saela—3rd Class.

Area 222·1 square miles; Population 15,834; Revenue Rs. 1,00,000; Tribute Rs. 15,511.

13. The harmony and good feeling which reign among the Chief and his numerous sons is very creditable to all and affords an excellent and not unneeded example. The Thákor has wisely placed some of his sons in charge of Departments which they administer under the direct supervision of the Kárbhári.

Saela: Harmony and good feeling among the Chief and his numerous sons.

14. While the Gosal case was under the consideration of Government, the Mulgirásiás sold some land to the Darbár and executed a deed of sale which was acknowledged by them before the Pránt Officer a few days before the Resolution of Government confirming the decision of the Rájasthánik Court in their favour was published. Before the Rájasthánik Court, however, they repudiated the deed, alleging that the Thákor Sáheb had caused it to be executed fraudulently and in the absence of one of the shareholders, who was in Jail at the time. The Rájasthánik Court therefore held an enquiry into these allegations, but although they were not substantiated against the Thákor Sáheb, the deed was cancelled for other reasons. The action of the Darbár was suspicious and the episode did not redound to the credit of the Chief and his Kárbhári Mr. Umiáshankar Jivanrám.

Action of the Darbár in the Gosal case.

Chuda—3rd Class.

Area 78·2 square miles; Population 12,955; Revenue Rs. 1,00,000; Tribute Rs. 7,143.

Chuda: Loan of Rs. 1,55,000 from Muli.

15. The loan from Muli of Rs. 1,55,000 referred to in last year's report was sanctioned by the Government of India during the year and the Darbár has been able to reduce the interest it formerly paid and pay off its numerous and pressing creditors. The Kárbhári, Mr. Nágji Nathu, is reported by the Pránt Officer to have proved a thoroughly efficient Officer and has done justice to the interests of the State.

Association of heir-apparent Kumár Mádhavsingji in the revenue administration.

16. The heir-apparent Kumár Mádhavsingji has been associated with the head of the revenue administration and is reported to be working well. His relations with his father continue to be good.

Bajána—4th Class.

Area 183·12 square miles; Population 15,958; Revenue Rs. 1,00,000; Tribute Rs. 8,037.

Bajána: Unsatisfactory relations between the Chief and his eldest son.

17. The relations between the old Chief and his elder son and between his two sons are as unsatisfactory as before, and they are not likely to improve since the Chief and his younger son desire to effect an immediate partition of the State between the two brothers, while the elder son as heir-apparent is naturally averse to it.

Resignation of Kámdár Mr. Girdhardás.

18. In consequence of the friction which had for some time existed between the Chief and his Kámdár Mr. Girdhardás, the latter has resigned and another man appointed in his place.

Reforms in the Revenue Department.

19. The reforms in the Revenue Department have not yet made much progress, though they are reported to be working satisfactorily.

Pátdi—4th Class.

Area 39·4 Square miles; Population 4,438; Revenue Rs. 20,000; Tribute Rs. Nil.

Patdi: Status of 4th Class declared to be permanent status of the Táluka.

20. The status of the 4th Class, which was a personal distinction to the present Chief, has been declared to be the permanent status of the Táluka by the Government of India.

Heir-apparent allowed to leave the College.

21. The heir-apparent Dolatsingji has been allowed to leave the Rájkumár College where his progress and conduct were reported to be very satisfactory, as his father wished to associate him in the administration of the State, while he continues his studies under a private tutor in preparation for the Matriculation Examination.

Sad loss of Chandrasingji, brother of the Chief.

22. The Chief experienced a sad loss in the death of his brother Chandrasingji who had always afforded him valuable assistance in the administration of the Táluka.

Bundh at Sávda.

23. The Public Works Department is considering the question of the Bundh at Sávda, but the people of the village, Major O'Donnell reports, through a mistaken notion of what the proposed causeway is to be, hindered the work and the Chief has asked that the work may be postponed until the close of the rains, in order that the tank may be examined when it is full and the line of the Bundh or causeway may be decided on.

SORATH PRÁNT.

Area 5,217·16 square miles ; Population 7,85,032 ; Revenue Rs. 48,83,622.

Personnel.

24. Mr. L. P. Walsh, C.I.E., was in charge of the Pránt from the 1st April to 4th May 1896. Major G. E. Hyde-Cates relieved Mr. Walsh and remained in charge of the Pránt in addition to his duties as Judicial Assistant till the 29th May 1896. Ráo Bahádur Bhimji Morárji was in charge from 30th May to 22nd July 1896, when he was relieved by Lieutenant Pottinger who remained in charge till the end of the official year.

Ráo Bahádur Bhimji Morárji was Deputy Assistant Political Agent from the beginning of the year till 30th October 1896 when he was relieved by Ráo Bahádur Harilál Lalubhái Thakar.

JUNÁGAD—1ST CLASS

Area 3,283·7 square miles ; Population 4,84,190 ; Revenue Rs. 27,00,000 ; Tribute Rs. 65,604.

Junágad : Diván and Alienation Settlement Officer.

25. Sardár Ráo Bahádur Behechardás Viháridás continued to officiate as Diván throughout the year. Lieutenant-Colonel C. W. H Sealy assumed charge of his duties as Alienation Settlement Officer on 2nd March 1897.

Suppression of outlawry.

26. In April 1896 the Junágad Ghist (pursuing party) with the assistance of the Baroda Police Náib Suba Mr. Prágji Laxmidhar surprised some of the Makráni sympathisers of the outlaws in a Gáekwár village, killed two and captured a third and thus crippled the outlaws who from that day were unable to accomplish any further outrages. The Amreli Suba showed so much bias in favour of those men who were proved to have assisted the outlaws by the property found in their houses that I addressed the Agent Governor General, Baroda, through whose good offices the Suba was transferred. This measure at once produced the desired effect. Within a few days the ringleader of the outlaws was killed by the Baroda Police under Mr. Prágji ; and one of his accomplices, hunted on both sides of the frontier, was drowned while fleeing from his pursuers. The remaining two outlaws, deprived of their leaders, remained quiet until October when they surrendered to the Náib Diván Azam Purshotamrái Sundarji Zála and closed this chapter of Junágad outlawry. The action of His Highness the Gaekwar's Government and the assistance of his Police was officially acknowledged by Government and the Junágad Darbár granted liberal rewards to the Baroda Police which I trust will encourage others to imitate their example on future occasions. This rapid disruption of the outlaw band shows how effectually outlawry can be suppressed by loyal co-operation on the part of the police on both sides of border and will, I feel sure, prove a deterrent in future to disturbers of the peace.

Water-supply scheme and Ba-hau-din Arts College and Technical Institute.

27. The State has embarked on a costly scheme for supplying water to the town of Junágad at an estimated cost of nearly 7 lákhs of rupees. The water is to be brought from an elevated valley near the Girnár Hill where a tank is to be formed by damming up the valley. Thence the water is to be led to a service reservoir with filter beds, of which I laid the foundation stone on the 22nd March 1897 in the Uparkot, an old fortress above the town. The foundation stone of the Baháudin Arts College and Technical Institute was also laid at the same time. The funds for this building have been provided by private subscriptions to the amount of Rs. 80,000 to which the State proposes to add Rs. 1,00,000. The Pránt Officer, however, reports that the Darbár does not keep the district roads in proper repair.

Hospital for women at Rájkot.

28. His Highness the Nawáb Sáheb has very liberally undertaken to build a commodious Hospital for women at Rájkot. It was first anticipated that a handsome Dispensary could be built for Rs. 30,000 and His Highness offered that sum but when plans and estimates were prepared providing for all requirements according to the latest principles of sanitary science, the cost rose to more than Rs. 75,000 which, however, His Highness has very liberally agreed to provide. The building is being constructed by the Darbár's architect according to designs prepared by Mr. R. B. Booth, C. E., Agency Engineer, and will, it is hoped, be completed in the course of a month or two.

Imperial Service Troops.

29. The Junágad Imperial Service Troop consists of 100 men and is favourably reported on by the Deputy Assistant Adjutant General for Musketry. A detachment of this corps attended the Meerut Rifle Meeting and won the Hyderábád Cup. Ázammia Kamumia, an Amir of the State and Assistant Superintendent of Police, has been sent to Deesa for a course of instruction with a view to qualifying for a commission in the corps

Progress of heir-apparent Sherjumákhánji at the Rájkumár College.

30. Sáhebzáda Sherjumákhánji, who is still studying at the Rájkumár College, is reported by the Principal to be very intelligent and to have made good progress while his general conduct is thoroughly satisfactory.

JÁFÁRBÁD—2ND CLASS.

Area 42·329 square miles ; Population 12,389 ; Revenue Rs. 65,535 ; Tribute Rs. Nil.

Jáfrábád : Revenue Survey and Storm Signals.

31. This petty estate which is a dependency of Janjira is managed by a Mámlatdár on behalf of His Highness the Nawáb of Janjira. The revenue survey of the Táluka is almost completed. Arrangements have been made for telegraphing approaching storms from the Meteorological Department at Simla and storm signals will be hoisted at the Bandar.

JETPUR.

Area 733·8 square miles; Population 1,11,549; Revenue Rs. 8,80,000; Tribute Rs. 59,222.

Jetpur: Jurisdictional and non-jurisdictional Tálukdárs.

32. There are 16 shareholders in this Káthi principality, of whom 14 are jurisdictional and 2 non-jurisdictional. The total number of villages is 146, of which 122 belong to jurisdictional Tálukdárs and 9 to non-jurisdictional and 15 are joint. The jurisdiction in the last 24 is exercised by the Táluka Court consisting of 3 Members elected by the shareholders for life.

Taluka Court: Mulu Wála officiates for his father. Pavilion and Chemical laboratory.

33. One of the principal Talukdars Wála Surag Gánga, a 3rd Class Chief, being old and infirm, his son Mulu Wála officiates for him both in the administration of the estate and as Member of the Taluka Court. Wála Surag Gánga very liberally presented a pavilion which had been erected at a cost of about Rs 11,000 to Rajkot Civil Station for the promotion of games. Wála Laxman Merám has generously offered a sum of Rs. 10,000 towards the construction of a chemical laboratory to promote research into the medicinal properties of native herbs.

Police Administration.

34. Mr. Longley, the Superintendent of Police, has been unremitting in his exertions in improving the Police. The Tálukdárs demur at the expense of maintaining a European Superintendent of Police but where so many shareholders with conflicting interests are concerned, it is essential that the Police should be combined under the superintendence of one European Officer.

BÁNTWA.

Area 221·8 square miles; Population 42,105; Revenue 4,50,000; Tribute 29,642.

Bántwa Constitution.

35. This Táluka, the proprietors of which are a branch of the Junágad family is also, like Jetpur, divided among several shareholders, of which there are three prinicipal branches.—

1 Manavadar, 3rd Class (under Agency management).

2 Gidad, 4th Class (personal).

3 Bantwa 5th Class.

4 Bantwa (joint) 5th Class.

The joint portion is under the jurisdiction of a Nyáyádhish nominated by the s hareholders subject to the approval of the Agency.

The relations between the two brothers of the Gidad branch, Sháhmatkhán and Anwarkhán, are reported to be less strained. An experienced Agency official Mr. Asháram D. Shah has been appointed as Kárbhári to Anwarkhánji exercising the powers attaching to the estate under the supervision of the Pránt Officer. The estate is now much better looked after and the cause of many petty disputes between the brothers has been removed.

HÁLÁR PRÁNT.

Area 7,476·24 square miles ; Population 8,62,026 ; Revenue Rs. 62,66,836.

Personnel.

36. Major O'Donnell was in charge of the Pránt from the beginning of the year till 10th May 1896 when he was relieved by Captain Carnegy who has been in charge of the Pránt including that of the Mália Táluka up to the close of the year.

Khán Bahádur Dádábhái Hormasji was Deputy Assistant Political Agent till 25th May 1896 when he was transferred to Rájpipla. Ráo Bahádur Chamanráe Harráe has held the office since 21st July 1896 to the end of the year. During the interval the charge was temporarily held by other Officers.

MORVI—1ST CLASS.

Area 821·68 square miles ; Population 1,05,516 ; Revenue Rs. 11,91,066 ; Tribute Rs. 61,559

Morvi: His Highness at Nilgheris.

37. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb spent 3 months in the Nilgheris in the hot weather of 1896 for the sake of his health which had been unsatisfactory.

Reconcilition between the Thákor Sáheb and heir-apparent Kumár Shri Lakhdhirji.

38. A reconciliation was brought about between the Thákor Sáheb and his son and heir-apparent Kumár Shri Lakhdhirji who has been living in Morvi ever since, paying occasional visits to Pálitána to see his mother. His Highness has not yet settled a permanent maintenance on his son yet, but the matter is under discussion.

Cutch-Morvi disputes.

39. The enquiry into the disputes with Cutch by Mr. Kennedy's commission has now been closed and arguments in writing remain to be submitted which it is expected, will occupy about 6 months. The cost of the Commission's inquiry during the year is reported to have been Rs. 1,00,608 and the total cost is estimated upto date to approach 2 Lákhs of rupees. The Wawánia Bandar continues to be under British management pending the decision of these disputes.

Project for water-supply for irrigation and drinking purposes.

40. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb has inaugurated a project for bringing a supply of water to Morvi for irrigation and drinking purposes which is estimated to cost about 6 Lákhs. The work is being carried out under the direction of Mr. T. C. White.

GONDAL—1ST CLASS.

Gondal: Return of His Highness the Thákor Sáheb and Her Highness the Rani Sáheb to England.

41. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb and Her Highness the Ráni Sáheb returned from England in October 1896, where they had been to see the heir-apparent duly installed at Eton. But some six months after their arrival in Gondal they again returned to England owing to the illness of their eldest daughter at Edinburgh. The heir-apparent is reported to be doing well at Eton College while the younger Kumár Bhupatsingji is attending a public school in Edinburgh. The Diwan Mr. Bezanji conducted the administration of the State during the absence of His Highness under the general supervision of the Pránt Officer.

Completion of Girásia School building and consideration of scheme for water-supply—Relief works.

42. The handsome building to accommadate the Girásia School is now nearly completed. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb has under consideration a scheme for supplying the town of Gondal with water and has consulted Mr. Whiting, C. E., on the subject. The estimated cost of the scheme is about 3 Lákhs of rupees. A sum of Rs. 91,338 was sanctioned to provide relief works for the poorer classes of people who were affected by the prevailing high prices. His Highness also contributed Rs. 2,500, towards the Bombay branch of the Indian Famine Fund.

Administration.

43. The administration of the Gondal State is well organized and conducted on economical principles and I hear no complaints.

Dhrol—2nd Class.

Area 282·7 square miles ; Population 27,002 ; Revenue Rs. 1,57,432 ; Tribute Rs. 10,231.

Dhrol: Administration of the State.

44. The Thákor Sáheb who is ably assisted by his Kárbhári Mr. Mánekchand Tulshi takes a personal share in the administration of his State and made a tour in his Táluka to ascertain the condition of the villagers. It is satisfactory to find that he and his two sons live in perfect harmony.

Virpur—4th Class.

Area 66·9 square miles ; Population 7,306 ; Revenue Rs. 58,495 ; Tribute Rs. 4,114.

Virpur : Loan of Rs. 1,50,000 at 5 per cent. interest under Agency guarantee.

45. The Táluka being in debt to the extent of Rs. 1,50,000 the Thákor was permitted to combine all his debts in the hands of one creditor and borrow that sum at 5 per cent. under Agency guarantee thus reducing the annual rate of interest. The Thákor has already repaid the first instalment of Rs. 20,000 which leaves the debt on the Táluka at Rs. 1,30,000 at the end of the year.

Sons of the Chief.

46. This Chief also has very wisely employed his sons in the administration, and union and harmony prevail in the family. One of the sons Kumár Jethisingji is studying Veterinary Science in London and has already passed two examinations.

Kotda-Sángáni—4th Class.

Area 74·4 square miles ; Population 10,221 ; Revenue Rs. 1,28,722 ; Tribute Rs. 11,616.

Kotda Sangani: Administration of the Táluka.

47. The Pránt Officer visited this place in February last and found the records of the Táluka very satisfactory. He adds that though the young Thákor has only been in charge of his estate for 2 years, he has already done a great deal for it, having built a girls' school, added to the boys' school, and enlarged the dispensary. He is also about to build a Travellers' Bungalow while he has agreed to defray the whole cost of the feeder road connecting Ardoi with the Railway at Ribda. The young Chief has sporting tastes and his stables are managed on approved principles. Altogether he appears to be a very promising young ruler.

GOHILVAD PRANT.

Area 4,208·4 square miles ; Population 6,75,375; Revenue Rs. 55,99,543.

48. Captain J. Davies was in charge of the Pránt from the beginning of the year up to the 4th March 1897, when he was relieved by Major J. S. Ashby who remained in charge until the end of the official year. Ráo Bahádur Kaliánráe Dámodarráe held charge of the office of the Deputy Assistant throughout the year.

Personnel.

BHÁVNAGAR—1ST CLASS.

Area 2,860 square miles ; Population 4,67,282 ; Revenue Rs. 38,37,000; Tribute Rs. 1,54,449.

49. His Highness the Thákor Sáheb who succeeded his father in January 1896, has already shown adminstrative ability. He has overhauled the finances, reduced the expenses and introduced reforms in the Revenue Department. He made a long tour through most of the Districts of his State enquiring personally into the wants and complaints of his subjects. His Highness has also shown his wisdom in retaining the services of all the members of Council who held office under the late Mahárája. He appears to listen to counsel but follows no one's advice in particular, while he is industrious and conscientious in the discharge of his duties.

Bhavnagar : Administration of the State.

50. The statue of His Highness the late Mahárája Sir Takhtsingji, G.C.S I., L.L.D., was at the request of His Highness, unveiled by me in March last, when the love and esteem in which the late Sir Takhtsingji was held were markedly manifested. Thousands assembled to pay their tribute of respect to a prince whose life was devoted to his State and his subjects, and whose sterling qualities will long be held in affectionate remembrance by all who knew him.

Unveiling the statue of His Highness the late Mahárája Sir Takhtsingji, G. C. S. I., L.L.D.

51. The high prices of food grains appearing to cause a certain amount of distress among the labouring classes, His Highness ordered relief works to be opened and carried out in accordance with a Famine Code prepared on the lines of the British Code. The total cost of all the relief works is reported to be about 2 Lákhs of Rupees. Besides providing work for the able bodied labourers, His Highness arranged that those unable to work and children should be given cooked food gratis.

Opening of relief works for labouring classes.

52. His Highness did not remain content with looking after the wants of his own subjects but took the lead in raising funds for the sufferers by famine in other parts of India. He presided at a public meeting held at Bhávnagar for the purpose and himself made a very liberal donation of Rs. 10,000. The total amount of subscriptions came to Rs. 26,857.

Raising funds for the sufferers by famine in other parts of India.

53. The town of Bhávnagar was visited by a mild outbreak of plague but the Darbár officials proved themselves equal to the occasion and were very successful in stamping it out in concert with the leaders of the different sections of the inhabitants. A detailed account will be given in the Chapter on sanitation.

Plague at Bhávnagar.

54. His Highness, like his father, takes great interest in the Bhávnagar Imperial Service Lancers, who are a well set up and well mounted body of men, among whom the cousins of His Highness hold commissions. I inspected the troops on my visit to Bhávnagar and was much pleased with their smart appearance and drill. The large percentage of local Girásiás among the officers and in the ranks was specially satisfactory. Ráol Shri Dánsingji, a cadet of the State, is a very promising officer and has been lately promoted to the rank of Squadron Officer. He has had the honour of being selected as the representative of the Káthiáwar Imperial Service Troops at the Jubilee celebration in England.

Imperial Service Troops.

PÁLITÁNA—2ND CLASS.

Area 289·88 square miles; Population 60,848; Revenue Rs. 4,75,000; Tribute Rs. 10,364.

55. Under instructions from Government, a Darbár was held by me at Rájkot in December last at which I presented to the Thákor Sáheb of Pálitána the insignia of a K.C.S.I. conferred upon him by Her Majesty. The Darbár was largely attended by Chiefs and their Kárbháris, and in acknowledgment of the honour bestowed upon him, the Thákor Sáheb made a liberal donation of Rs. 20,000 to provide filter beds to the Victoria Jubilee Water-works at Rájkot. He also made large remissions of outstanding dues in his State.

Pálitána. Presentation of the Insignia of K.C.S.I. to the Thakor Sáheb, at a Darbár held at Rájkot.

56. Sir Mánsingji continues to conduct the administration of his State with the same ability and thoroughness as in former years. On my visit to Pálitána in March last the foundation-stone of another Dispensary called the Empress Dispensary in the town of Pálitána was laid by me at the request of the Thákor Sáheb, and its construction is in progress.

Administration of the State.

VALA—3RD CLASS.

Area 109·3 square miles ; Population 17,842 ; Revenue Rs. 1,50,000 ; Tribute Rs. 9,202.

57. The Pránt Officer reports that he was favourably impressed with the manner in which the Thákor had conducted the affairs of the State. Complaints were received from certain cultivators of Vala against over-exactions and evictions, but the Pránt Officer, on enquiry, found them to be groundless or exaggerated.

Vala. Its administration.

JASDAN—3RD CLASS.

Area 283 square miles ; Population 35,057 ; Revenue Rs. 1,15,000 ; Tribute Rs. 10,993.

Jasdan: Its administration.

58. The Chief Kháchar Ala Chela personally supervises the affairs of the State and is liberal in the encouragement of agriculture. The relations between the Chief and his eldest son still continue to be strained.

LÁTHI—4TH CLASS.

Area 41·8 square miles ; Population 8,350 ; Revenue Rs. 1,54,847 ; Tribute Rs. 2,007.

Láthi: Its administration.

59. The Pránt Officer reports that the young Thákor conducts the affairs of his little State satisfactorily and is introducing many improvements such as building a causeway over the bed of the river, constructing a large tank near the town and laying out pleasure grounds for the use of the public. He also takes much interest in education.

CHAPTER II.

Wards' and Managed States.

JHÁLÁVÁD PRÁNT.

MULI—4TH CLASS.

Area 133·2 square miles; Population 16,726; Revenue Rs. 87,365; Tribute Rs. 9,354.

Muli: The Chief studies at the Rájkumár College.

60. The young Thákor of Muli is reported to be making satisfactory progress at the Rájkumár College and his younger brother is doing well at the Tálukdári Girásia School, Wadhwán.

Revenue and Finance.

61 The revenue of the State amounted to Rs. 87,365 and the expenditure Rs. 82,911 including Rs. 19,170 on public works. The State has lent Rs 1,55,000 to Chuda with the sanction of Government at 5 per cent. interest.

Examination of State accounts by a Committee.

62. The Committee referred to in last year's report have adjusted accounts up to the Samvat year 1948 and it is hoped that their work will be completed by November next.

Police: Proposals for re-organization.

63. Proposals regarding the re-organization of the State Police were put forward by Mr. Lambert during the year but were allowed to stand over because it was not considered wise to reduce the Police force in any way when the State had to face the contingencies of scarcity or an outbreak of plague.

Petty Estates.

64. Jhinjhuváda—The total receipts were Rs. 67,944 and expenditure amounted to Rs. 61,895 and a sum of Rs. 7,504 was paid in liquidation of debt of individual shareholders. The enquiry into fresh claims against the encumbered Tálukdárs is approaching completion.

Jhinjhuváda. Revenue and Finance.

65. Dasáda—The estates of all the shareholders of Dasáda with the exception of one, are now under the supervision of one Manager which, it is hoped, will result in greater economy and efficiency.

Dasáda and other petty estates.

66. The majority of the petty estates were given out in farm during the year, as it was found to be a more satisfactory arrangement than placing several of them under one Japtidár. Few of them are in a position to support separate establishments for their individual management, and placing several under one moderately paid official has not been found to work satisfactorily. Adequate precautions have been taken to guard against the farmers rackrenting the estates or harassing the cultivators.

SORATH PRÁNT.

Porbandar—1st Class.

Area 636·5 square miles ; Population 85,785 ; Revenue Rs. 8,83,622 ; Tribute Rs. 48,504.

67. The Office of Administrator was held by Mr. Morison from the 1st April to the 31st July 1896. He has been succeeded by Mr. H. O. Quin from the 28th August, the Pránt Officer Lieutenant Pottinger having been in charge from 1st to 27th August.

Personnel.

68. The relations of the Administrator with His Highness the Rána were of a cordial character throughout the year. His Highness' health has remained good but he is suffering from defective eyesight. Kumár Bhávsinhji visited Rájkot in December 1896 to attend, on behalf of His Highness the Rána, the Darbár held by the Political Agent for the purpose of presenting to the Thákor Sáheb of Pálitána the insignia of K.C.S.I. Kumár Vajesinhji suffered from an attack of pleurisy but under the treatment of Dr. McCloghry he soon recovered. He discharges the duties of a 3rd Class Magistrate in Porbandar, taking up municipal and petty assault cases. He was put in charge of his Girás village Bápodar, of the annual revenue of Rs. 10,000, in October 1896, which he now manages himself with the help of a Kárkun.

His Highness the Rána and his grandsons.

69. The land revenue and sea-customs both suffered on account of the combined effects of scarcity and the prevalence of plague at Bombay and other parts of India. The land revenue amounted to Rs. 3,71,632 as against Rs. 5,41,111 in the previous year. While the receipts from sea-customs were Rs. 63,130 as against Rs, 91,234. The general balance was reduced from Rs. 15,28,022 to Rs. 14,93,141 at the end of the year.

Land Revenue and Sea customs.

70. The ill-feeling between the Hindu boat-men and Mussalmáns which broke out in a serious riot in 1895 has now almost completely died out, and the year has passed without any disturbance or event of importance. Mr. Quin reports that the police of the State are yet wanting in smartness and descipline and though, through the exertions of Mr. Lowe, the Superintendent of Police, considerable improvement has been effected, much more remains to be done before the State will be satisfied with its police force.

Ill-feeling between the Hindu Boat-men and Mussalmans has now completely died out.

71 The appeal filed by the Porbandar State against the decision of Mr. R. M. Kennedy in the Mangrol Jama case was decided by Government against Porbandar. As the decision of Government was final, the State has not taken any further action in the matter in accordance with my advice, as it would have been useless to spend money on any further litigation.

MÂNÁVADAR.— 3RD CLASS.

Area 90. square miles; Population 16,000; Revenue Rs. 3,05,651; Tribute. 14,821;

72. Ráo Bahádur Pránjivan Vishvanáth, who was Manager throughout the year, is reported by the Pránt Officer Mr. Pottinger to have performed his duties with ability. The minor Chief and his brother are studying in the Rájkumár College.

Manavadar: Personnel.

73. The financial condition of the State is very satisfactory, Rs 7½ Lákhs having been invested in Government Securities and a further saving of Rs. 75,000 being expected this year. Negotiations were completed during the year for the loan of seven lákhs at 4 per cent. interest to the Dhrángadhra State for the construction of a Railway in the latter State, and a draft agreement was submitted to Government for approval, which is still under consideration.

Financial condition of the State.

74. The revenue for the last year amounted to Rs. 3,05,651 and the expenditure which included an outlay of Rs 40,225 on public works was Rs. 1,70,760.

Revenue and Finance.

BILKHA—5TH CLASS.

Area 44·55 square miles: Population 4,886; Revenue 87,099.

75. The minor Tálukdárs are both studying in the Rájkumár College.

Bilkha: Minor Tálukdárs.

76. The total revenue collected was Rs. 87,099 as against Rs. 82,865 last year, against which the expenditure was Rs. 51,169 against Rs. 65,860 last year. The present invested balance is Rs. 75,000 to which a sum of Rs. 25,000 will be added during the current year.

Revenue and Finance.

BAGASRA.

77. Wála Harsur Laxman, a 5th Class Tálukdár, died in January last leaving a minor son, Wála Rám Harsur aged 5 years. His estate has therefore been taken under management, and the Kámdár of the late Chief Mr. Girdharlál Mádhavráe has been appointed Manager. The estate is indebted to the amount of Rs. 1,38,000. The revenue is estimated at Rs. 60,000 an d the expenditure Rs. 37,000, leaving a balance for the reduction of the debt.

Bagasra: Death of Wála Harsur Laxman, a 5th Class Tálukdár and management of his estate during the minority of his son.

HÁLÁR PRÁNT.

NAVÁNAGAR—1ST CLASS.

Area 3,791·3 square miles : Population 3,79,611 : Revenue 25,75,000 : Tribute 1,20,093.

78. The young Jám Sáheb Jaswatsinhji who entered his fifteenth year on the 4th September 1896, continues to make satisfactory progress in the Rájkumár College. He is naturally shrewd and of an enquiring turn of mind.

Navánagar: Progress of the young Jám Sáheb at the Rájkumár College.

79. Under the able administration of Colonel Kennedy, who was in charge of the State throughout the year, improvements are being effected in all branches of the administration. The total revenue amounted to Rs. 25,75,000 and the expenditure to Rs. 20,05,793. The miscellaneous debts of the State, amounting to Rs. 4,23,793 having been paid off during the year, the State is now free of all encumbrances, except the Gondal loan on account of the Railway and had a cash balance of Rs. 7,36,013 in hand at the close of the year. Colonel Kennedy reports that reforms have been introduced in the Revenue Department, which include the adoption of village and Táluka account forms similar to those in British districts, varied to suit the Bhágwatái system,

Revenue and Finance.

80. The revenue administration has been marked by a good crop, a favourable market, the introduction of Revenue forms and a close supervision of the collection. These circumstances combined have resulted in a considerable enhancement of the land revenue.

Revenue administration.

81. The reforms in the Judicial Department have had excellent results also. Although the number of cases coming before the Civil Courts has increased by 2,039, arrears have been reduced by nearly one half. A similar result is observable in the criminal justice administration.

Judicial administration.

82. The Jámnagar Railway was completed during the year and opened by the Political Agent for public traffic on the 8th April 1897. Although some details of construction still remain to be finished, the line is practically complete for working purposes and has been passed by the Government Inspector; and, so far, the traffic coming to the Railway is encouraging.

Opening of the Jámanagar Railway for traffic.

Bubonic plague.

83. The outbreak of the Bubonic plague in Bombay and latterly at Mándvi in Cutch imposed upon the State considerable expense in protecting itself and the other parts of the province from the spread of the disease. As the State is largely connected commercially with Bombay and Karáchi, the check to trade at these two important centres caused by the plague naturally affected the trade of the ports of the Jámnagar State.

Disputes with Baroda in connection with Bhimkata.

84. The old disputes with Baroda in connection with Bhimkata still continue. During the last touring season Colonel Kennedy took the opportunity to exchange visits with the Chief of Jasdan and established a better understanding between the two States on frontier questions.

The Imperial Service Lancers.

85. The sanctioned strength of the Jámnagar Imperial Service Lancers was 102, while the actual strength was 95. It has not been possible to make up the full complement for want of eligible recruits, the aim being to enlist subjects of the State. The Commanding Officer and 3 non-commissioned Officers were attached to the 5th Royal Irish Lancers at Mathra for instruction in equitation, and a team competed at the Meerat Rifle Meeting. The squadron maintains a satisfactory standard of efficiency under its Commander Jhála Shri Dádbha Muluji, a relative of the Jám Sáheb.

Prospect of the State in spite of plague and high prices of grain.

86. The increased prosperity of the State has been marked during the year, in spite of the effects of the Bubonic plague and the high prices ruling in the grain market, by the activity of building operations in the town of Jámnagar.

VÁNKÁNER—2ND CLASS.

Area 414·5 square miles ; Population 39,329 ; Revenue Rs. 3,13,914 ; Tribute Rs. 18,879.

Vánkáner: The Manager.

87. Ráo Bahádur Ganpatráo Náráyan Láud was in charge of the State throughout the year. The relations of the Manager with the Bái are reported to be more satisfactory. A young Lady, Miss Fielding, has been employed in the Zenána as lady companion to the wife of the young Ráj Sáheb on a salary of Rs. 150 rising to Rs. 200 per mensem. The Ráj Sáheb who is now in his 19th year is reported by the Principal of the Rájkumár College to be very attentive and hard working and to have made great progress.

Revenue and expenditure.

88. The financial condition of the State is satisfactory. The total revenue is reported to have been Rs. 3,13,914, while the total expenditure was Rs. 3,49,280. These include extraordinary items on account of the marriage of the Ráj Sáheb, Rs. 27,174 in the former and Rs. 74,261 in the latter, leaving net receipts and expenditure at Rs. 2,86,740 and Rs. 2,75,019 respectively.

The Revenue Survey.

89. The revenue survey is making satisfactory progress under the supervision of Mr. Hatch. Some irrigation works have also been taken in hand at an estimated cost of Rupees 25,000. In addition to these, the State spent Rs. 38,119 on other public works.

Industrial School.

90. The Industrial School is making fair progress and the attendance has increased from 32 to 69. It has begun to attract boys from other States. Arrangement has also been made to impart manual training in this School to such boys of the Vernacular and Anglo-Vernacular schools as may desire it for half a day on two days of the week. The experiment to combine thus technical and primary education will be watched with interest.

Able administration of R. B.Ganpatráo N. Laud.

91. Mr. Laud, the Manager of the State, has conducted the administration with his usual zeal and ability, and I fully endorse the opinion of the Pránt Officer that he has the interests of the State at heart and has done a great deal to develop its resources.

Rájkot—2nd Class.

Area 282·14 square miles ; Population 49,938 ; revenue Rs. 3,82,621 ; Tribute Rs. 21,321.

Rájkot: The Manager and progress of the Thákor Sáheb and his brother at the Rájkumár College.

92. Mr. Motichand Tulsi was in charge of the State throughout the year. The young Thákor Sáheb, Lákháji Ráj and his younger brother continue their studies in the Rájkumár College. Both live in the same room and are very friendly with each other and are most favourably reported on by the Principal.

Lálpuri Irrigation work.

93. The Lálpuri Irrigation works have rapidly progressed and it is hoped will be completed before the close of the current year. Rupees 1,42,602 were expended on this work during the year, making the total expenditure up to date of Rupees 2,77,155 against an estimate of Rupees 3,25,000. A further sum of Rupees 80,914 was spent on other public works in the State.

Revenue and expenditure.

94. The income of the State was Rs. 3,82,621 as against 3,61,302 in the previous year, and the Expenditure was 1,89,312 exclusive of public works outlay as specified above.

Satisfactory management of the State.

95. The Pránt Officer reports that Mr. Motichand has an excellent system of encouraging the cultivators to increase the produce of their land by means of prizes to those who show the largest outturn of grain in proportion to the area of land. By this system a keen competition takes place between cultivators to the common advantage of landlord and tenant, the land produces more grain whereby the Darbar and cultivator both gain.

Captain Carnegy, like his predecessors, testifies to the able manner in which the administration of the State has been conducted by Mr. Motichand. He is ever ready to act up to advice and always excercises a careful personal supervision over all Departments in the State.

Mália—4th Class.

Area 102·8 square miles; Population 13,589 ; Revenue Rs. 1,14,903 ; Tribute Rs. 1,367.

Mália: Personnel.

96. Major G. B. O'Donnell was in charge of the Mália State from 1st April to 10th May 1896, when he was relieved by Captain H. G. Carnegy.

97. The year has passed peacefully in Mália. The Miánás appear to be gradually learning that their true interest lies in keeping the law instead of breaking it. As long as they are employed, they give no trouble. Fortunately during the last year employment for numbers of them was found on the Jámnagar Railway and elsewhere. Captain Carnegy has endeavoured to impress upon the headmen of the Miánás the necessity of sending their sons to school, as the education of the younger generation of Miánás will tend to make them peaceful citizens.

The Miánás.

98. There were no Miánás in outlawry during the year, and the absence of lawlessness on the part of the Miánás is a good sign, but Captain Carnegy is of the same opinion as Major O'Donnell that for some time to come the Miánás must be controlled by a European Officer.

No Miánás were in outlawry.

99. The revenue for the year amounted to Rs. 1,14,903 and the expenditure was Rs. 1,01,507. Rs. 35,182 were paid towards the liquidation of the debt. An amicable settlement has been made with Cutch regarding the debt due to it, which has been approved by Government. The debts have been settled at Rs. 87,500 on which interest at $3\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. will run and an annual sum of Rs. 10,000 will be paid to the Cutch Darbár from the revenue of Katária and Mália.

Financial condition of the State.

MENGNI—5TH CLASS.

Area 34·5 Squars miles; Population 4,415; Revenue Rs. 30,164; Tribute Rs. 3,412.

100. This Táluka which was under Agency management since 1884 for debt and mismanagement of the late Tálukdár was handed over to the Tálukdár Narsingji Mádhavsingji under orders of Government as the debt on the Táluka has now been fully liquidated and as Nársingji appears to be well qualified to be entrusted with the management of his estate.

Mengni : Management handed over to Tálukdár Nársingji.

CAAPTER III—Protection.

COURSE OF LEGISLATION.

101. Revised rules for the attachment and management of encumbered estates were sanctioned by Government and brought into force during the year.

New rules sanctioned and brought into force.

102 Rules for the manufacture, possession, sale &c , of arms and ammunition in Káthiáwár are still under consideration. The representations of the States on the amendments suggested by Government in the draft rules have been submitted and orders of Government are awaited. The States demur to the rule which Government desire to introduce that the permits of one Darbár shall not run in the limits of another and urge that such a restriction is impracticable, unnecessary and will be very inconvenient, as the territories of the Káthiáwár States are so intermingled.

Rules under the consideration of Government.

Police.

Strength and distribution of police.

103. The strength and distribution of police of the various States and Agency (including the reserve at head-quarters but exclusive of the Railway and village police) is given below :—

Divisions.	Total strength of Police.	Area in square miles.	Population.	Proportion of force to Area 1 to	Proportion of force to Population 1 to
Jhálávád	1,067	3,978·106	4,28,906	3·72	401
Sorath	1,881	5,217·16	7,85,032	2·72	417
Hálár	2,481	7,476·24	8,62,026	3·01	347
Gohilvád	2,653	4,208·4	6,76,440	1·58	254
Reserve at Rájkot	299	...	.....	.....	.....
Total.....	8,381	20,879·906	27,52,404	2·49	328

Comparison with previous year.

104 This shows a slight increase in the strength of the police on the whole. There has been a decrease in Jhálávád, Hálár and Gohilvád Prants but this decrease is more than covered by increase in Sorath and in the reserve at head-quarters. Such variations are not unusual in a Province which includes many principalities and administrations where changes are made according to local requirements which vary from time to time.

Working of the State Police.

105. The following table shows the working of the State Police during the year 1896-97 :—

States and Tálukás.	No. of accused arrested.	No. of accused convicted.	Percentage of convicted to accused arrested.	Amount of property stolen.	Amount of property recovered.	Percentage recovered.
Jhálávád	984	559	56·80	40,816 3 7	12,661 15 3	31·01
Sorath	2,586	1,348	52·12	71,378 3 7	36.215 15 11	50·78
Hálár	3,182	1,545	58·89	78,850 11 0	46,385 11 11	58·83
Gohilvád	1,730	1,020	58·96	25,091 13 4	11,260 0 2	44·88
Total.....	8,482	4,472	56·54	2,16,136 15 6	1,06,523 11 3	49·28

106. The percentages of convicted to accused arrested during the year under report are very nearly the same as last year while the percentages of property recovered in Jhálávád and Gohilvád are marked by a considerable falling off and those of Sorath and Hálár show fair improvement. In Jhálávád the States of Dhrángadhra, Lakhtar and Chuda exhibit unsatisfactory results, especially Lakhtar, which can only boast of 7 per cent. of recoveries. The attention of the Darbár has been called to this by the Pránt Officer. In Gohilvád the falling off may be traced to the States of Bhávnagar, Jasdan and some of the small Talukás.

Comparison with previous year

107. Turning to the Agency Police the results are as follows :—

Working of the Agency Police

Number of accused arrested	809
,, ,, convicted	508
Percentage of convicted to accused arrested	62·79
Value of property stolen	28,179
,, ,, recovered	12,713
Percentage of recovery	45·11

The percentage of convictions is fairly satisfactory though it is a little less than last year when it was 68·21. The percentage of property recovered to property stolen has fallen from 65·48 last year to 45·11 for this year and now stands lower than it has done for several years.

108. 679 cases of cognizable offences were reported to the police as compared with 547 of the previous year. The Superintendent of Agency Police reports that the increase is, with a few exceptions, spread over the whole charge including the B.-G.-J.-P.-J.-R. and Morvi Railways, and ascribes it, to a certain extent, to the high prices which have prevailed throughout the greater part of the year, and also perhaps to a stricter registration of crime. The increase is observable in the more serious offences against person and property under the Penal Code such as dacoity, robbery &c. Of these, 108 were excluded, 185 remained undetected and 371 were found true on investigation, resulting in convictions in 308 cases; 15 were pending at the close of the year.

Cognizable crime.

109. The number of non-cognizable cases during the year under report was 508 as against 572 during the previous year, 1,069 persons were concerned in these cases, but only 196 were convicted.

Non-cognizable crime.

Statistics of both classes of crime.

110. The following statement shows details of both classes of crime in each of the Pránts :—

Pránts.	Area in square miles. (Thánás).	Population. (Thánás).	Years.	No. of cases reported.
				Cognizable.	Non-cognizable.	Total.

			1896-97	679	508	1,187

More serious offences.

111. The more serious offences amounted to 577 as against 436 in the previous year as detailed below :-

	1895-96.	1896-97.
Murders.....	3	4
Attempts at murder.....	0	2
Culpable homicide	0	6
Grievous hurt	17	17

Robberies.....	10	13
House-breakings	121	153
Thefts	265	353
Receiving stolen property	15	19
	436	577

Of these, 75 were declared to be false complaints leaving 502 as real cases reported to the police.

Dacoity.

112. The country has enjoyed immunity from organized dacoity during the year. The Makráni outlawry came to a close in October last. Out of the 4 Makráni outlaws Nathu Jahángir was killed in 1896 by a body of His Highness the Gáckwár's police as reported last year. Fakir Mahomed was found drowned in a river in the Junágad Gir in August, and two months later the remaining two outlaws Aládád Jahángir and Kála Mandos surrendered to the Junágad Darbár. The Junágad police under the direction of Mr. Parshotamráe Sundarji Jhála, the Náib Diván, and Jemádár Sulemán succeeded in suppressing the Makráni outlawry with the help and co-operation of the Baroda Police under Mr. Prágji Laxmidhar to the great relief of the Darbár and neighbouring States.

Riots.

113. No riots occurred in the province during the whole of the year under report. The hostile feeling between the Hindu boatmen and Mussalmáns of Porbandar has to a great extent subsided.

Railway Police.

Police on the B.-G.-J.-P., J.-R., and Morvi Railways.

114. The strength and cost of the Police on the B.-G.-J.-P., J.-R., and Morvi Railways were as follows:—

Railways.	Strength.	Cost.	Number of miles.	Cost per mile.
B.-G.-J.-P. & J.-R. Railways ...	82	19,518	380	51·36

Working of the Railway Police.

115. The following abstract shows the result of the working of the Railway Police :—

Railways.	Number of persons arrested.	Number of persons convicted.	Percentage.	Value of property stolen.	Value of property recovered.	percentage.
B.-G.-J.-P. & J.-R. Railways	69	40	62·5	3,055	1,994	65·27

Comparison with the previous year.

116. As compared with the previous year there is a very considerable falling off in the percentage of the recovery of stolen property on the Morvi Railway.

Agency Courts.

Regular, Special and Temporary Courts of the Agency.

117. The Courts under the Agency may be classed under three groups, viz., regular, special and temporary.

Regular.

1. Political Agent's Court (including that of the Judicial Assistant.)
4. Assistant Political Agents' Courts.
4. Deputy Assistants' Courts.
15. Thánadárs' Courts.
1. Deputy Thánadár.

Special.

1. Bántwa Nyáyádhish.
1. Jhinjhuváda Kámdár.
1. Dedán Thánadár.

Temporary.

Courts of States under management.

The number of these last varies as States come under, or are released from management either on account of indebtedness, minority or other political reasons. The jurisdiction over the Vasávad Táluka continues to be exercised by the Bagasra Thánadár in accordance with Government orders.

Work performed by the regular Agency Courts.

118. The following abridged return will show at a glance the work, both original and appellate, performed by the regular Agency Courts :—

Decrease in the number of cases disposed of.

119. This shows a decrease in the original civil and political cases disposed of as also in miscellaneous cases, and an increase in the civil appeals. The number of cases outstanding at the end of the year was as follows as compared with the previous year :—

	1895-96.	1896-97.
Original civil cases	414	473
Civil Appeals	83	59
Political	24	32

The officers concerned will be enjoined to dispose of the outstanding cases without delay.

Comparative return.

120. Subjoined is a return required by Government of civil, political and criminal cases disposed of by the Agency Courts during the past 10 years

Civil cases filed and estimated value as compared with the previous year.

121. The total number of civil suits filed during the year amounted to 3,597 of the estimated value of Rs. 5,89,717 against 3,899 of the estimated value of Rs. 7,19,236 last year.

Scarcity and the consequent high prices of food grains are probably the causes of the falling off in the number of cases filed.

Number of Sessions cases.

122. The number of Sessions cases tried during the year by the Chief Court of Criminal Justice was 24 as against 26 in the previous year. Out of these, 8 were of murder, 5 of culpable homicide, 2 of theft and 9 others.

The Courts which committed the Sessions cases.

123. The following statement shows the number of cases committed by the different States and Courts and disposed of in the year 1896-97 as compared with the year 1895-96.

*The abnormal number of original political cases is due to the inclusion of the cases settled under the encumbered estates rules.

124. Besides the 24 Sessions cases, the Judicial Assistant disposed of 30 criminal and 152 civil appeals, 15 miscellaneous civil and 16 political appeals, total 213 against 142 in the previous year.

Criminal, civil and political appeals disposed of.

125. The result of the criminal revision work during the year shows that in 28 cases the proceedings of the lower Courts were sent for. In 8 cases the convictions or orders were reversed and in 20 cases they were confirmed.

Criminal and civil revision work.

The result of the civil revision work shows that out of 36 cases, in which the proceedings were sent for, in 5 cases the orders were reversed, and in 31 confirmed.

The Political Agent disposed of 5 civil revision applications against the decisions of the Porbandar Courts. In all the decisions of the Administrator's Court were confirmed.

The Political Agent also disposed of 4 criminal revision applications; in two cases he reversed the orders of the lower Court and in two he confirmed them.

126. The Judicial Assistant, this year, inspected the records of 19 Courts as against 4 in the previous year and such irregularities as were discovered were brought to the notice of the officers concerned.

Inspection of records of Subordinate Courts.

127. The number of applications for execution of decrees was 3,208 against 4,051 last year. 3,654 applications were disposed of leaving 1,094 applications undisposed of as against 1,555 in the previous year. This decrease in the total of arrears is general.

Applications for the execution of decrees.

128. The following statement shows that 417 documents aggregating in value Rs. 11,88,966 were registered during the year as against 409 aggregating Rs. 7,62,053 last year. The total of fees realized was Rs 1,203 against Rs. 1,266 in the previous year.

The number of outstanding cases at the end of the year was 2,576 as against 4,892 last year. There has been an appreciable reduction of outstanding cases in the States of Junágad, Navánagar, Porbandar, Dhrangadhra, Morvi, Gondal, Limbdi, Wadhwán, Dhrol, Muli, Bajána, Vala, Virpur, Mália, and Kotda-Sángáni.

130. The following is a return showing the number of criminal trials held by the State Courts of Class I to VII including those under management :—

Criminal trials held by the State Courts.

Rájasthanik Court.

132. The office of President was held by Colonel Hunter up to 16th April 1896 when he was relieved by Colonel Fenton who held it up to the end of the year.

Personnel.

133. 163 regular cases were disposed of and 5,551 miscellaneous orders were passed against 149 cases and 6,166 miscellaneous orders.

Work done by the Court.

The President of the Court reports that the number of cases settled is slightly less than the average, in consequence of the Court having been closed for 6 weeks vacation in October last, and of more than a month of its time having been taken up in the disposal of three exceptionally long Hak Patrak cases, and also of an inquiry held under the orders of the Political Agent in respect of a serious charge brought against the Sáela Chief by the Mulgirásiás of Gósal relating to alleged sale of certain lands belonging to them. The work of the Court during the year is thus summarized,—

New cases filed	92
Cases remanded by Government	8
Cases heard and disposed of.....	163
Balance on file	98

Applications to Government.

134. 78 applications for the exercise of extraordinary jurisdiction against the decisions of the Court were made to Government against 74 during the previous year. Of the former 28 were preferred by the Darbárs and 50 by the Girásiás; 14 of these applications are still before Government. Government declined to interfere in 63 cases and ordered a fresh hearing in one case. Fresh hearings were also ordered by Government in respect of 6 applications made to them during the previous official year, which were disposed of during the year under report. One application of the same year was returned to the Political Agent who transferred it to the Rájasthánik Court for disposal.

Future of the Court.

135. In a Despatch of May 1896, Her Majesty's Secretary of State approved of the proceedings of the Government of India sanctioning the retention of the Rájasthánik Court for a further period, not exceeding two years, for the disposal of the outstanding cases arising in States of the first four classes, and asked that the revised scheme for disposing of cases in Tálukás of the lower classes and for discharging the duties of the Court after its dissolution should be expedited. At the same time he would have no objection to the Court being maintained on its present footing, with such reductions of survey expenses as might be practicable, if the States so desired.

After prolonged personal discussion in January and February 1897 the representatives of States presented a memorandum agreeing that the Court should continue on its present footing until the cases then on its files and those of the States, Courts, and certain other expected work should be disposed of, subject to the condition that the Court was to confine its enquiries to cases, arising in States of the first four classes and that no new status cases should be entertained. The States, however, did not consider that any machinery was needed for the protection of the Court's decrees. These views were communicated to Government with a recommendation for acceptance. The survey expenses have already diminished from Rs. 27,000 to 12,000 by the amalgamation of the two appointments of Superintendent and Assistant Suprintendent, and no further reduction is practicable.

As regards any future cases arising in States of the first four classes, after the dissolution of the Court, it did not appear necessary to devise a scheme for their settlement, as such cases would be very few and it was open to Government to order their disposal by a Special Officer at the cost of the particular States concerned. This course was considered preferable to one which painted the well governed and badly administered with the same brush by imposing a permanent Court indiscriminately upon all, and which removed a wholesome stimulus to just and impartial Government already observed in some of the more enlightened Darbárs.

With reference to the Girás cases of States below the 4th Class, all outstanding cases have been disposed of by Major Ashby, and it has been recommended that future cases should be settled at periodical sessions presided over by the Judicial or other Assistant under revised rules based on those obtaining in the Rájasthánik Court, fees being levied according to the rates chargeable in civil cases. The details of the proposals are still under consideration.

Prisons.

Prisons.

136. The total number of prisons in the province is 146, against 144 last year :—

2	Agency Jails at Rájkot and Wadhwán Stations.
2	Lock-ups at the other Agency Stations, Songad and Jetalsar.
17	Thána Lock-ups.
125	Jails and Lock-ups in States and Tálukás.
146

Expenditure on account of Jails.

137. The total expenditure on account of prisoners amounted to Rupees 1,30,871 as against Rs 1,20,385 in the previous year. The daily average of prisoners was 1,341 as against 1,339 and the average cost per prisoner was Rs. 97·5 per annum as against Rs. 89·9 in the previous year. The increase is due to the dearness of food grains which prevailed during the year under report.

CHAPTER IV.—Production and Distribution.

138 Although the total rainfall was above the average it fell unseasonably and ceased completely with the month of August resulting in a considerable falling off in the outturn of the Agtar or rain crops which generally averaged from 8 to 10 annas only. A heavy fall in November, however, improved matters by stimulating the sowing of wheat and gram and increasing the cotton crop, from which crops a yield from 10 to 14 annas in the rupee was realized. But the prices of food grains rose in sympathy with other parts of India and remained high throughout the year giving the Darbárs and cultivators better returns for their produce but seriously affecting the labouring classes.

139. The staple crops are Juvári, Bájari, wheat, gram, pulse, cotton, oilseeds and sugar-cane.

Staple crops.

140. Agricultural experiments were made in Jámnagar, Porbandar and Gondal. In the former Nariád tobacco which is celebrated for its superior narcotic properties was sown at Khambhália proved and successful while certain spice seeds and rice of a superior kind were tried at other places and gave encouraging results.

Agricultural experiments.

141. In Porbándar experiments were made with Broach and Egyptian cotton, with Juwár and oats. The Broach cotton plants were spoiled by the cyclone. The Egyptian cotton plants which were sown late in November attained a height of about three feet and were beginning to flower at the time of the annual report so that no opinion can yet be formed as to the result. 10 lbs. of oats were sown as a cold weather crop and in three months produced 15 Maunds of grain and 50 Maunds of straw. The quality of the grain was however light and poor.

Exotic cotton, Oats, &c.

The experiments at Gondal with Egyptian cotton failed on account of the exposure of the young plants to too much cold. Another attempt will be made. The Nariad tobacco and fennel seed gave unsatisfactory results.

142. The States which maintain gardens of any importance are Junágad, Bhavnagar, Porbandar, Dhrángadhra, Morvi and Gondal. The botanical garden at Gondal is still kept up but is reported not to be so well supervised as formerly.

Gardens.

His Highness the Thákor Sáheb of Morvi has of late been paying much attention to gardens, and has employed a European gardener to supervise them. Junágad, Bhávnagar and Porbandar possess and maintain cocoa-nut plantations on an extensive scale; in the last State the plantation is too young to show any appreciable return. Vánkáner has also a small plantation in which the trees, first planted, have begun to bear fruit.

143. As last year there is nothing new to record of the forests in the Province. The Forest Departments of Navánagar and Porbandar are managed by trained men and the Junágad State is inquiring for a Forest Officer to advise them on the conservation of the Gir. Morvi, Gondal and Pálitána have plantations on a small scale but it is not likely that anything larger than firewood and small timber for the manufacture of agricultural implements will ever be produced. I have urged on the States the importance of encouraging the rearing of trees for fuel by their cultivators and the planting of all uncultivated land with the "bábul" (Acacia Arabica) in order that the multiplication of factories in the Province may not be checked by scarcity of wood fuel as it is quite possible that the dearness of coal might compel the Railways to use wood instead of coal The hilly tracts and the borders of rivers and nullahs might be planted with this hardy valuable wood which would cost little and yield a rich return.

Forests.

144. Though Káthiáwár cannot boast of any great factories there are a number of ginning factories scattered about the province. Two spinning and weaving mills exist at Bhávnagar and Morvi and another is being erected at Wadhwán while a fourth is proposed at Gondal. The mill at Bhávnagar, however, was seriously damaged by fire and stopped working in January last.

Manufacture.

The ginning factory established last year at Morvi did not work well as the machinery and gins employed were second hand. The two factories at Porbandar also did not give favourable results on account of the shortness of the cotton crop but those at Dhrángadhra, Dhoráji and Pátdi worked satisfactorily.

The Iron foundry started by private enterprise two years ago with the help of the Gondal Darbár is now fairly established and turns out all sorts of cast iron work such as ornamental railings, staircases, benches, &c., very creditably. The gas factory established at Morvi by His Highness the Thákor Saheb during the year at a cost of Rupees 61,895 provides gas for lighting the roads, main streets and Railway and Tramway Stations.

Horse-breeding.

145. No Horse Show was held in the Province during the year on account of the unfavourable season but the Junágad State whose turn it is to hold a show under recent arrangements proposes to do so in March next. The State Kárbhári of Vánkáner devotes considerable attention to the breeding of horses. 4 Young Colts, suitable for army remounts, were purchased from the Vánkáner paddock during the year. The Superintendent of Civil Veterinary Department, Bombay Presidency, the Remount Agent and Captain A. W. Forbes, Inspecting Officer, Káthiáwár States Imperial Lancers, who visited the paddock were impressed very favourably with the excellent arrangements made by Ráo Bahádur Ganpatráo Laud.

The Thákor Sáhebs of Morvi and Pálitána breed a good many horses every year for their own use. The latter has given the question of the best crosses considerable intelligent study and has bred upon definite principles which have produced the most excellent results. Generally the conclusion he has arrived at is that the indigenous mare is too small to breed direct with English horses, and that it takes two generations of crossing with Arabs to produce a dam roomy enough to mate with the English horse. He has some specimens of the pure Káthi breed which show considerable quality while the systematic crossing of the Arab with the descendant of the indigenous mare has produced in the fourth or fifth generation a horse that it would be difficult to match in shape, strength temper and quality. The Bhávnagar paddock is liberally maintained by the young Chief and turns out some good horses which are drafted into his Imperial Service Lancers or the Darbár stables.

The Junágad State possesses a paddock on a small scale, but it is under no one's particular care and has consequently shown no satisfactory results.

The necessity of improving the breed of horses was prominently brought by me to the notice of the Darbárs and it is pleasing to record that the Ráj Sáheb of Dhrángadhra has determined to establish a paddock while Rájkot and Mánávadar will soon have similar institutions.

These paddocks do not solve the doubtful question whether it is possible for agriculturists and small landholders to breed military remounts for the money offered by Government as the Chiefs naturally follow their fancy to do the thing well rather than, on business principles, to make the paddock self-supporting.

The objects I hope to attain by inducing every 1st and 2nd Class State to keep up a paddock are—

(a) The distribution throughout the Province of a number of well bred Arab stallions which must have an increasing effect year by year on the indigenous stock, and

(b) the creations in each paddock of nurseries for the young stock of these stallions purchased as soon as weaned from the small breeders where Government might purchase remounts.

The early purchase at a fair price by the Darbárs of the stock got by their stallions out of Girásiás' mares will, I feel sure, encourage the latter to breed regularly as the cost of the stock up to 6 months is very small especially if the foal is thrown at the beginning of the monsoon when grass is plentiful.

Trade.

146. The following table contains statistics of the sea-borne trade of the Province excluding Baroda ports. They show a decrease in imports and an increase in exports on the whole. In the ports of the Sorath Pránt the position is reversed. There was a diminution in exports and an increase in imports as is evident from the subjoined figures :—

Total Trade.

		Exports. Rupees.	Imports. Rupees.	Excess value of exports. Rupees.	Excess value of imports. Rupees.

	1896-97.	3,13,06,267	2,29,81,576	83,24,691	.....

The balance of trade at Bhávnagar ports is in favour of exports whereas in the other ports it is the reverse. This is probably due to cotton which gravitates to the large Bhávnagar market, and to the fact that goods exported thence to Bombay are treated as goods from Bhávnagar ports and exempt from import duties.

The above statistics show that there were larger imports of rice, grain, metals, and bullion in the Province, and that the Bhávnagar ports were principally the channels for such increased importations. Among exports, grain exhibits an appreciable diminution, while cotton was exported in larger quantities than in the previous year.

Railways.

Railways.

147. A few days after the close of the year an addition of 50½ miles of Railway was made to the existing system by the opening of the metre gauge extension from Rájkot to Jámnagar. The line which would have been opened in March, but for the loss of several boat-loads of rails, was very expeditiously constructed as it was only begun in January 1896 and crosses three rivers with heavy approaches. The character of the work was favourably reported on by the Government Inspector and the line has so far stood well the test of the monsoon.

It is managed by the primal system consisting of the B.-G.-J.-P. Railways at a percentage on gross earnings. The total Railway mileage of Railways in Káthiáwár amounts now to 506 of 3 different gauges.

B.-B. and C.I. Railway portion	5′ 6″	32 miles.

Jetalsar-Rájkot do.....	3′ 3½″	46	,,
Morvi do.	2′ 6″	94	,,
Total length		506 miles.

B.-G.-J.-P. Railway.

148. The gross earnings of the B.-G.-J.-P. and J.R. Railways amounted to Rs. 21,77,995 against Rs. 21,35,558 in the previous year and the expenditure was Rs. 11,04,482 against Rs. 12,36,892. The mileage result of earnings comes to Rs, 110·31 gross or Rs. 54·37 net per mile against 108·16 and 45·51 respectively in the previous year. The dividend accruing to the proprietary States during this and the preceding year was as follows :—

	Net revenue.	Percentage of this year.	Percentage of the last year.
Bhávnagar..	5,70,606	8·06	7·75
Junágad ...	1,21,196	3·12	0·12
Gondal-Porbandar ...	2,98,481	4·80	4·02
Jetalsar Rájkot Railway	1,15,208	5·51	5 15

showing an improvement in all the lines.

As reported last year the Dhoráji Agreement, under which the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway is worked, terminated on 31st December 1894. The arrangements for combined management, however, were continued pending the consideration of another working agreement.

After much delay and a prolonged discussion a new arrangement was agreed to and came into force on the 1st January of the current year. It is based upon the principle of combined management as required by the Government of India with proprietary independence of the Integral Railways belonging to Bhávnagar, Gondal, Junágad and Porbandar which is the primal system, all other extensions such as Jetalsar-Rájkot and Jámnagar being managed at a percentage of the gross earnings. It provides for regular meetings of the Board which remains as before but distinguishes between purely Departmental questions which are settled by the proprietors, and matters of Imperial or interstatal concern which are disposed of at meetings presided over by the Political Agent as under the Dhoráji Agreement.

It provides for the allotment of the rolling stock according to the needs of the several Integral Railways and payment for the use of foreign stock, for the framing of a cadre and a code for the guidance of all connected with the Railway. In short the new agreement reduces to order and system all that was formerly irregular, uncertain and fitful. The agreement has been submitted to Government for approval and is now under consideration.

Jetalsar-Rájkot Railway.

149. The Jetalsar-Rájkot Railway is being worked under the same terms as last year by the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway. The dividend was 5 ½ per cent. on the capitalcost, which is half per cent. better than last year, and this is certain to increase still more when the inconvenience of the double break of gauge at Wadhwán Civil Station and Rájkot is removed.

Morvi Railway.

150. The gross earnings of the Morvi Railway amounted to Rupees 3,86,883 against Rupees 3,69,972 and the expenditure to Rupees 2,05,262 against Rupees 1,69,845 in the previous year, giving 79·15 gross or 46·94 net earnings per mile per week. The dividend comes to Rupees 7·62 on capital cost against 8·34 in the previous year. The increase in expenditure is due to abnormal repairs and renewal of locomotives, carriages and wagons.

Recently, with a view to the eventual conversion of the line to metre gauge, relaying with 41¼ lbs. steel rails on creosoted pine metre gauge sleepers has been commenced from the Rájkot end. A total length of 21 miles from Rájkot has now been thus relaid, three miles having been added during the past half-year. This is an earnest of the Thákor Sáheb's intention to bring about the unification of the gauge in Káthiáwár, and the sooner it is effected, the better for the Province and the Thákor Sáheb's Railway.

Railway Volunteers.

151. The enrolled strength of the Railway Volunteers was 85 against 71 in the previous year, of whom 47 qualified as extra efficients, and 37 as efficients and one non-efficient, the latter owing to pressure of work. The average attendance at drill was 12·55 showing a falling off from last year.

Accidents.

152. There were no accidents to trains on the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway. There were 4 fatal cases of persons being run over; 1 case of a train running through closed level crossing gates and 1 case of fire.

Damage was done by floods on the Jetalsar-Verával section at Hatiná-Mália; 500 feet of road was scoured out after a fall of 9 inches of rain on the 21st and 22nd June 1896. At Ránáváv, on the afternoon of 23rd June, some ballast was washed out.

The Morvi line was altogether free from serious accidents, but a heavy fall of rain on 23rd June caused 5 gaps between miles 14 to 42 which were all quickly repaired.

Lines under survey or projected.

153. The lines under survey or projected are as follows:—

(a.)—Laying a 3rd rail between Wadhwán and Viramgám.

The urgent necessity for this measure or the alternative of drawing in the standard gauge and making Viramgám the junction of the standard and metre gauge systems has again been brought to the notice of Government, as the full development of Káthiáwár Railway traffic depends upon this and the conversion of the Morvi line between Rájkot and Wadhwán Civil Station. The B. B. and C. I. Railway Company is by contract bound to give every facility for connecting the two metre gauge systems and the money required would be subscribed in several places in Káthiáwár. It is hoped that the question will soon be disposed of.

(b)—Botád-Barwála Branch.

This is a project for a branch line from Botád to Barwála, a distance of about 14 miles, which has been sent by the Railway Department to the Bhavnagar Darbár with an inquiry whether it is inclined to take up the scheme and is still under consideration.

(c)—Wadhwán-Dhrángadhra Railway.

In December 1896, His Highness the Ráj Sáheb of Dhrángadhra submitted a proposal to join his capital town with Wadhwán by a metre gauge line, 21 miles long, and to meet the cost of the Railway by borrowing a loan of 7 lákhs of Rupees from the state of Mánávadar. Before submitting the project to the Government of India detailed plans and estimates were called for. A trial line was first taken along the cart road but this being disapproved of, a survey for a line independent of the road was made and submitted to Government and sanction is shortly expected.

(d)—Sihor-Pálitána Line.

The question of constructing a branch line to Pálitána was under correspondence in 1888 but the Pálitána State not having sufficient funds to construct it, the project was dropped. The subject was again brought forward by the Manager in December 1896 but the Bhávnagar and Pálitána Darbárs were unwilling to carry out the scheme. Since then some persons styling themselves "Agents of an Ahmedábád Syndicate" have proposed to construct a line between Songad and Pálitána but neither the Bhávnagar nor the Pálitána States favour this project. The former State has views of connecting its new port "Albert Victor" with the Railway at Dhola Junction by a line which would pass near Pálitána and afford the needed communication with the latter town and the Shetrunja hill, the sacred shrines of the Jain Religion.

(e)—Chital-Amreli Branch.

In 1892, the Government of His Highness the Gáekwar had under consideration the project for joining Amreli with the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway at Chital by a metre gauge branch which was to be continued further south to Dhári, on the borders of the Gir, provided that land was given free by the Tálukdárs through whose limits it would pass, and further that the jurisdiction over the line should be exercised by the Baroda Government. The scheme was not approved by Government as then put forward and the matter dropped until last year, when the Manager of the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway in reviving the question pointed out that Amreli was an important cotton centre with two full presses, the trade of which would well support a branch Railway. At the request of the Baroda Government a detail survey was made of a branch to Amreli (12 miles) by the B.-G.-J.-P. Railway staff at the expense of the Baroda State to whom the papers have been sent, and definite proposals are awaited, which, if in accordance with the principles laid down by the Government of India for the construction of Railways in Native States, will be submitted to Government for approval.

(f) Verával-Sásan Branch.

A line from Verával to Sásan in the Gir Forest of the Junágad State has been suggested with a view to open up the tract chiefly for the purpose of utilizing wood fuel and other forest produce, and the line has been surveyed but before any further steps are taken in the matter it is necessary to have a survey made of the forest and its capabilities of feeding a Railway and to introduce measures for its conservancy. For these purposes inquiries are being made for a trained Conservator.

PUBLIC WORKS.

Public Works.

154. The total amount spent by the Native States upon Public Works during the year amounted to Rs. 25,11,561 against Rs. 22,52,879 in the previous year.

The figures of the first and second Class States are given below:—

Junágad	3,56,179
Navánagar	91,748
Bhávnagar	4,98,385
Porbandar	2,77,755
Dhrángadhra	66,543
Morvi	2,21,661
Gondal	2,83,720
Vánkáner	38,119
Pálitána	56,951
Dhrol	11,146
Limbdi	25,652
Rájkot	2,23,516
Wadhwán	73,883
Jáfarábád	5,556
Total Rs..	22,30,814

It is necessary to remark that in Dhrángadhra, Wadhwán and Dhrol Rupees 41,000, 61,000 and 6,000 respectively were spent on palaces and only Rupees 16,000 were spent in Limbdi on works of public utility.

Works executed through the Agency.

155. The total amount spent during the year through the Agency Engineer on public works was Rupees 1,80,226 against Rupees I,12,936 in the previous year. The most important public work in hand is the Lálpuri Irrigation and water supply project in the Rájkot State in which considerable progress has been made and which will, it is hoped, be finished in a year.

Telegraph Offices.

Telegraph Offices.

156. No new Telegraph Office was established during the year.

Post Offices.

Post Offices.

157. There has been no increase or decrease in the number of Post Offices but there was an increase of 1 village postman and 41 letter-boxes, while 2 village postmen and 18 letter-boxes were reduced. A runner with the mail bags was attacked between Bagasra and Kunkáváv on the 12th December, but he succeeded in repelling his assailants and saving the mails.

CHAPTER V—Revenue and finance.

Tribute collection.

158. The following statement shows the demands, collections and outstanding balances of the tribute due to the British and Gáekwár Governments and Junágad State for the year under report:—

Name of Tribute.	Demands.					Total Collections.	Outstanding balances on the 31st March 1897.
	On account of former years.			On account of the year 1896-97.	Total Demands.		For 1895-96.	For 1896-97.	Total outstanding balance.

From the above it will be seen that the total demand was Rupees 11,36,724-3-10 Rupees 10,78,684-0-0 being for the year of report, and Rupees 58,040-3-10 on account of former years. The realization amounted to Rupees 10,80,409-11-8, leaving Rupees 56,314-8-2 as outstanding balance at the close of the year. Of this Rupees 48,198-12-6 have since been recovered leaving a balance of Rupees 8,115-11-8 to be recovered.

159. Subjoined is a statement showing the receipts and disbursements on account of General and Court-fee stamps in Káthiáwár during 1896-97.

Local Funds.

160. The account of the Consolidated Fund which forms an appendix to the report shows receipts amounting Rs. 1,34,100 and expenditure Rs. 1,31,000 during the year as compared with Rs. 1,41,870 and Rs. 1,33,998 respectively for the previous year.

Káthiáwár Consolidated Fund.

The following shows the increase and decrease under the several heads :—

	Decrease.	Increase.
Mohosali collections	1,869	.....
Fines, Political and Criminal and sale proceeds of unclaimed property.....	261	.....
Institution fees in Civil suits (cash)	.....	4,466
Sale proceeds of court fee stamps..... ..	2,621	.....
Vakils Sanad fees	260	.....
Translators do.	434	.....
Other fees	239	.....
Rents	.....	728
Contributions and recoveries.....	.....	2,727
Press receipts	220	.....
Miscellaneous receipts	562	.....
Advances recoverable	9,404	.....

The increase in the fees in civil suits was mainly due to the transfer of Rs. 12,536 on account of institution fees received by the Rájasthánik Court from Bháyáts and Mulgirásias of Tálukás below class IV to the Consolidated Fund. Deducting this sum which is a non-recurring item, the net receipts on account of fees in civil suits amounted to Rs 17,063 or Rs. 8,067 less than the previous year. The high prices of food grains which prevailed during the year under report seems to have checked litigation.

161. The receipts from the Court fee stamp labels amounted to Rs. 36,473. This also shows a slight decrease as compared with Rs. 39,093 in the previous year.

Stamp Labels.

162. The annual meeting of the Karbharis was held on 17th July 1896 when the Budget of the States General Fund for the year 1897-98 was discussed and passed, a copy of which was forwarded to Government for information.

States General Contribution and Edowment Fund.

The following allotments were sanctioned from the Fund :—

Agency Engineer's Establishment	Rs.	13,750
Repairs to Trunk Roads	,,	20,018
Vaccination	,,	12,299
Rájkot town and station Native Dispensaries	,,	1,300

CHAPTER VI.

Vital statistics and Medical service.

Hospitals and Dispensaries.

163. The total number of Hospitals and Dispensaries in the Province during the year was 108 against 105 in the previous year showing an increase of 3.

Of these the following 24 are under the supervision of the Agency Surgeon :—

1 West Hospital.

2 Civil Station Dispensaries.

8 Thána Dispensaries.

13 Dispensaries in States under management.

Patients treated.

164. Excluding the West Hospital at Rájkot to which special reference will be made hereafter, the total number of persons who resorted to these institutions was 7,29,351 against 7,03,894 in the previous year and the total cost of maintaining the institutions was Rs 2,91,074 against Rs. 2,74,624.

General health.

165 The public health was indifferent. There were no cases of cholera reported either in the Rájkot city or Civil Station but the disease was prevalent in other parts, more especially in the towns and villages along the West coast. Small-pox prevailed to a considerable extent in Rájkot city and Civil Station from February to May, and existed in an epidemic form throughout the whole of Káthiáwár during portions of the year appearing in no less than 233 villages, principally in the Jhálávád, Hálár and Gohilvád Pránts.

Outbreak of bubonic plague.

166. Notwithstanding the intimate connection between Bombay, Cutch and Káthiáwár and the numerous routes of communication, Káthiáwár may be said to have almost entirely escaped the disease. At Bhávnagar, there were a few cases daily in one ward at intervals, and at Kutiána under Junágad, which suffered more, the total attacks were only 94 in a population of 9,580. This may be attributed to the camps of observation at Porbandar and Jámnagar Bandars at which no less than 60 cases were intercepted on their way into the Province, and to the inspections at Wadhwán Civil Station, Bhávnagar and other Railway Stations. The history of the disease here showed conclusively the importance of early notice of its outbreak and prompt measures for its eradication. There has been no case reported in this province since the 7th June.

The following is an abstract of plague cases both imported and indigenous.

Strict medical inspection, compulsory segregation of affected persons, evacuation and disinfection of the infected houses and burning of the bedding and clothes of the patients were the principal measures enforced. To these were added preventive precautions at the points of entry—camps of observation at the several sea ports and at Wadhwán by land and detention of passengers for the purposes of disinfection which materially contributed to the suppression of the disease. The past year has thus been an anxious one in consequence of the threatening famine and plague, but through the co-operation of the States the plague has been practically kept at arm's length.

It is my pleasing duty to report that the States of Dhrángadhrá, Gondal, Vankáner, Pálitána, Limbdi and Wadhwán readily responded to my request for the loan of the services of their Medical Officers with attendants to assist in the arrangements at the observation camp at Wadhwán Civil Station, and the States Representatives at the recent Kárbháris' Meeting took upon themselves the cost of the observation camp, and debited it to the States General Fund as the measures were taken for the general protection of the Province. In connection with the plague measures the name of Mr. Govindji Thákarshi Mulji, a merchant of Bombay, deserves notice. This gentleman materially co-operated with the local Officers and leading residents of Wadhwán Station and generously placed his commodious Dharamshála at the disposal of the Pránt Officer for the accommodation of the better classes of passengers detained for disinfection, and supplied food and water to the poorer classes at his private expense.

West Hospital.

167. Surgeon Lieutenant-Colonel J. M. McCloghry was in charge of the West Hospital from 1st April to 7th July and from 5th October 1896 to 31st March 1897.

Surgeon-Major C. Monks acted from 8th July to 4th October 1896.

5,965 out-patients and 923 in-patients were treated at the Hospital during the year against 5,164 out-patients and 891 in-patients in the previous year.

Assistant Surgeon J. E. Bocarro, L.M. & S., remained in the post of Assistant throughout the whole year.

The States have generously given a sum of Rs 5,000 from the States General Fund to provide an out-patient Hospital connected with the West Hospital which will remove the inconvenience complained of by the Agency Surgeon.

Conservancy arrangements in Rájkot Civil Station.

168. The conservancy of the Civil Station has recently been placed on a satisfactory footing. Latrines have been built, the Alláhábád system of disposing of nightsoil has been adopted and the sullage water no longer soaks into the foundations of the houses but is conveyed away into open drains.

Rasulkhánji Hospital for women.

169. At a Meeting of the representatives of States held at Rájkot on the 17th July 1896 a proposal was made to maintain a lady doctor to provide medical relief to Zenana ladies, who should also superintend a Dispensary for women at Rájkot when not in attendance elsewhere.

The proposal was adopted and a sum of Rs 10,000 per annum was provided in the budget of the States General Contribution Fund for the expenses of the scheme, while His Highness the Nawáb of Junághad came forward with a liberal offer of Rs. 30,000 to provide a suitable building. When however the design of the building was under discussion, it was thought better to provide, instead of a dispensary, a Hospital, constructed according to the most approved, sanitary principles. This more ambitious scheme which is to cost about Rs 75,000 was most generously accepted by His Highness and the building is now approaching completion.

In the meantime the services of a thoroughly qualified lady Doctor (Miss C. M. Wickham, M D.) have been engaged, whose advice has already been much sought by the Darbár ladies while a temporary charitable dispensary in Rajkot is daily affording medicial relief to a large number of women.

The Zenána Medical Officer's services are regulated as under:—

The Darbárs have a prior claim to her services and which if required outside Rájkot, are charged for at the rate of Rs 75 for each day's attendance.

The fee for attendance in Rajkot Civil Station and city is Rs 5 for each visit.

All fees are credited to the States General Contribution Fund, the lady Doctor receiving 5 per cent. on the aggregate of all fees as a special remuneration.

Women patients who personally attend the dispensary are treated and given medicine free of charge. For midwifery cases and operations a special fee is charged.

Vaccination.

170. The States of Morvi and Gondal have taken over the control of their own Vaccination Departments from January 1897, Junágad, Jámnagar, and Bhávnagar having already been entrusted with those Departments. The vaccination operations of the rest of the Province continue under the supervision of the Agency Surgeon. The total number of vaccinators in Káthiáwár is now 56.

Of these there are 31 in the 5 States above mentioned and 25 are under the Agency Surgeon.

Statistics.

171. The general result of vaccine operations shows that 92,505 primary and 3,856 re-vaccinations were performed during the year, making a total of 96,361 against 94,058 in the previous year, showing an increase of 2,303. The operations were carried out at a total cost of Rs 34,675 against Rs. 31,850 in the previous year showing an increase of Rs. 2,825.

Small-pox.

172. In all 233 villages are reported as having been attacked by the disease. These villages are mostly situated in the Jhálávád, Hálár and Gohilvád Pránts.

CHAPTER VII—Education.

Personnel.

173. The office of the Educational Inspector, Káthiáwár, was held by Mr. M. A. Turkhud throughout the year.

174. The Educational Institutions in the Agency number 1,315 with 84,396 scholars against 1,311 schools and 79,535 scholars last year. They are as follows :—

Educational Institutions.

1896-97.

1	Rájkumár College at Rájkot.
1	Tálukdári Girásia School.
1	Sámaldás College.
7	High Schools.
2	Training Colleges.
1	Industrial School.
39	Middle Schools for boys.
2	Do. do. for girls.
893	Primary Schools for boys.
87	Do. do. for girls.
13	Aided Schools.
1	Unaided School.
267	Unrecognized Schools.
1,315

There is an increase from last year of 1 Middle School, 7 primary schools for boys, 2 primary schools for girls and a decrease of 9 unrecognized schools.

The total expenditure on public instruction was Rs. 7,23,809 against 7,70,406 in the previous year, showing a decrease of Rs. 46,597 owing to a smaller amount having been spent on buildings during the year.

175. Mr. Laud, the energetic Manager of the Vánkáner State, has started a technical school at Vánkáner which is attended by 40 pupils who are taught drawing, carpentry, smithery, making carriages and furniture. The experiment is an interesting one and will be watched, but it is unfortunate that the school is not in a larger trade centre where there are factories and workshops. The Railway workshops at Ghadechi and Morvi are practically technical schools where boys learn more than their fathers can teach them. Schools in connection with such workshops would probably succeed. Drawing has been introduced in the practising schools attached to the Male and Female Training Colleges. In addition to this various centres have been established in the Province for the Bombay School of Arts examination.

Technical Education.

Gymnastics and field exercises form a regular part of the school curriculum and the game of cricket is also finding favour among the students of the High Schools.

176. During the year a successful conference of School Masters and others interested in the cause of education was held at Verával under the presidency of Mr. Turkhud in May 1896.

Educational conference.

Up to the 1st April 1893, schools in Káthiáwár were classed as follows according to the sources of their maintenance :—

State Schools.

(a) Schools under the control and inspection of the Bombay Educational Department.

(b) Schools which were under the control of the States, some of which only were inspected by the Educational Department. Both the above classes were entirely maintained by the States.

Private Schools.

(c) Aided schools.

(d) Unaided schools.

(e) Indigenous schools.

After the above date the States named in the margin were given the control of their Educational Department subject to the following conditions :—

Junágad. Bhávnagar.
Porbandar. Morvi.
Pálitána. Wádhwán.
Vánkáner. Rájkot.

(1) Educational Department standards and curriculum were to be maintained.

(2) Masters to possess the same qualifications as in the Bombay Educational Department.

(3) All schools to be inspected.

(4) Maintenance of the Pension Fund.

Káthiáwár was separated from the Bombay Educational Department and a separate Educational Inspector, subordinate to the Political Agent, is maintained by the States.

The schools may now therefore be classified according to management as follows :—

Agency Controlled Schools.

(a) Central Institutions maintained from the States General Fund.

(b) Schools in States which have not accepted the control of their Educational Department.

State Controlled Schools.

In the first 2 classes the Educational Inspector exercises full control, in subordination to the Political Agent, who takes the place of the Director of Public Instruction. In the last class the duties of the Educational Inspector are confined to inspection and advice. No unfavourable reports of the condition of the Eductional Departments in the 8 uncontrolled States have been received excepting in Pálitána and Wadhwán where the school masters' pay was two are three months in arrears.

Rájkumár College.

Personnel.

177. Mr. C. W. Waddington was in charge of the College throughout the year under report. The post of Vice-Principal vacant since February 1896 has not been filled, but an extra Provisional Assistant, Mr. Dorábji Hirjibhái Váchha M.A., was appointed on the 4th July 1896, on a salary of Rs. 200 and a monthly allowance of Rs. 30 for house-rent.

During the year the services of Mr. Gulám Mahomed Báwámia Munshi, Barrister-at-Law, were engaged to teach the elements of Law to the 1st class on a salary of Rupees 600 per annum and a cricket "coach" has been added to the College staff since July 1896.

178. The number of Kumárs on the rolls was 41 showing an increase of 4, 5 having been withdrawn and 9 having joined the College.

New admissions and withdrawals.

179. Among the new arrivals are Kumárs Mohamad Sherkhánji and Mohamad Jalábidinkhánji of Rádhanpur, Jorávarsinghji of Soonth and 6 others from Káthiáwár.

The Kumárs who left the College are the two cadets of Rájpipla and those of Wadhwán, Virpur and Rájpara.

Annual examination.

180. The annual examination was held in September 1896 by the Educational Inspector, Northern Division, whose report to the Director of Public Instruction has been considered satisfactory both by the Director and Government.

Prize distribution.

181. The annual distribution of prizes was held on the 11th December 1896 at which the Political Agent presided and distributed prizes.

Cricket Match.

182. This College cricket Eleven did not succeed in defeating the Mayo College in their annual match played at Ajmere but held their own in all mounted sports. Such matches promote healthy rivalry and is productive of nothing but good feeling between the Colleges.

General health.

183. The health of the Kumárs has on the whole been excellent.

Tálukdári Girásia School.

Tálukdári Girásia School.

184. This school maintains its reputation under the supervision of Mr. Strip. The number of scholars was 59 as compared with 65 in the previous year. They come from the following districts:—

Jhálávád	35	44
Sorath	1
Hálár	3
Gohilvád	5
Cutch	4	15
Revákántha	3
Ahmedabad	2
Káira	4

		59

Fluctuations of this kind are to be expected in such institutions. The district officers are unremitting in their efforts to persuade the petty Tálukdárs and Girásiás to avail themselves of this excellent institution.

The school was examined by Mr. Turkhud, Educational Inspecor, Káthiáwár, who expressed complete satisfaction with the result.

Sámaldás College.

Sámaldás College.

185. The Bhávnagar Darbár reports that at the end of March 1896 the number of students on the roll of the Sámaldas College was 110 as against 52 in the previous year. This large increase is due to a great extent to the unfortunate outbreak of bubonic plague at Bombay which induced many of the students to leave the College there. The good results obtained by students sent up from this College for the different University examinations have also contributed to this increase as is shown below:—

Báh-ud-din-Memorial College.

186. The foundation of another College was laid at Junágad by the Political Agent on the 25th March 1897. The building will be constructed from funds subscribed by the friends and admirers of Jemádár Shaikh Báh-ud-din, C.I.E, Vazir of Junágad, and supplemented by aid from the State which undertakes to defray the cost of maintaining the Institution. It is proposed to attach an industrial school to the College.

187. There is nothing new to report under this head.

CHAPTER IX.—Miscellaneous.

Printing Presses.

188. The number of printing presses shows an increase of 1 at Junágad. The total number at the end of the year was 26.

Newspapers and periodicals.

189. Two newspapers are published at Rájkot, viz., the Káthiáwár Times and the Káthiáwár News. The former is a daily paper in English, and also has a bi-weekly issue which contains a summary of the daily edition in vernacular, and the latter is bi-weekly and bilingual.

Conclusion.

Acknowledgments to Officers.

190. I have to acknowledge the same zealous devotion to duty and cordial co-operation which has marked the labours of my Assistants and the native staff of my office as in former years. Their assistance has materially lightened my duties in the administration of this Province.

J. M. HUNTER, Colonel,
Political Agent.

APPENDIX I.

No. 62 of 1897-98.

From Lieut.-Colonel L. L. Fenton,
President, Rájasthánik Court, Káthiáwár.

To Colonel J. M. Hunter,
Political Agent, Káthiáwár.

Camp Chorwád, 20th May 1897.

Sir.—I have the honour to submit the 24th Annual Report on the working of the Rájasthánik Court during the past official year.

Changes in the Personnel of the Court.

2. Colonel Hunter, President of the Court, having been appointed Political Agent of Káthiáwár, delivered over charge of the Court to me on the 16th April 1896, from which date up to the end of the year the Presidency was held by me.

President, Rájasthánik Court.

On the same date, I was relieved of the charge of the office of Superintendent of Surveys under the Court, by Mr. Hatch, Assistant Superintendent of Agency Surveys, who remained in charge during the rest of the year.

Superintendent of Garás Surveys.

Ázám Venishankar Gaorishankar, the member for Bhávnagar having resigned his appointment in the Court on account of failing health, Ázam Kaliánrái Laxmishankar was appointed a member in his stead, by Government Resolution No. 3726 dated 12th June 1896. Being however offered about the same time, the post of Náib Diwán of the Idar State in Mahikántha, he preferred the latter appointment, and resigned his post in the Court before joining it. This was subsequently filled by Ázam Shivprasád Nánábhái under the sanction of Government accorded in their Resolution No. 5528 dated the 11th September 1896.

Members.

The Court suffered a great loss in December last by the death of the member for the Navánagar State, Azam Jatáshankar Motirám, one of its oldest and most experienced members who had served with much credit in this Court since 1888.

Azam Popatbhái Kripáshankar whose name was sumbitted to Government, with that of another Nawánagar official, for the appointment of a successor to Azám Jatáshankar, has since been selected for filling the vacant post.

Working of the Court.

3. By Government Resolution No. 2449 dated 7th April 1896, the jurisdiction of the Court was limited to disposing of the outstanding cases in which the States of Classes I to IV were interested. In accordance with this ruling and the instructions of the Political Agent, all cases in which States below the Fourth Class were concerned were, with the exception of one settled by this Court in execution, forwarded for disposal to his office, at the same time all fresh claims to the status of Mulgarásia in other States were not entertained.

4. There were 318 cases pending at the end of the last official year. During the year under report, 100 cases were filed, including 8 cases which were remanded by Government for rehearing, while 163 cases were settled including 1 in execution in a State below the 4th class, and 157 in which States below the Fourth Class were interested, were transferred to the Political Agent's office for disposal, leaving a balance of 98 cases at the end of the year.

5. The following is the detail of the above 100 cases filed during the year.

Hak Patraks	31
Boundary disputes.....	48
Suits.....	9
Status cases.....	8
Miscellaneous complaints...	4
	100

6. The detail of the 163 cases settled is as follows:—

Hak Patraks, including 1 in execution in a State below the 4th class...	68
Boundary disputes	67
Suits	8
Status cases	10
Miscellaneous complaints.....	10
	163

The number of cases settled is slightly less than the average, in consequence of the Court having been closed for 6 weeks, vacation in October last, and of more than a month of its time having been taken up in the disposal of three exceptionally long Hak Patrak cases, and by an inquiry held under the orders of the Political Agent, in respect of a serious charge brought against the Sáyla Chief by his Mulgarásiás of Gosal.

7. Of the cases now pending—

35	are Hak Patraks.
41	„ Boundary disputes.
8	„ Suits.
11	„ Status cases.
3	„ Miscellaneous complaints.
98

They all belong to States from classes I to IV.

8. Besides the above there are 68 cases now pending on the files of the States of the first 4 classes, in respect of which appeals will doubtlessly result to this Court.

In the same category of expected cases should be included the following :—

23.	Hak Patraks to be given to recently declared Mulgarásiás (approximate).
22.	Disputes in the villages now under measurement or awaiting survey.
10	Disputes in village sites already referred to the Darbárs for settlement (approximate).
10.	Applications for revision of the sudhára cess under the rules (approximate).
10	The settlement of supplementary Hak Patraks (approximate).

Making approximately some 143 cases which will ultimately come into this Court for settlement on appeal. Claims for the status of Mulgarásia still continue, to come in, and orders will eventually have to be passed for their disposal. At present the Court is obliged under Government Resolution No. 2449 dated the 7th April 1896 to decline to entertain such claims. No less than 5 have been made since the above Government Resolution was passed.

Miscellaneous orders.

9. 531 Miscellaneous orders were passed by the President sitting with Members against 277 last year and 5,020 were passed by the President alone against 5,889 during the previous year.

Amicable settlements.

10. 3 disputes on the Court's files were settled amicably and 7 cases out of the Court, against 13 and 6 respectively, during the previous year.

Appeals to Government.

11. 78 applications for the exercise of extraordinary jurisdiction against the decisions of this Court were made to Government, against 74 during the previous year. Of the former 28 were preferred by the Darbárs, and 50 by the Garásiás. In respect of 14 of these applications no Resolutions have as yet been received from Government. In all but 1 of the remaining 64 applications, Government declined to interfere. In the 1 decision above referred to a fresh hearing was ordered to be made. Fresh hearings have also been ordered by Government in respect of 6 applications made to them during the last official year, but which were disposed of during the year under report. With regard to another application of the same year, it was returned to the Political Agent for disposal and subsequently forwarded to shis Court for the same purpose.

Complaints by Bháyáts and Mulgrásiás.

12. During the year, 81 complaints were received from the Bháyáts and Mulgrásiás of the first 4 classes, of infraction by their respective Darbárs, of this Court's awards. On inquiry 35 of such complaints were found to be well founded. A statement (appendix C) showing the number of complaints relating to each State, and the number decided respectively in favor of Darbárs and grásiás is appended, a copy of the same will, in accordance with instructions, be forwarded for being published in the Agency Gazette, together with a similar return of the cases decided during the year, in this Court.

Survey operations.

13. The report and usual statement of the survey operations for the quarter ending 31st December 1896, submitted by the Survey Superintendent are appended. It is satisfactory to note that the percentage of idle days continues to be low, and the result of the tests satisfactory. The number of land cases pending on the files of the Bháyáti Courts of States of classes I to IV stood on the 31st December last at 37, but this number has been slightly reduced during the past three months.

14. A fresh volume of the Court's decisions will be shortly published.

Future of the Court.

15. In a despatch No. 46 Political dated 7th May 1896 Her Majesty's Secretary of State approved of the proceedings of the Government of Bombay sanctioning the retention of the Rájasthánik Court for a further period not exceeding two years, for the disposal of the outstanding cases in which the States of Classes I to IV were interested ; calling upon the Political Agent for the preparation of a revised scheme for dealing with cases pending from States below the 4th Class, which the Court was debarred from hearing, and at the same time giving the States clearly to understand that Government reserved to itself the power of interference in cases of hardship, and of making such arrangements as might be necessary for adjudicating disputes, which may hereafter arise, between the Chiefs and Garásiás and which may call for settlement under the general obligation imposed on Government for the protection of the latter.

In according such approval, Her Majesty's Secretary of State, after making certain suggestions for the disposal of fresh cases and the protection of the rights awarded by the Court, after the latter had ceased to exist, observed that he would have no objection to the continuance of the Court, should the States, on further consideration, prefer to maintain it on its present footing, and with such reduction of the Survey Establishment as might be found practicable since the receipt of the above despatch the office of the Assistant Superintendent of Agency Surveys has been amalgamated with that of the Superintendent and the expenses of the latter's office so distributed amongst the different branches of the Surveys under his supervision, as to make a very considerable reduction in the share of the expenses falling upon the Court. A report on the subject having only very recently been submitted by me to the Political Agent (vide this office letter No. 2 dated the 1st April 1897.) it is unnecessary to enter here into further particulars showing how such reduction has been brought about.

With regard to the further negotiations with the Chiefs, the result of which is awaited by the Secretary of State to enable him to pass a decision on the matter, I am only in a position to state that such negotiations have taken place, and their result, which I have been given to understand is in favor of the retention of the Court on its present footing until all outstanding cases have been disposed of, duly reported to Government.

16 In conclusion I have much pleasure in acknowledging the very valuable assistance I have received from all the Native Gentlemen constituting the Court who have one and all acted with much zeal and the strictest impartiality, in the investigation and disposal of the cases coming before the Court.

The members of my establishment also carried out their duties to my entire satisfaction.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant.

L. L. FENTON, Lieut.-Colonel,

President, Rájasthánik Court.

APPENDIX II.

No. 244 of 1897-98.

From M. H. W. Hayward, Esquire, I.C.S., Judicial Assistant, Káthiáwár.

To Colonel J. M. Hunter,
Political Agent, Káthiáwár.

Judicial Assistant's Office,
Bálachadi, 29th May 1897.

Sir,—I have the honour to submit the Annual Report on the Judicial work of the Province of Káthiáwár for the year 1896-97.

2. During the year under report the following Officers performed the duties of Judicial Assistant for the periods noted opposite their names :—

Captain G. E. Hyde-Cates from 1st April 1896 to 29th May 1896.

Lieutenant H. G. Carnegy from 30th May 1896 to 24th June 1896.

Major G. B. O'Donnell from 25th June 1896 to 4th August 1896.

Mr. M. H. W. Hayward, I.C.S, from 5th August 1896 to 31st March 1897.

Criminal work.

3. The subjoined table shows the result of the trials held by the various Magistrates in the different Prants, the number of persons concerned and the percentage of convictions :—

CIVIL WORK.

8. The number of suits and applications for execution before the various Courts of the Province and the manner in which they were dealt with is shown in appendix A accompanying this report. The appendix shows a decrease from 3,899 to 3,587 in the total number of suits filed during the year and a decrease in disposals from 4,046 to 3,547. The decrease in institutions and disposals was in the Hálár and Jhálávád Pránts while Gohilvád and Sorath showed increases in both. Contested cases fell from 567 to 411 being 11·58 per cent. of the disposals as against 8·68 per cent. The arrears of suits at the end of the year increased from 402 to 473 the increases being in the Gohilvád and Sorath Pránts. The most marked increases were in the Courts of the Bántva Nyáyádhish and the Bagasra Thána. There was a marked decrease of arrears in the Dasáda Thána due chiefly it aappears to a decrease in institutions. There was a total general decrease in arrears of applications for execution from 1,540 to 1,094.

‖‖Should exclude the cost of machinery, but the distribution of the capital outlay between rolling-stock and machinery should be given in a foot-note If it is not possible to allocate the charges separately, the fact should be stated in a foot-note. On lines comprising more than one gauge, the value of locomotive coaching, and goods stock, of each gauge should be given separately.

‡‡ Any difference in the figures shown here, as compared with those already given in the Traffic return for 1895 and in the Capital, and revenue accounts for the second-half of that year, should be explained in a foot-note.

§§ If the figures in this column are less than those shown for the previous year, the reasons for the decrease should be explained in a foot-note.

*The figures for the purposes of Items 59 to 62 of the Traffic return should be obtained by dividing the registered mileage of vehicles attached to passenger, goods, and mixed trains. respectively, by the train mileage of each description of train.

These do not include the cost of machinery. The total Capital outlay on rolling stock upto 31st December 1896, Rs. 3,85,967
